Arlington Market Stores Open Today

HURRYING TO COMPLETE the Jewel Tea co. supermarket in Arlington Market shopping center in time for the opening next Wednesday are Howard Buenger (left) Jewel carpenter foreman who lives in Arlington Heights and Bert Johnson of Chicago.

Arlington Market shopping center, designed for ultimate expansion into the largest one-stop shopping facility in the northwest suburbs, will greet its first customers today.

FIRST OF THE 17 stores to open will be the S.S. Kresge co. variety store. With one-half acre (20,000 square feet) of floor space, the supermarket-size "five and dime" occupies the largest single store area in the center.

Construction began last April on the $1 million-plus first unit of the development at Foundry (Kensington) rd. and Dryden pl. in Arlington Heights.

Three other stores will open during the coming week. Jewel Tea Co. and High-Low Foods, inc. supermarkets will debut next Wednesday and One-Hour Cleaners is slated to open "early in the week."

A GRAND OPENING will be held early next month, after several more stores have been completed.

In various stages of construction are quarters for: Walgreen Drugs, Danegger's Bakery, Sherwin William Paint co., Joal Shoes, Edwards Snack Shop and Pure Oil co. Other lessees have not been announced.

About two-thirds of the 16-acre tract at the northwest corner of Foundry rd. and Dryden pl. is occupied by the first unit. Parking is provided for 579 autos.

A second unit, perhaps to contain a department store, may be added, along with additional parking spaces, next year.

ASSOCIATED in the development are 2 Chicago real estate firms: Farr, Chinnock and Sampson and Ward Farnsworth and co.

Kresge store manager Harry J. Hardisty said features of the store include a 30-seat luncheon counter, 6 check-out stations, air-conditioning, a public address system and 1,945 feet of convenient front-serve counters.

The new Arlington Heights' Kresge's is part of the chain's expansion and modernization program during which 100 stores will be built and others extensively modernized by the end of 1959. The local store is the 29th for the firm in the Chicago metropolitan area and the 71st in the state.

THE JEWEL supermarket will be "something special" for the fast-growing chain in that it will be the second store to incorporate a new "anniversary store" decor with pastel color panels and the fifth store in the Chicago area to include a delicatessen.

Some 30 cooked dishes, including broiled lobster and barbecued chicken, will be prepared on the spot and party snacks will also be offered.

Another new feature will be automatically - operated entrance as well as exit doors on both ends of the 100-foot-wide glass front. A 25-ton air conditioning unit will cool summer shoppers, who will be hurried on their way through 7 check-out counters and a speed aisle.

Ferd Blohm, formerly manager of the downtown Jewel store, will manage the larger new market, which will employ 65 persons. A Jewel spokesman said the downtown store will remain open.

HIGH-LOW FOODS will be located at the south end of the 640-foot-long building fronting on Dryden pl., Jewel at the north end.

It will be the fifth suburban store and the 40th store in the Chicago area for the chain. The interior of the supermarket is a sparkling white with red display posters atop the shelves highlighting the color teatment.

Roger C. Clark will manage the store.

ONE-HOUR Cleaners expects to open about April 1. Manager-operator Bert Powell, who also has a cleaning firm in Des Plaines, said all work will be done in the store with $35,000 worth of equipment now being installed.

The cleaning firm will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays. Other stores will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday.

Local Taxpayers Wince at Rates

Gloomy Forecast Realized

Arlington Heights taxpayers winced Tuesday as they heard their property taxes this year will be the highest in the northwest suburbs.

The basic village rate, for persons also included in school district 25 and park district boundaries, climbed 12.36 per cent over last year.

AS GLOOMILY predicted in past months, the new rate did indeed climb over the $5 mark for the first time in history.

The new basic village rate is $5.136 per $100 of assessed property valuation, compared with $4.57 on the basic 1956 rate (the one you paid in 2 installments last summer).

Penny-wise the increase amounted to 56.6 cents per $100 of valuation or $5.66 per $1,000 of equalized assessed valuation.

Higher rates alone do not tell the whole story of how much more each home owner will pay. The state also increased the equalization factor by which basic assessments are multiplied. The factor this year is 1.44, compared with 1.40 last year. This means basic assessments will be multiplied by 44 per cent, instead of 40 per cent.

SAMPLE NEW rates from other communities in the northwest area show how much higher are the new Arlington rates:

Palatine, $4.902; Mount Prospect, $4.828; Wheeling, $4.644; Rolling Meadows, $4.554; Park Ridge, $4.452, and Des Plaines, $4.202.

Ten different rates in Skokie (cut up into many school districts) were even lower, ranging from an amazing $3.52 to a respectable $4.22.

Perhaps typical of the response of many residents was a comment of one man attending a PTA session at an Arlington Heights public school:

"It's getting almost too expensive for me to keep on living here," he smiled, but adding "And I'm not jesting."

SOME SECTIONS of the village would pay a lower or higher rate because they are located in another school or township or are not in the local park district. Rates in Virginia Terrace, for example, would be lower ($4.80, up from $4.35) because it is in Wilson school district while Mayor Carlisle and his neighbors south of Central rd. (thus in Elk Grove instead of Wheeling township) would pay a trifle more ($5.19).

(A breakdown of rates will be found inside this week.)

Better than one-half of the increase in Arlington Heights (and in most of northwest suburbs) is due to annexation of the village by the Metropolitan Sanitary district in November, 1956, a move village officials tried to block and, after the annexation carried in a referendum, void. Their efforts failed but the village received $350,000 as a cash settlement, plus other benefits.

ADDITION OF THE Sanitary district to the list of the taxing bodies with a claim on John Q.'s castle brings the number to 10. Of the 9 who taxed in previous years, 4 this year raised rates, 4 lowered rates and 1 government unit (the mosquito abatement district) rate remained unchanged.

Lowering their rates by as much as 2 cents in some cases were Cook county, the forest preserve district and the suburban tuberculosis sanitarium. The biggest drop came from the Arlington Heights park district, at 7.4 cents lower.

Four tax bodies adjusting rates upward were school district 25, by 21.4 cents; Arlington high school district 214, by 8.2 cents; village of Arlington Heights, by 4.8 cents, and Wheeling township, by .4 cents.

INCREASES totaled 67 cents, minus decreases totaling 10.4 cents, leaving a net increase of 56.6 cents.

Unincorporated areas of Wheeling township could figure their rates by subtracting from the basic rate given the 85.8 cents per $100 that Arlington Heights residents pay to their village and park district, then adjusting the figures for their particular school and fire protection districts.

Help for Spanish-Americans

Citizens Organize Council, Study Minority Problem

A COMMUNITY-WIDE organization, The Opportunity Council, has been established in northwest suburbs to study and seek solutions for the problems of Spanish-speaking minorities in this area. Newly-elected officers of the group, shown here at the first meeting Thursday in Palatine, are Mrs. John N. Moran of Mount Prospect, secretary, and co-chairmen Mrs. Clifford B. McFeely of Mt. Prospect and John F. Sicks of Wheeling.

Problems of Spanish-Americans residing in the northwest suburban area will be studied by a community-wide group organized at a meeting in Palatine Thursday.

THE NEW GROUP will be called "The Opportunity Council."

It pledges an area-wide civic movement to study the minority's problems in such areas as housing, health, education, and employment as well as the relationship to the suburban community as a whole. The council will seek to provide opportunities for improvement and to develop better understanding.

Directing organization of the council will be newly-elected officers: co-chairmen Mrs. Clifford B. McFeely, 106 S. George, Mount Prospect, and John F. Sicks, 268 E. Dundee rd., Wheeling, and secretary Mrs. John N. Moran, 200 S. Pine, Mount Prospect.

Elected to a board of directors were Mrs. Philip Pickett, 426 S. Dryden, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Alvin Perry, 1256 N. Chicago, Arlington Heights; Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Perez, 6N112 Poplar st., Wood Dale; Mrs. John D. Martinez, Higgins rd., Des Plaines; William H. Jimenez, 2611 Park st., Rolling Meadows; Joseph Schneller, 701 N. Beverly, Arlington Heights; and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Chapman, 904 N. Kaspar, Arlington Heights.

LEADING CITIZENS of the northwest community and various civic and service organizations will be invited to become "patrons" of the council to lend support to its efforts. The Opportunity Council will work in cooperation with the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, Illinois Commission on Human Relations, and other agencies.

The council has set up a speakers bureau for clubs and organizations interested in learning about the problem in this area. Program chairmen should contact Mrs. John F. Sicks at Wheeling 253.

Next meeting for the council is Wednesday, April 2 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Walter A. Bricker, 414 N. Maple, Mount Prospect.

Organization of The Opportunity Council resulted from Paddock Publications' current series of articles, "Shame of the Suburbs," which have been discussing the plight of Spanish-American citizens in this area.

The Editor's Column

by STUART R. PADDOCK

Published statistics place the blame for a lowering of the birth rate upon the economic situation.

School officials may not know it, but the present recession is credited with the big drop in the 1957 number of births.

If such claims are true, the school boards only have to wait 6 years and their troubles will be over, unless, of course, the economic picture changes for the better.

There is a bright side. The longer the recession, the more opportunity for the schools to catch up in their building programs.

We have received the tax news this week. Our total tax rate is higher than last year, due to increases in school rates and the new sanitary tax. Before you figure your tax bill by multiplying the tax rate with last year's valuation, remember that all realty assessments were raised by the State Board of Equalization, as well as many of them by the office of the county assessor.

School boards are going to be disappointed. They will be unable to keep any promise that additional housing will offset the school increase in tax bills of the individual taxpayer.

The Zenith Radio Station, under signature of its president E. F. McDonald Jr., in a letter sent to editors throughout the United States, makes some startling claims.

He likens the power of the NBC and CBS to the radio power that enabled Hitler to take over the German people.

We are willing to admit that the television stations are doing their best to control all advertising of the large corporations which in turn affects the receipts of newspapers, but we are unwilling to believe that the multi-sponsored programs of TV can control the thinking of the American people.

Congress may be flooded with letters suggested by the TV chains, but until the chains also take over the newspapers of this land, the press will safeguard the future of this country.

Arlington Heights village board is considering the appointment of a full-time fire chief for our growing city of 23,000 population. The fire chief and volunteers think such a move unnecessary.

A strong argument in favor of a full-time chief is the need for on-the-spot direction of the 6-man regular fire department. The trustees might consider the feasibility of creating a director of public safety, consolidating police and fire chief into one office. Other suburbs are doing this at considerable saving to the taxpayer and increased efficiency in the departments.

Close cooperation between the village board and the Palatine Chamber of Commerce has paid off. At the suggestion of the Chamber of Commerce, Friday night shoppers are not required to feed the meters.

The elimination by the village of a parking charge on the shopping night is appreciated by both the merchants and their customers.

The establishment of a one-way traffic through the business district is expected to eliminate the traffic jams that have previously occurred on weekend shopping days.

When a food chain operates 4 stores within 5 miles, it is recognizing a trade possibility.

It gives the independent merchant something to think about.

Those newcomers are not going to confine their purchases to the big shopping centers.

It may require a change in merchandising methods and a stepped-up advertising program, but aren't there more potential customers per store today than before the shopping centers arrived?

Stores to Close On Good Friday

An Arlington Heights custom of 20 and more years ago will be resumed this year as businesses and village offices close for several hours on Good Friday.

Merchants and village departments have been asked to close between the hours of 1 and 3 p.m. April 4 to observe the most solemn hours of the day in a proclamation by Mayor Edward G. Carlisle.

AREA CHURCHES of the Lutheran church - Missouri synod will sponsor a joint "Three Hours" service Good Friday at the Arlington theatre from 1 to 3 p.m.

The service will be divided into seven 15-minute segments, each to feature a brief devotional message on one of the "Seven Last Words" of Christ. The Rev. Edgar H. Behrens, pastor of Faith Lutheran church, and the Rev. Luther V. Stephan, pastor of St. Peter Lutheran church, are in charge of arrangements.

Other co-operating Protestant churches in the Arlington Heights area will hold a Good Friday service this year at St. John United church, N. Evergreen at St. James, at 1 p.m.

Preacher will be Dr. Orvis Jordan of Park Ridge, who recently returned from the Holy Land.

Arlington Heights First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches will have individual services Good Friday evening.

Gas Station Is Ransacked

Burglars last Friday broke a $300 plate glass window to take approximately $50 in merchandise from a service station at Rand rd. and Euclid ave. near Arlington Heights.

W. C. Gabriel, owner of Gabriel's Automatic Transmission service reported the loss of a half dozen boxes of spark plugs, hand tools and wrenches, a small fire extinguisher and 8 bottles of soft drink.

State Troopers Robert Bennett and John Coyne, who investigated the burglary, reported that the burglars broke a show room glass window to gain entry to the station.

'Rubber' Checks Are Passed Here

Three fraudulent checks totaling $279.44 were cashed in Arlington Heights Thursday, 2 of them apparently by a professional rubber check artist.

Two checks that were cashed at the Arlington Heights National bank appeared to be the work of professionals, noted police Chief L. W. Calderwood. A check protector had been used on both checks, he said. They were for $134 and $80. One was forged with the signature of local builder Peter Craig and made payable to Jack Hason, 612 E. Olive, Arlington Heights. There is no such address.

THE OTHER check drawn on the Arlington Heights bank was made payable to and endorsed by one Joe Stevens.

Also returned stamped "no account" was a check for $65.44 drawn on the Des Plaines National Bank, cashed at Arlington Auto Parts, 818 W. Northwest hwy., and signed by Albert Camp of Camp Electric co., 1075 Oakton st., Des Plaines. Police could locate no Albert Camp or any such electric company.

TWO ROUND LAKE youths charged with passing bum checks for a total amount of $56 late in January made restitution of the sums to Lingren's Menswear and Arlington Heights Camera shop last week. Charges were then dropped against Martin O. Christiansen and Arthur C. Kellogg.

Mrs. Gerald C. Berthold, 1512 N. Prairie, told police a man about 35 years of age and driving a cream and blue auto tried to pick her up while she was walking along Thomas st. last Thursday and later attempted the same with her son.

A 13-year-old boy from Chicago was turned over to county juvenile authorities after he was caught while attempting to steal from a cash register at Elms Grocerland Saturday. Police said it was his third offense.

Camp Fire Girls To Seek Funds

Arlington Heights residents contributed more than $1,600 to the Camp Fire Sunday fund campaign, with donations from business and industry coming in daily, reported Joseph M. Dezonna, fund chairman.

It is hoped with the Camp Fire Girls April selling of Russell Stover's chocolate candy, the $2,500 goal can be realized.

The average annual consumption of meat per person in the United States is in excess of 150 pounds.

Begin Construction Soon On 5 Apartment Buildings

Construction of 5 apartment buildings with 80 living units will begin shortly on a site at Salem ave. and St. James st. in Arlington Heights.

THE PROJECT, estimated to cost about $1 million, was announced Tuesday by Nathan Dvorson, Chicago, president of Ridgemore corporation, which will erect the buildings. Associated in the venture is Arthur R. Thiersch, a builder residing at 1018 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights.

To be called the Northwest apartments, the project will be built in a largely undeveloped area west of Grigsby-Allison co. The 2.5-acre site has 389 feet of frontage on the south side of St. James st., and extends 244 feet from Salem ave. west to Kaspar ave. The site has been zoned for multiple-dwellings for some years.

TO GIVE ACCESS to the site the builder will pave one-half of Kaspar ave. and extend a connection to Dwyer ave. via a private 33-foot easement across the north end of the lot. The easement is necessary because the village does not own a right-of-way for the extention of St. James st. between Salem and Kaspar aves.

All buildings will face Kaspar ave. with parking to the rear along Salem ave. Shrubbery will be placed around the 90-car capacity lot.

The buildings will each have 3 front entrances and will be of 2 stories plus English basement. They will be of fireproof construction, with face brick all around and a concrete tile roof.

THERE WILL BE 16 apartments in each building, 4 garden units, 4 one-bedroom units, 4 deluxe one-bedroom units with washer, dryer, dishwasher and dinette and 4 two-bedroom units.

All apartments will have hot water heating and air conditioning systems, gas stoves, refrigerators, oak and vinyl tile flooring over cement and will be soundproof. Each living room will have one wall finished in brick.

JAMES VIGER of Mt. Prospect is the architect and Dvorson, now erecting a 13-story apartment building in Hyde Park, will be the contractor.

Rents have not been announced for the apartments, which are slated for November occupancy.

Full-Time Fire Chief Plan Reaches 'Talking' Stage

An Arlington Heights trustee this week said that the fire committee of the village board is "talking about" hiring a full-time fire chief for the village.

TRUSTEE Wendell L. Prunty of the fire committee said "we don't have anyone but a part time officer in charge of both the regulars and volunteers" and added that he and fellow committeeman Frederick A. Weber are "exploring the possibilities" of a full-time chief.

"I feel the volunteers need an officer and the regulars need an officer," continued Prunty. "A full-time chief would carry on the training and inspection programs we set up on the advice of (James E.) Collins (retired head of the Chicago fire prevention bureau) this year."

Fire Chief Elroy J. Winkelman said he had been approached on the question and that it had been discussed at meetings of the 21 volunteer firemen.

"I DON'T FEEL a full-time chief is needed," declared Winkelman. "It is uncalled for at this time. Yes, we have a village of 23,000 but there aren't many more calls than when it was a village of 8,000. It would be different if our equipment was going out 5, 6 or 7 times a week."

Winkelman joined the volunteers more than 30 years ago and has been chief since August, 1947. He receives a flat salary of $100 a month while volunteers are paid by the call.

Winkelman estimated that a full-time chief would receive a salary of $6,000 to $6,500 yearly. He would presumably be stationed at the north side fire station, now manned by 6 regular firemen working a 56-hour week.

THE QUESTION of employment of a fire chief is apparently being considered now in order that allowance for a change in salary could be made in the 1958-59 municipal budget.

The budget is now being drafted. (AF

To Confirm 23 Palm Sunday In Faith Lutheran Church

Pastor Edgar H. Behrens of Faith Lutheran church, S. State rd. at Park, Arlington Heights, has announced that 23 young people will be confirmed Palm Sunday at 10:45 a.m. These young people were presented to the congregation and publicly examined last Sunday.

Solemn rite of confirmation will be administered by the pastor who will also preach the sermon. A special anthem for Palm Sunday will be sung by the Faith senior choir and a special confirmation anthem by the high school choir, as announced by George A. Schrader, minister of music. The confirmation class will sing the hymn "Thine Forever, God of Love." Palms and flowers will adorn the altar and chancel.

The list of confirmands is as follows:

Roger Behrens, Leslie Beyer, Bruce Botterman, Dennis Buren, Earl Burnquist, Kenneth Grueness, Margaret Haizmann, Judith Havey, Albert Hill and Donald Markus.

Dedicate Post Office April 5

The new Arlington Heights post office will be dedicated April 5 in a ceremony starting at 2 p.m.

U. S. Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church of Evanston and postal officials will participate in the ceremony, Virginia F. Dodge, postmistress, said.

The postal officials are Robert R. Justus, regional director, and John B. Nasser, district manager.

THE NEW POST office, located at 201 W. Wing, has 8,000 square feet of interior space in addition to 1,000 square feet of platform space. A space of 7,700 square feet is available for the use of postal vehicles and the convenience of the public.

In tracing the growth of the Arlington Heights postal service, the postmistress said the village now has 31 routes compared to nine 10 years ago. Nine vehicles are used now in contrast to three 10 years ago. At present, the postoffice has 80 employees while 10 years ago there were 20.

Last School Bell Heralds Unofficial Start of Spring

Regardless of calendar and weather spring officially starts tomorrow afternoon as far as our town's student body is concerned when the last bell rings in the schools and spring vacation starts. Some local families will vacation out of town, most will just relax right here while others will welcome home children whose college vacations also begin tomorrow.

EXPECTED TOMORROW and over the weekend, to be home through Easter Monday are Curt Rogers, arriving from Miami university at Oxford, Ohio and Bernadine Shumaker, a freshman in special education at Illinois State Normal. From Wisconsin will come Kay Christman, a freshman at Beloit and Jan Davis, in her second year at Carroll college in Waukesha.

Eugene Freeman will be home Friday, too, from Carthage college. Mrs. Freeman and Bonnie spent the past weekend in Carthage, visiting Eugene and attending the college presentation of "Kiss Me, Kate," in which Eugene had a part.

DONNA RAFFAY is expected today from Madison where she attends the University of Wisconsin. Classes do not resume for Donna until April 14, giving her plenty of time to discuss with her parents the exciting prospects of summer classes at the University of Hawaii. Combining a summer of travel with accredited college courses made available by Howard tours, Donna tentatively plans to fly to the west coast the second week of June, then on by boat to Hawaii for 54 days of classes and touring the islands.

Marybeth Born arrived from Blackburn college at Carlinville last Saturday and will return to her college home Sunday. Miss Carol Lunsmann, too, had an early vacation, arriving from Iowa State college in Ames last Wednesday and returning to her studies Monday of this week.

JUDY CLABAUGH and her roommate, students at Indiana university recently visited Kappa Kappa Gamma sisters Jane Holloway and Sally Fluent at Lexington, Ky. where Jane and Sally attend the University of Kentucky. Judy's and Sally's spring vacations at home will begin April 2, while Jane plans a vacation with her parents who will come to Kentucky.

Spring days are traditionally moving days too, and the Robert Gillhams leave Arlington Heights this weekend for a new home in Seabrook, N. J. Their home at 717 S. Evergreen will soon be occupied by new owners, the Walter Loster family of Mt. Prospect. A neighborhood farewell luncheon for 15 was given for Mrs. Gillham by Mrs. Quentin Peterson and Mrs. Robert Bartl at the Peterson home Tuesday.

Mrs. James Drake, 820 N. Dunton, introduced 2 newcomers in the block to their new neighbors at a morning coffee party last Thursday. Her guests of honor were Mrs. Hayes Fletcher, wife of the associate minister of the Methodist church of Arlington Heights, and Mrs. David Soyat, whose husband is a lieutenant commander with the naval air force and recently transferred to the Glenview Naval air station.

Lt. Comm. and Mrs. Soyat arrived in Arlington Heights a week ago Monday from Seattle and are getting settled at 816 N. Dunton with their 4 children, Rita, 16; Ingrid, 14; Jeff, 4 and Lisa, one year old.

ANOTHER NEWCOMER on N. Dunton is Leslie Szabo Jr., born last Friday in St. Joseph hospital in Elgin to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Szabo, who last year left their native Hungary and make their home now at 726 N. Dunton. Leslie Jr. is the Szabos' first child.

William Keach Hayden, infant son of the John K. Haydens, 1648 N. Vail, was christened Sunday afternoon in St. James Catholic Church of Arlington Heights. Fr. Reichert officiated, with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pustaver, 709 S. Highland, serving as sponsors. Following the ceremony a family celebration honored the baby at the Hayden home where a buffet supper for 25 was served.

ANTHONY MICHAEL Buffalo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vito Buffalo, 101 E. Hawthorne, was another of the infants christened Sunday afternoon at the 3 o'clock ceremony in St. James church. His godparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Corrado of Chicago, who were among the 30 guests at the home of Anthony's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Christman, 101 E. Hawthorne, following the church service.

Others who joined the family celebration included the baby's paternal grandmother and great-grandmother, Mrs. Josepnine Buffalo and Mrs. Rose LaBello, both of Chicago, and his aunt, Miss Kay Christman, who motored here with a college friend from Beloit.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hauser, 404 W. Oakton, had as their guest last week, Mr. Hauser's aunt, Mrs. A. I. Swanson of Gowrie, Iowa. Mrs. Swanson chose this particular time to visit here and in Chicago with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Hancock, in order to meet and welcome a cousin, Eric Tennevall of Perstorp, Sweden. Mr. Tennevall is in the United States for a month on a business trip and arranged the Chicago leg of his trip to coincide with Mrs. Swanson's visit here.

THE COUSINS, who had never met before, were guests Sunday at the Hauser home, affording everyone the pleasant opportunity to get acquainted. The Hausers, too, are getting acquainted with Arlington Heights, having moved here from Des Moines late last year. They have a daughter, Debby, in third grade at Ridge school. Mr. Hauser is a contracting engineer with the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nagel, 108 N. Dwyer, enjoyed the visit last week of Mrs. Nagel's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sengstock of Milwaukee. Over the weekend Mrs. Nagel motored to Ft. Wayne with her daughter, Mrs. Irv Carnehl, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Otto Nagel, both of Park Ridge, to attend the wedding Saturday of her niece.

MR. AND MRS. R. J. Stein, 1414 W. Oakton, spent the weekend in Springfield where Mr. Stein served as best man Saturday at the wedding of Jerome Schapiro, a friend since college days.

Weekend visitors at the Richard Fenner home, 802 S. State, were Mr. Fenner's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. August Fenner Jr. of St. Joseph, Mo.

Robert Borchard, 729 N. Dunton, was among the exhibitors last week at the Evanston Womans club annual exhibition of North Shore and Chicago artists, and his "Blue City Concept" was awarded first prize among the oils presented. Mr. Borchard is a member of the art faculty of school district 65 of Evanston.

AN OUTDOOR barbecue to celebrate the first day of spring was planned by 3 N. Dunton couples far in advance of that day traditionally associated with blue birds and crocuses. The Harry Laysons, Lyman Lloyds and Warren Schwartzes saw no reason to change those plans simply because it was snowing, and barbecued as per plan. A small victory was conceded to the wintry blasts, however, and the "welcub to sprig" group dined indoors.

Henry C. W. Meyer, 718 N. Evergreen, especially enjoyed celebrating his 80th birthday Saturday since he just recently returned home from almost 7 weeks in Ravenswood hospital in Chicago. Still convalescing from his long illness, Mr. Meyer celebrated quietly at home, receiving the congratulations of family members and friends who dropped in Saturday afternoon and evening.

ARTHUR LANE, residing with his daughter and family, the Arthur Ekbergs, 2108 N. Chestnut, also enjoyed a quiet family celebration on his birthday Tuesday. Mr. Lane, too, is recuperating at home following major surgery and a long stay at Augustana hospital in Chicago. Mr. Ekberg observed his birthday Sunday and with the family spent the day in Chicago to share a celebration with his mother whose birthday was last Wednesday.

Delores Roper recently celebrated her March 10 birthday with 6 young friends at an afternoon party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roper, 9 E. Campbell st. Delores was 6.

MRS. LOUIS Schomburg and Mrs. Charles Cronin shared the honors at a recent dual birthday celebration given for them by Mrs. M. R. Kephart and Mrs. K. T. Brusa. Twelve friends met at the Kephart home, 801 S. Evergreen st., for a luncheon in the St. Patrick day motif and presented each of the birthday girls with a gift from the group.

Mrs. Schomburg, active in Camp Fire activities, was also the guest of honor at a "coffee and" with 10 local Camp Fire leaders. Saturday evening 12 local, Park Ridge and Chicago relatives were dinner guests at the Schomburg home, 305 S. Evergreen, where open house was held following dinner for friends who dropped in to congratulate Mrs. Schomburg.

RICHARD CARLSEN was 12 years old early in March but a family celebration wasn't possible until a couple of weeks later. Then 15 Chicago relatives congratulated the young man at a Saturday get together in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carlsen, 1314 N. Harvard.

Hugh Wesler, 332 S. Derbyshire, observed his 11th birthday Sunday at a family celebration in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wesler.

Miss Joanne Muran planned and executed a highly successful surprise birthday party for her mother, Mrs. Joe Muran Tuesday evening. Following evening church devotions 10 friends appeared at the Muran home, 1319 N. Dunton, to congratulate the astounded guest of honor and enjoy the hospitality of their young hostess.

MR. AND MRS. John Dobbins, former residents of the Arlington Heights area, will mark their golden anniversary Saturday, March 30, with an open house in their Batavia home. Friends are invited to visit with them between 2 and 4 and 7 and 9 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaboda, 1217 Sunset, are announcing the birth of another granddaughter, Peggy Ann, born Sunday in Woodstock to Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Shahoda of Woodstock. The baby has a sister, MaryBeth, 5.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gow, 323 S. Windsor, and their children, Mac and Sandra, spent the weekend skiing at Iron Mountain, Mich. Great ski enthusiasts, the Gows found the late winter weather conditions at the resort "perfect."

Judy Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Peterson, 433 S. Pine, is arriving home Saturday for a 10-day vacation from Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis., where she is attending her freshman year.

STEPHEN JURCO III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Jurco II, 217 S. Windsor, celebrated his fourth birthday Saturday with a party for 8 young friends. Also attending the festivities were his grandmothers, Mrs. Judith Jurco, Chicago, and Mrs. A. Cinquini, Chicago, and his aunts, Miss Olgo Jurco, Chicago, and Miss Loretta Cinquini, who made the trip from Mount Mary College, Milwaukee.

Craig Kovar, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Allen Kovar, 431 S. Windsor, entertained 7 young friends at lunch Friday in honor of his third birthday.

THE MANY FRIENDS of Mrs. John Hickox, 314 S. Windsor, wish her a speedy recovery from her illness. Mrs. Hickox was admitted at the Evanston hospital twice in the last week for treatment of a digestive disorder.

HOME LAST WEEK for between-quarters recess were Albert J. Rose, 100 Drury, and William Lussow, 407 Windsor, both attending Colorado State university, Ft. Collins, Colo. Accompanying Bill Lussow as guest was a Sigma Chi fraternity brother, Chuck Church, Plattsburg, N. Y.

Among highlights of their holiday were a day's tour of the Sinclair laboratory at Le Monte and an evening's entertainment at the Brookwood country club as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Rose.

A FAREWELL DINNER party was held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tully, 311 S. Carlyle, for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neill, [illegible]. Neill left Sunday for his new post in San Francisco.

Also hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Merl Peek, 1114 N. Patton, and Mr. and Mrs. John Latta, 805 N. [illegible] Mr. and Mrs. John [illegible] meister, 1205 N. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lips, 711 N. Evergreen, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ko[illegible], 810 N. Chestnut.

Northwest Traffic Deaths Mount; Two More Killed

A LIFE-SAVER in the form of Nurse Shirley LaSalle of Algonquin prevented a Beardstown, Ill., man Charles Dethridge, from bleeding to death Tuesday morning when his car and another collided head-on on Golf rd. a mile and a half west of Higgins rd. She happened to be at the scene just as the mishap occurred. During the past week 2 persons were killed and 9 injured in northwest Cook county traffic accidents. —Photo by Robert Blaski.

by BOB BUCHANAN

Northwest suburban Cook county traffic fatalities continued to mount at a record pace with 2 deaths during the past week.

The death of a 12-year-old boy hit while crossing Dundee rd. and a 21-year-old Chicago youth who succumbed to injuries received in a crash in Deer Grove forest preserve brought the toll to five.

Last year at this time only one traffic fatality had been recorded in a year in which 21 lives were lost in Wheeling, Palatine and Elk Grove townships.

The pace is 70 days ahead of 1957 when highway death No. 5 occurred June 2.

Of the 5 deaths this year, 3 have occurred in Wheeling township, and 1 each in Palatine and Elk Grove townships. Last year's figures for all 12 months were Wheeling 9 deaths, Palatine 7 and Elk Grove township 6.

JOSE L. SALAZAR, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Justino Salazar, was killed instantly when struck by a car driven by Mrs. Marcella A. Billens, Rte. 2, McHenry, on Dundee rd. about a half mile west of State rd. Monday morning.

The boy, according to information brought out at an inquest Tuesday in Arlington Heights, had crossed Dundee rd. to mail a letter and attempted to recross the road when struck.

Mrs. Billens swerved to avoid hitting the boy but saw an oncoming car. The lad was struck with the right side of the bumper.

The inquest was continued by the Cook county coroner's office to 2 p.m. Thursday, April 10, at the Arlington Heights village hall.

The Salazar boy recently moved to the Vernon Deeke farm on Dundee rd. with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Justino Salazar. He was born in Arrandez, Mexico, and spent about 11 years in the United States, mostly in Texas.

The lad was at the fifth grade level but had not started school yet.

LAST THURSDAY Fred Soehrmann, 21, 4437 N. Campbell st., Chicago, died in Sherman hospital, Elgin, of injuries received in an auto crash in Deer Grove forest preserve March 5.

According to State Trooper Ronald Perry who investigated the fatal accident, driver of the auto in which Soehrmann was a passenger, Pete N. Apostle, 18, 3917 N. Oconto, was trying to see how fast he could go on sharp curves at 3:45 a.m. Apostle misjudged a curve and slammed the car into a tree.

A Beardstown, Ill., was was saved from death Tuesday by a nurse who happened to watch a head-on collision on Golf rd. a mile an da half west of Higgins rd.

State Trooper John Coyne reported that Shirley LaSalle, 1112 Poplar, Algonquin, a registered nurse, witnessed the accident, and administered first aid to Charles Dethridge, 522 Ann st., Beardstown, who was badly cut about the neck.

Officer Coyne said a westbound car driven by Walter J. Gall, 34, 7248 Beckwith rd., Morton Grove, apparently hit a patch of ice, skidding sideways. Dethridge's eastbound car hit it broadside.

Dethridge and Gall both were taken to St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, in an ambulance. Gall was reported to have suffered possible internal injuries.

Gall's 1957 model car suffered $500 damage and Dethridge's 1949 auto was declared a total loss.

A 7-YEAR-OLD Elk Grove township boy, John Love, 501 E. Golf rd., Arlington Heights, narrowly escaped death Wednesday, March 19, when he was hit by a half-ton truck while crossing State rd. a quarter mile north of Algonquin rd.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Love, suffered 2 broken ribs in the accident at the Forest View school. Driver of the truck was William R. Russow, Greenwood rd., Rte. 3, Palatine.

Russow was charged with driving too fast for conditions by State Trooper Walter Dombrowski.

Three persons, Beatrice Beker, 48, Rose Bleder, 50, and Francis Becker, 19, were taken to Resurrection hospital following a 3-car accordion type collision on Algonquin rd. at Golf rd. Saturday.

A car driven by Brian J. Dean, 20, 816 Bristol ave., Westchester, crashed into the rear of a car driven by Charles W. Hertzel, 46, 2634 N. Harding st., Chicago, which in turn crashed into the rear of a car driven by Elwyn G. Barron, 3527 N. Leavitt, Chicago.

Hertzel and Barron had stopped their autos at the 4-way stop. State Trooper Stephen Golden charged Dean for following too close in traffic. Damage to the Dean car was set at $250, to the Hertzel auto at $450, and to the Barron car at $75.

OLGA MOROZOFF, 61, 3112 N. Central, Chicago, was rushed to Resurrection hospital, Chicago, following a collision at Elmhurst and Foundry rds. Wednesday, March 19.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Theodore Diskant, 66, 4523 Belmont, Chicago. According to Cook county deputies, the Diskant car slid on wet pavement, crashing into a car driven by Earle G. Cromer Jr., 33, 622 N. Main st., Mt. Prospect.

Police said the Diskant car was southbound when it hit the northbound Cromer car which turned in front of it while making a left-hand turn onto Foundry rd. off Elmhurst rd.

Algonquin and Meacham rds. continued to be one of northwest Cook county's worst intersections with another accident this week.

MARY PISCIOTTO, 42, 10437 Medill ave., Melrose Park, was to have seen her own doctor following a collision at the intersection Saturday.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Joseph A. Pisciotto, 44, same address, who according to State police started up after stopping for through traffic at Algonquin rd.

The Pisciotto car didn't make it across the intersection as one driven by Thaddeus P. Kuczynski, 40, 2818 N. Springfield, Chicago, hit it broadside.

State Trooper Joseph Kirk issued Pisciotto a ticket for failure to yield the right-of-way.

PHYLLIS RAPP, 18, 1143 Stratford, Arlington Heights, was slightly injured Sunday when the car in which she was a passenger collided with another on Palatine rd. west of Quentin rd. Miss Rapp was to have seen her own doctor.

Driver of the car in which she was riding was Judy Bartsch, Box 222, Palatine. Cook county deputies said the Bartsch auto was pulling from a driveway when struck by one driven by Louella Golden, 45, 204 Bothwell st., Palatine. Damage to the Golden car was placed at $250 and to the Bartsch car at $200.

WHAT'S A BARGAIN?

Buying a television is a substantial investment and it's natural that we shop for what we think is a bargain. Often, economies are made on the initial cost that turn out to be long time expenditures, and far from being bargains over a period of time.

A TV is the most complex appliance in the home today, and the buying of one is not like picking out a refrigerator, range or set of furniture. It's an electronic that must have the consideration of house location, type of antenna installation, other electric equipment disturbance factors; even the position in your living room might have a bearing on reception.

The LANDWEHR TV & APPLIANCES organization has proven itself many times over in the ability to bringing customers the best of TV viewing. Phone CL 5-0700 today for electronic services that are long term bargains and not short term deals.

Seven 'Newcomers' Strenghten Board of Trustees of Hospital

Strong new representation from business and industry in Chicago and the northwest suburban area has recently been added to the board of trustees of the Northwest Community Hospital center.

Among those who are newly elected to the board is Benjamin F. Lindheimer, executive director of the Arlington Park Jockey club and the Washington Park Jockey club. Almost simultaneously with his election to the hospital body, Lindheimer was named "Horseman of the year" by the jockeys, grooms, and trainers "back of the strech" who make up the membership of the Horseman's Benevolent and Protective association.

JOINING LINDHEIMER on th board is Robrt E. Kozeliski, Arlington Heights, president of the Arlington Heights chamber of commerce and also manager of the Arlington Heights office of the Illinois Bell Telephone co.

Two Barrington civic leaders, also named as directors, are Charles L. Mee, division manager of the Northern Illinois Gas co., and Charles S. Motter, vice-president of the Morton Manufacturing co. of Chicago. Motter is a former president of the Barrington Hills Country club.

Other prominent business figures elected to serve the hospital as trustees for a 3 year period are: Frank M. Crossen, executive vice-president of Centex corporation, which is building 6,000 homes in Elk Grove village, one of the communities to be served by the hospital; Charles A. Holdmair, president of Elk Grove village and prominent Des Plaines realtor; and P. N. Gammelgaard, vice-president for refining for the Pure Oil co. which is planning a large new office structure in the hospital's service area.

Newspapers Aren't Needed in Britain

by BILL DILLINGHAM

In England one does not have to buy a newspaper in order to get the daily news. This is the country that still uses town criers.

These are the gentlemen that bring the latest news to the villagers by word-of-mouth. They are civic employees working a 6-day week.

ENGLAND's town criers have been announcing news events for centuries. They stroll through their towns ringing a handbell and shouting "Oyez, Oyez, Oyez!" Then they cry out their messages.

"Why bother with buying a newspaper," many English country folk will exclaim. "I've depended upon George for the news ever since I was a boy!"

The west of England and especially Wales still use a large number of criers. Some towns have kept this profession open for 700 years. Marlborough in Wiltshire has had the office since the year 1304 where the records stop, yet it is believed that criers existed there even before that date. In Hastings, records show the office was functioning back in 1205.

The British, with the reputation for tradition and conservatism, have not bothered in numerous towns to abolish this profession.

A CRIER IS sometimes hired by a private organization to dispense a message to the public. Or, individual citizens can "tip" him to announce the loss of a dog, the misplacement of a purse, and so forth. Advertising, however, is not accepted.

A full message-call is, generally, about 40 words. This can be repeated 65 times over a period of 2 hours. The price for this service runs to about 6 shillings (80 cents). This is not very expensive considering that 700 years of tradition go into the man's work. (B

WORN, BERIBBONED and shrouded in mystery is the flag of Boy Scout troop 32 in Arlington Heights. Bronze medallion on the pole designates a 10-year program, given in 1943, indicating a quarter century of service to the youth of the community. Members of the troop are looking for historical data about the troop before their April 7 pancake dinner. Anyone knowing this information is asked to call CLearbrook 3-0492. Kneeling are scouts Randy Miller and Bob Sielken, with scout Mark Hannum and scoutmaster William Robertson looking on.

Scouts to Give $300 for Camp

Boys and dads of Boy Scout Troop 32 have pledged to raise and donate $300 to the Blackhawk Scout District toward the purchase of camping areas relatively close to Arlington Heights.

Part of this sum will be raised at an Aunt Jemima Log Cabin pancake supper to be held Monday, April 7, at the First Presbyterian church. Scouts are hoping that area residents will purchase a dollar dinner ticket and save themselves the trouble of cooking at home or washing dishes.

DEMAND FOR THE camping area was prompted by the rapid growth of city and suburbs, which is crowding out the nearby camping areas. The few public and private camping areas with fresh water and other essentials are booked months in advance and many a request goes unfilled, reports Kenneth Miller, 1307 E. Euclid.

Some 25 boys from Troop 32 recently returned from a camping adventure at Grass Lake in below freezing weather. Despite the coldness, the Scouts had a busy weekend.

One highlight was a snipe hunt led by the older boys. No one in the troop had ever been known to catch a snipe in his bare hands in summer, much less in winter. Yet several lads stoutly assert snipe came within 10 feet of them as they whistled in the dark.

TEST PASSING on the trip was under the direction of assistant scoutmaster Gordon Martin, 1409 N. Yale. He instructed so many boys in so many things from nature study to firebuilding in the wind and snow, and conducted so many tests that he later remarked, "It will take me a week just signing advancement slips."

Coupled with the weather hardship was the lack of clean water. What little the boys had was brought in by car. (A

Easter Cantata At Free Church Next Sunday

The choir of the Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church will present the cantata "Olivet to Calvary" at the evening evangel service of the church Sunday, March 30, at 7 p.m.

The hour-long cantata was written in 1904 in Great Britain.

The choir will be under the direction of Pastor Charles G. Will, with Mrs. Harriet Lindahl at the organ. Solos will be by Mrs. Merwyn Reis, Mrs. Grace Johnson, Mrs. Elaine Cederberg, John Sherman and Pastor Will.

The service will be held in the sanctuary of the church, Dunton and St. James sts., and the public is invited.

Mt. Prospect Girl Pie 'Runner-Up'

ADJUSTING CROWN on Judy Burnidge, Elgin, "Penny Flame Cherry Pie Queen," winner of Northern Illinois Gas Company's cherry pie baking championship and a $400 scholarship, are the other 7 finalists (left to right): Carol Kazlausky, Fox Lake; Palma Covone, Northbrook; Donna Vitense, Westchester; Sandra Feddersen, Grant Park; Judith Cleal, Ransom; Susan Haynes, Mt. Prospect; and Charmayne Amici, Warrenville.

Susan Haynes, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Haynes, 14 N. Emerson, Mt. Prospect, was a runner-up in the championship round of the Northern Illinois Gas Company's Penny Flame Cherry Pie Baking Contest Saturday in Aurora.

Susan received a $50 government bond in the contest, which was won by Judy Burnidge, 17, a senior at Elgin high school.

THE ARLINGTON high senior gained entry in the championship round through triumphs in quarter-final and semi-final competition held recently throughout Northern Illinois Gas' 20-county service territory.

In Saturday's championship round, each of the finalists brought her own equipment and baked her cherry pie from her own basic ingredients on a gas range.

Winner received a choice between a $400 college scholarship or $400 in government bonds.

MISS HAYNES, a home economics student of Mrs. Hazel Joliffe, began cooking and baking when she was about 12 years old. She says she prefers home economics to her other high school subjects and plans to enter Northern Illinois university at DeKalb next autumn to major in home arts.

An ardent seamstress, Susan is the eldest of 7 children in the Haynes family. She has 3 brothers and 3 sisters ranging in age from 3 to 17. Susan was recently named "Miss Homemaker of Tomorrow" by the Arlington home economics department in connection with a Betty Crocker contest. (ACM

The Mailman's Corner

Human Ego Can Grow Too Much

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

It has always been a marvelous thing to me to see how the human ego can grow and grow until it sometimes destroys itself, and in the process of its growth, brings unhappiness and sometimes tragedy to others.

Take a farm lad, one who has lived a simple life. Say that he is a natural artist, but the family and community regards artists as lazy people who never amount to anything. Suddenly his ability is recognized by some one willing to help him. He achieves success, and with it gains many fair weather friends. His art shows are outstanding successes. He makes more and more money, receives compliments on every hand. Unless he is a level headed young man, a combination of things will happen to him. With plenty of money, he finds he can enjoy the finest wines and the companionship of the physically most beautiful women. With each new conquest, whether of prestige, wealth or women, his ego grows. He looks at himself as a little god who can do no wrong. About this time, if he was married as a young man when success was just beginning, he can inflict awful torture on his family, may even land in the divorce court.

FINALLY HE MAY lose his health, then in rapid succession, his ability as an artist is impaired, his income falls rapidly, and those whom he believed were friends now avoid him. Many of those whom he has helped even forsake him. His pride is hurt, health gone, and finances failing. The great moment for decision has now arrived. Depending on the stuff of which he is made, he will either go all the way to the bottom; or will throw away the chaff that he has gathered, and keep the kernels to sow the seeds of a new life, based on humility, common sense, and respect for his real friends and his family.

This wild, uncontrolled growth of the ego takes place in both sexes, and repeats itself over and over again, in spite of myriads of warnings and examples. The story may vary in a thousand details; but it always ends with a deflated ego and a broken and contrite heart; or if the person escapes physical and financial misfortune and keeps his ego, he is generally lonely, eccentric, and unloved. Seek Flaws in C&NW Case For Higher Fare Rates

(CNS)—Lawyers and public officials representing commuters are looking for possible flaws in the Chicago and North Western railroad's strong argument for higher fares and economy cuts for modern operation.

Dates for cross-examination of 4-railroad officials who testified Wednesday before the Illinois commerce commission and dates for opposition testimony will be set by the commission.

THIRTY REPRESENTIVES of commuters and railroad employes—most of them objectors—filed appearances at the crowded and noisy opening session before ICC Examiner Forrest B. McElroy.

Included were attorneys representing 11 suburbs and state representatives from six districts.

The attorneys were: Arthur C. Thorpe (Oak Park), Thomas H. Compere (Highland Park), Charles Michod (River Forest), John Baker, Jr. (Lake Forest), James Dowd, (Des Plaines), Murray R. Conxelman (Waukegan), George Billett (Elmhurst), William Hennessy (Skokie), H. G. Appleby (Mt. Prospect), Russell A. Behrens Evanston, and Louis Ancel (Lincolnwood).

Representatives included: Ester Saperstein (8th), Joseph F. Fanta (9th), Horace H. Brock (14th), Paul Elward (8th), Robert Cherry (27), and Harry H. Semrow (14th).

Also included were Alderman John Hoellen (47th Ward), and Alderman Jack Sperling (50th Ward).

BEN W. HEINEMAN, the railroad's board chairman, said its request for elimination of 23 close-in stations and a revision of the fare structure to place the heaviest charges on short-distance riders was a "first essential step to the complete rehabilitation and modernization of our suburban system."

Heineman said he hoped modernization would include a $6 million order for 36 additional air-conditioned double-deck cars.

Larry S. Provo, the line's vice-president, told the ICC that a 120 per cent fare hike at the 23 stations would be necessary to "break even" if they were not eliminated.

Robert W. Heron, the railroad's superintendent of transportation, said eliminating the stops would cut out the number of trains coming into the Chicago terminal and would speed the arrival of suburban trains.

PROFESSOR STANLEY Berge, Northwestern university transportation department head, said the railroad is doing "a modern-day job of pioneering" with its case before the ICC.

Berge said the proposed fare structure reduces the need for future fare hikes for the regular commuter.

The proposed fare structure calls for unlimited monthly tickets and elimination of the present 10 and 25 ride tickets good for a year.

Attorney Harry R. Booth, representing the North Western Commuters Association, called the railroad's proposal to discontinue 10 and 25 ride tickets "a radical step that may not be in the best interests of the railroad."

Representative Semrow charged that the North Western's proposals were "the most unfair petition ever presented by any railroad."

REPRESENTATIVE Elward presented a petition signed by 1,000 users of Kenmore station which strongly objected to the railroad's proposals.

Attorney Michod said the proposed removal of rail service from River Forest would increase highway congestion.

A flood of angry protest followed a remark by the railroad's general attorney, Jordan J. Hillman, that it would be unusual for members of Congress to appear before federal commissions as state legislators were appearing before this hearing.

Also present at the hearing were representatives of the Forman Commuters Association, Villa Improvement League, the city of Chicago, and the Brotherhood of Railroad trainmen, Telegraphers, Conductors, Brakemen, Clerks, Firemen, and Locomotive Engineers. (B8

'You Can Count On Her'

by Betty Thackery — CLearbrook 3-1916

Wheeling

At the regular monthly meeting of the Wheeling neighborhood girl scout leaders March 20, it was announced that the day camp recruiter this year is Mrs. Phyllis Goske. Those interested in offering their services for day camp should call Mrs. Goske at 97M1.

Cookie packets were distributed to the troop chairmen along with car stickers and other reminders for the local merchants.

Recruiting has already begun for the annual girl scout fund drive to take place in the fall.

A NOMINATING committee for the selection of a neighborhood chairman was appointed. Mrs. Leonard Klaproth and Mrs. Ernest Stavros make up the committee.

To "spice up" girl scout activities at this in-between time of year, the leaders discussed the possibility of tours.

The name of Mrs. Pat Maynard of Wheeling has been added to the "hat" from which 2 persons will be selected to attend the 3-day regional conference in Detroit next October. The "drawing" will be held at the council meeting April 30.

Rolling Meadows

Easter came early to residents of the Thorsen Rest home in Arlington Heights when brownie troop 569, under the leadership of Mrs. Lillian Walkowiak and Mrs. Frances Jacobsen, paid a surprise visit to the home March 22. The girls presented the residents with egg shell tray favors along with best wishes for the Easter season.

South Arlington

Troop 256 celebrated St. Patrick day with a party. The girls made green and white crepe paper hats and displayed them in a style show. Barbara Condy, Nancy McCarty and Michele Hoggay, who are working on their hospitality badge, planned the party and prepared the refreshments.

THE REGULAR monthly meeting of the South Arlington Neighborhood Girl Scout leaders was held March 19 at Pioneer Park.

A nominating committee was appointed to draw up a slate of possibilities for neighborhood chairman of the south side. They are Mrs. Carl Pederson, Mrs. Ray Downing, Mrs. Charles Hess and Mrs. Ray Sklencar. The new chairman will take office next January.

The neighborhood cookie captain, Mrs. Frank Schiel, passed out information and instructions to the troop cookie chairmen. The cookie sale is scheduled for April 18-28.

CAMP FOLDERS were distributed to the leaders for members of their troops. The folders contain information on Camp Hickory Hill and day camping which is held at various forest preserves. Hickory Hill is limited to intermediate scouts for 2-week periods.

Day camps are open to brownies and scouts alike and offer a program of outdoor cooking, campcraft, handcraft and nature study. There are two two week periods, June 17 and July 8, available. The camp operates 4 days a week from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Cost is $4 plus bus fare for 2 weeks for brownies and $5.50 plus bus fare for 2 weeks for scouts.

Clean-Up Days at Camp Pine

All parents of brownies and girl scouts are urged to join the clean-up campaign now being waged at Camp Pine. The camp site is used for day camp and overnight trips and is available to all troops.

Three Saturdays have been set aside for fathers: March 29, April 5 and 12. The week of April 14-18 has been named cabin house cleaning, a job for the mothers. "Your cooperation assures your daughters of good camping. Please call your child's leader and volunteer your services," urge the leaders.

Camp Name Contest

The "Name the Camp" contest deadline is April 1. Any brownie, intermediate or senior scout is eligible to enter. The winner will be well rewarded.

Girl Scout and Brownie troop news of all Cook county troops in the Paddock Publications area should be submitted to Betty Thackery by 4 p.m. Mondays, Clearbrook 3-1916.

Q. I've heard that it's improper to breathe upon one's glasses when cleaning them in public. Is this correct?

A. It is generally considered ill-bred to exhale upon the glasses when cleaning them. If absolutely necessary to clean them in the presence of others, try to wipe them without resorting to the breath.

Q. Does the father of a widow or divorcee, who is marrying for the second time, give her away?

A. Yes; her father gives her away precisely as he did at the first wedding. And her family assumes the expenses of the wedding, unless she prefers to meet them herself.

Q. What is the proper way to eat an apple at the dinner table?

A. First quarter the apple, and then, using the fingers, eat each quarter.

All the world loves a bargain, but everyone knows that one always gets no more than they pay for. Often when we think we are getting something for less than its proper price we usually find out that we have paid more than its real value.

Therefore, we never state that our prescription prices are low priced bargains. We do promise that our charges will always be as low as careful compounding will permit.

OKONTA CAMP FIRE GIRLS Nancy Staadt and Lynne Schomburg pose with Mrs. Thomas Uragami, guest speaker at the recent Arlington Heights Camp Fire and Blue Bird mother-daughter birthday dinners. Mrs. Uragami, in keeping with the organization's annual project "Meet the People," gave a talk on customs of Japanese children. Pictures, dolls and native toys augmented her narration. (A

New Drive-In Is Set For Opening

The first McDonald's Drive-In restaurant in Arlington Heights will open April 9 at Northwest hwy. and Wilke rd., across from Arlington Park.

Featuring 15-cent hamburgers, this link in the nationwide chain will be owned and operated by Donald Coffey, who lives at 414 E. Rockwell, Arlington Heights.

IN LESS THAN 3 years time, the chain has grown to more than 80 McDonald's throughout the country-and the hamburgers sold number close to the 100 million mark.

They have succeeded in confounding the industry and the public with their "depression prices" in these days of spiraling costs. The key to their fantastic success lies in mass-production techniques and uniformity of operation. From the rainbow arches of their buildings to the automatic potato peelers — nothing is left to the imagination.

McDonald's boasts that they can serve a complete meal in just a matter of seconds. There are no juke boxes, car-hops and the like. Only good wholesome food at rock-bottom prices. Some of the drive-ins sell as many as 6,000 hamburgers a day.

THE NEW Arlington Heights "Hamburger Impresario," Donald Coffey and his wife have been residents here since 1948. Their eldest son, Jay, 15, attends Arlington high. The Coffeys also have a daughter, who is eleven and another son, who is 6. Mr. Cofey is a 32nd Degree Shriner at the Medinah Temple and a vice president of the Rolling Green Country club.

At McDonald's — America's favorite food (the hamburger) reigns supreme. Will they be successful? One hundred million hamburgers dan't be wrong!

A-Hye Club Announces Spring Plans

A-Hye Tri-Hi-Y club of Northwest Suburban YMCA has planned a busy spring for its membership of girls from Arlington high school. Monday evening the girls will have a bowling party, and scheduled for the next 2 months are a splash party, family potluck supper, making May baskets for institutions, a car wash as a money-making project and a senior farewell party.

A-Hye is one of 4 Tri-Hi-Y clubs sponsored by the local 'Y' for girls in Arlington, Prospect and Maine high schools. The Arlington club meets the first and third Monday of each month with executive and program committee meetings on alternate weeks to plan special events. Miss Rose Kapovich is leader of the A-Hye club. Officers are Pam Wickens, president; Bonnie Quigley, vice president; Barbara Dean, secretary; Penny Pearne, treasurer; Linda Baasch, chaplain.

Officers of all the clubs are organized into a monthly council which meets to exchange ideas, decide on rules governing the clubs, run inter-club activities, keep informed on city and national Tri-Hi-Y events and local 'Y' policy. Acting as an advisory committee for this council is a group of club leaders and mother sponsors working together in a parent-leader council under guidance of Mrs. Louise Deyman, womens and girls secretary of the 'Y'. Arlington Senior Receives Chapman Award

Linda Hackbarth, senior at Arlington high school and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hackbarth of Arlington Heights, is announced as the 1958 recipient of the Grace Chapman Memorial Award Scholarship of Delta Kappa Gamma.

Delta Kappa Gamma, a national honorary teachers' organization, presents a $500 scholarship each year to a graduating high school girl planning on entering the teaching field and showing outstanding merit as a candidate for a teaching career. The award was officially presented at the founders' breakfast of the Delta Kappa Gamma state convention in St. Louis March 23.

LINDA HACKBARTH

LINDA WAS chosen as the recipient on the basis of her excellent scholarship, service, and citizenship record at Arlington high school and on the excellence of the essay which she submitted to the scholarship committee on "Why I Chose Teaching as my Profession."

While in high school, Linda has been active in many fields. Her interest and service in the field of journalism has culminated in her work as editor of the Cardinal, high school newspaper, during her senior year. She was elected to membership in the National Honor society as a junior and also to Quill and Scroll, national honorary journalistic organization.

SHE WAS president of the Art club in her junior year and recently won the highest honor, a gold key, in the scholastic art contest. She is a member of the Future Teacher's organization. She has been active in athletics all 4 years, and as a senior, is president of the GRA, girls athletic organization. Scholastically, Linda ranks in the upper 5 per cent of her class and has been on the honor roll every semester.

Mrs. Hazel Stewart of Prospect high school is a member of the scholarship committee making the award. Members of the local high school who belong to the Iota chapter making the award are Miss Lillian Callihan, Miss Martha Jane Frey, Miss Leotta Hampton, Miss June Leick, Miss Dorothea Wolf and Mrs. Stewart.

Episcopal Women Plan Meeting

The annual meeting of the womans auxiliary of St. Simon Episcopal church, Arlington Heights, will be held at the Pantry restaurant, Park Ridge, at 1 p.m. April 9.

Deadline for reservations is Easter Sunday evening. They may be made with Mrs. F. G. Suhr, Clearbrook 3-1853. No cancellations will be made after Easter evening.

The program of the meeting will include election of officers for 1958-59 and a discussion of revision of the by-laws. Rev. E. Dargan Butt, STM, vicar of St. Simon church, will be speaker of the day. (AMPK

To Re-tell Traditional Easter Story at Our Saviour Church

The Palm Sunday service will be celebrated at Our Saviour United Lutheran church, Sunday March 30, with the re-telling of the traditional story of Christ's entry into Jerusalem in words of the scripture and in the music of the choir. Rev. John P. Petersen, pastor, will conduct the 11 o'clock service in Dryden school, Arlington Heights. The Rev. Petersen's sermon topic will be "Christ Is Mistreated." Members of the congregation are urged to observe the traditional custom of inviting and bringing un-churched friends and neighbors to the Palm Sunday service.

New members will be received into the congregation on Palm Sunday. Persons who will be received into membership on Palm Sunday will meet with pastor Petersen this evening, Thursday, dr Dryden school, at 8 p.m.

MRS. DAVID BARTLETT, Arlington Heights, member of Our Saviour, will review "The Day Christ Died," at a tea Friday, March 28, 1:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Vern Heim, 325 S. Derbyshire lane, Arlington Heights. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Edgar Neas, CL 3-6298, Mrs. Earl Snodgrass, CL 5-3082, or Mrs. Richard Brettner, CL 3-8551.

The Men's club of Our Saviour's will meet Friday, 8 p.m., at Dryden school, Dryden and Rockwell sts. Members of the club and their friends will have an opportunity to hear Charles Klehm, an Arlington Heights nurseryman, Mr. Klehm will speak on "Landscaping Around Your Home." A question and answer period will follow the lecture and members who wish expert advice and suggestions on home planting will have an opportunity to discuss their problems.

THE WOMENS GUILD of Our Saviour's will meet Tuesday evening, April 1, 8 p.m., at Dryden school, Dryden and Rockwell sts. The feature of the evening's entertainment will be a color-film script, "Meet Mrs. Yama Saki." Articles of Japanese culture and art will be on display both before and after the program. Members and friends of the guild are invited to an evening of good fellowship.

Rev. Petersen, at last Sunday's 11 a.m. service, administered the sacrament of holy baptism for Hilda Helen Anne Lindner, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chad H. Lindner, 105 S. Evergreen ave., Arlington Heights. (A

Tell New Emphasis On Science Studies

Important changes are in the making in the science curriculum at Arlington Heights' 2 junior high schools, a school administrator told a PTA group Tuesday.

The changes were being planned, however, long before the first Russian satellite vehicle orbited into space, South junior high school principal Todd Fouty hastened to add.

ALL STUDENTS now study science 5 periods a week for 13 weeks a year, he noted. An additional 13-week course is advanced science is available to eighth graders on an optional basis.

According to present planning, he continued, sixth, seventh and eighth graders would switch to studying science 4 days a week all year long.

Total number of periods spent on science would increase from 55 to 156, Fouty said. He did not amplify as to how the additional periods would be fitted into the schedule in his brief talk to South school PTA members.

The 120 parents later split into small groups to watch classroom demonstrations on how 4 phases of mathematics are taught.

TEACHER DONALD Odbert explained the need for the mastery of percentage to his pupils.

"Some day you'll want to borrow money to buy a home," Odbert said. "Percentages will be important to you then, for an additional one-half per cent interest on $10,000 borrowed for 10 years would amount to $500."

During the coffee hour parents viewed science exhibits set up in the cafeteria. Among the "live" exhibits was a display featuring an electrostatic machine. Paul Rybski, one of 36 eighth grade science enthusiasts who elected to take the advanced science course, operated it.

HE TURNED a crank, generating static electricity which leaped across a gap from one pole to another. The vaulting current fanned a candle flame in the same direction as the force of current when the flame was put between the 2 poles.

Teacher Melvin Natti explained that Peter Schultz, another pupil in his advanced course, had taken photographs of various phases of the moon on display. Peter busily kept grinding away at a telescope lens he is making.

Other exhibits included rock and butterfly collections gathered by pupils, a "live" volcano with dry ice belching out smoke, a variety of pulleys and chemical experiments.

RIDGE SCHOOL parents saw how science is taught in the lower grades at another recent PTA display. Pupils produced a science show centered around 4 basic units: electricity and magnetism, plants and animals, the weather and pressures and gases, liquids and solids.

Students participating in the show conducted their own experiments and explained them to parents. (AF

Round 'n About Westgate

That spring is officially here was evident in the neighborhood this weekend. Kites were flying, cars washed, lawns fertilized, clothes flapping in the breeze and youngsters on bikes and roller skates were everywhere.

Likewise fired with enthusiasm were members of the social committee when they met last week at chairman Gene Ballou's to plan activities for the coming year. His committee includes Jackie Rudolphy, Louise Kuhuarich, Norma Hansen, Eleanor DeZonna, Carolyn Burkett, Dick McFarland, Skip Akerlund, Bill Townsend, Ed Quigley and Andy Graczyk. First event of the year will be a Memorial day children's celebration. In the formative stages are plans for an aduit evening picnic and dance, a Halloween dance and children's Christmas party.

AN "AFTER - the - baby - arrived" shower was held for Eileen Johnson at the home of Bari O'Dea, 301 Reuter. Co-hostesses were Barbara Manthos and Arlee McThomas. Little "H.T.", fourth child but first son was literally showered with a truly masculine wardrobe by the 19 guests present.

A miscellaneous shower for Estelle Baranowski was held at the home of Elinor Huff, 1411 Euclid, with Elaine Hoppe and Eleanor DeZonna assisting as cohostesses. Numerous small gifts were bestowed upon the guest of honor, as well as a baby stroller. Of the 23 invited guests, 3 were unable to attend.

Two musically gifted young local matrons entertained recently at the Presbyterian Home in Evanston at a cake and coffee social sponsored by a woman's circle of the church. Mary Flodin sang 3 selections and was accompanied on the piano by Louise Smith.

Fran and Harry Hebard, 409 Reuter, entertained a group of friends Saturday night with movies of past parties, after which a light buffet supper was served. Present were Jackie and George Rudolphy, Elaine and Bob Maley and Louise and Chuck Kuharich.

MEETING WITH Elaine and Dick Hoppe, 319 Wilke, Saturday night for an evening of pinochle were Estelle and Chuck Baranowski, Elinor and Howard Huff and Eleanor and Bud DeZonna.

Daughter Cheryl's measles played havoc with Jeanne Huster's plans for a baby shower for sister Veronica White. Numerous cars full of guests had to be detoured and refreshments, gifts and such were hastily transported to Jeanne's mother in Lombard. All finally settled down for a pleasant party but Jeanne rather reluctantly admits she is happy it is over.

An evening of fun, dancing and good food was enjoyed by guests of Bert and Andy Graczyk, 1417 Fremont, Saturday night. Local guests were Ken and Louise Smith and Carolyn and Dick Burkett. Friends from other parts of Chicago were Peggy and Giles Sherod, Jane and Lou Bolus, Marie and Carol Scareum, Lois and Don Edstrom and Connie and Leo Barberos. (A

6¢ a load is all you pay— to dry the clean electric way

An electric dryer will dry this normal 8-lb. load for only 6¢—2 sheets, 3 bath towels, 4 hand towels, 2 men's T-shirts, 3 pillowcases, 3 children's dresses, 2 luncheon cloths. Drying time only 25 to 30 minutes.

Nothing's faster, nothing's cleaner— and electric dryers are completely automatic

COST?

ELECTRIC DRYERS cost $30 to $60 less to buy than any other kind

A new electric dryer will wipe out your wife's weather worries on washday (and costs less to buy than any other kind).

And for just 6¢ a load, electric dryers give you the cleanest way to dry clothes. Clean, dry, radiant electric heat—like the sun—turns out clothes that are soft, sweet-smelling every time.

Fast, too. Today's electric dryers will dry a full load in 25 to 30 minutes. All electrics are fully automatic, nothing to light, no igniting devices to require service.

We think you'll be surprised when your appliance dealer tells you how little it costs to own a modern electric dryer.

Northwest Suburbs Need Facilities of the YMCA

A group of men were seated around a table discussing plans for the new Northwest Suburban Y.M.C.A.

The question was asked:

"How many of you participated in Y work as a youth?"

Almost 90 per cent raised their hands.

The next question was obvious and was not asked. It would have been: "Would suburbanites get as much use out of a Y?"

The group of business and civic leaders interested in completion of the proposed Y would have answered with an emphatic "yes!"

IT HAPPENED in LaGrange where a new Y building is in full operation. The same has happened in many other suburban communities.

The Northwest suburban area lacks many of the facilities that a Y would provide, these leaders point out.

The attraction of an indoor swimming pool alone should attract hundreds. The up-to-date gymnasium and gym facilities will draw dozens of others. The youth club rooms, the health and recreational facilities and the meeting places for community groups will fill a void in community activity.

One official of the Y put it this way:

"A year after the building is finished, you'll find that the Y is the central hub of activity for this particular suburban area. It will be the meeting place, the recreational center, the rallying point where problems of community interest will be solved."

ACTUALLY, the Northwest Suburban Y is not a dream. It's well on the way to the ground breaking stage.

Come April 17, a kickoff dinner will be held at the Prospect high school. More than 600 people—and possibly 1,000—will attend. There will be a dinner, and a speech by Emmett Dedmon, and there will be plans made for the campaign to raise funds to build the Y. Dedmon, managing editor of the Chicago Sun-Times, wrote "Great Enterprises," a story of the Y's 100-year growth.

The campaign for funds, however, is underway. Approximately $200,000 already has been contributed or pledged.

The total cost of the building is estimated at $878,000. The YMCA board of managers donated $300,000. That leaves $678,000 to be raised. The $200,000 already promised reduces the actual campaign goal to $478,000.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN of the drive to raise funds is John R. Hickman of Mt. Prospect. Village chairmen, who will be aided by committee workers, are: Robert Phillips, Arlington Heights; Stanley C. Amren, Mt. Prospect; Thomas Gainey, Prospect Heights; Robert Higgins, Rolling Meadows, and Robert Beuhler, Inverness. Mayor Howard I. Olsen of Palatine is serving as honorary chairman of the drive in Palatine until a permanent chairman is appointed. That appointment will be announced in a week or two.

The new Y building will be built on a site centrally located in the area it will serve. The site is on Northwest Highway, between Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines. On the 4.3-acre site will be a large playground, a parking lot, landscaped areas and the building itself.

The lower level of the Y building will include the pool and shower rooms, locker rooms, a businessmen's club room or small sports area, rooms for handicrafts and club work and an exercise room.

On the upper level will be the swimming pool balcony, a huge gym with bleachers, a youths' game room and lobby, a lounge, offices, an equipment room and physical director's office and an all-purpose room or 3 club rooms. In addition, there will be an all-electric kitchen.

CHARLES McCLELLAN of Mt. Prospect, the Y's executive secretary, expressed satisfaction with the support already given the drive for funds.

"At the present rate and with the continued high interest, we should be able to break ground for the Y this summer."

Asked how many people he thought might participate in the Y's programs once the building is in operation, McClellan said:

"Well, it will be open 24 hours a day. Based on similar Y's in other suburbs, I'd say 3,000 to 5,000 people will participate."

The facts of present Y activities bear out McClellan's prediction. Without a building, here's the record:

Supervised attendance at Y activities in 1956—100,229.

Program registrations at Y activities in 1956—4,511.

Sessions of YMCA groups in 1956—5,000. (B8

Picture Patter

THIS IS TRULY a picture of spring—the first blossoms, the baby lamb, and a little girl pleased to be playing outside without a coat.

"The Picture of Spring"

by FRED GAREISS

Spring's definitely on the way—and, if you're like us, you can't wait until you get out into the country again. There's something truly wonderful about the world as the landscape comes to life in the fresh new garb of spring.

One of the real pleasures of picture-taking at this time of year is the rich variety of scenic views the season provides. The landscape need not be majestic or awe-inspiring. Look for a pleasant glade, a small pond, a tree beside a curving lane. You'll find such material is easier to organize into a pleasing arrangement—and it produces intimate pictures, full of quiet charm.

Next to subject matter, arrangement and lighting are most important. You can "rearrange" a landscape simply by changing your camera position. Try it a bit to the left or right, to bring foreground objects into better relation with the distant parts of the scene; aim higher up or lower down, to get a more favorable viewpoint.

When you picture scenic views, be sure that you include objects in the foreground — a figure, shadow, or frame of foliage will do nicely. If you're snapping a valley from high on a hilltop, don't stand at the very edge of the hill. Back up a few paces, and include a tree or maybe a person admiring the vista beyond. If there are several trees, "frame" the view between their overhanging branches. Such foreground material will lend perspective to a scenic view, making it more interesting and attractive.

Don't worry about mist or haze—it actually helps give atmospheric quality to the landscape. If you want to cut down bluish haze, use a haze filter and the distant visa will show up more clearly. A cloud filter will also be helpful when you want to record a dramatic cloud effect seen against a brilliant blue sky.

Shadows are important in scenic views, too—and regular behind-the-camera lighting rarely brings the best results. Instead, look for scenic material that is side-lighted or back-lighted — so that shadows cross the scene or fall toward the camera. If the sun shines directly on the camera lens, shield it with a lens hood or find a slightly different angle from which to shoot.

"ELECTRONICS IS OUR BUSINESS"

Storm Closes University First Time in 225 Years

Stories in the metropolitan press regarding last week's storm in the East only told part of the story. A letter to the editor received from Dr. Jeannette Nichols of the University of Pennsylvania, adds to the inconveniences the storm caused. Dr. Nichols writes in part;

"THE STORM SHUT down the University of Pennsylvania for the first time in 225 years and important examinations had to be postponed.

It deprived 120 families of electric light and power (refrigerators, deep freezers, automatic heat, telephones, kitchen ranges, etc). In other words, they had to use wood in fireplaces (if they had fireplaces and wood) and candles for light, heat, cooking and what have you.

"Millions of dollars in damage was done to transmission lines, trees, etc., and 44 lives were lost.

"Some 800 persons caught on the great Pennsylvania turnpike were rescued by helicopter as far as a roadside restaurant, where the whole lot were housed and fed from late Wednesday until late Friday evening.

"Luckily, the stalled machines included a furniture truck which contained quilts, a food truck full of food, and a traveling theatrical company - which furnished amusement.

"AN AMBULANCE containing a woman patient was stalled and yet the stalled personnel included doctors; helicopters flew in insulin for the diabetic 'refugees'.

"The one man in the lot who died was pronounced dead by a stalled doctor, and some ministers were around for last rites, etc.

"Although many kinds of foods gave out, there was plenty of milk for the infants and children.

"Altogether they were extraordinarily lucky, it would seem. In our ancestors' days, oxen could get through snow and life did not stop when there was no electricity, for nobody had been made helpless by the coming of electricity.

"It seemed to me, as respects the city people who thought they could not get out in the storm, the nation has gone soft, much softer than the Russians." (B8

Although oranges and grapefruit are called "hardware" by professional fruit buyers, these luscious citrus fruits spoil quickly if the skin is damaged by rough handling. That's why Jewel fruit specialists carefully inspect every box car and trailerload as it comes into the Jewel warehouse.

The produce manager at your Jewel is a fruit specialist too. He checks grapefruit to make sure they're firm, well-shaped and heavy for their size—a sign of juiciness and a tart and sprightly flavor. Oranges must be firm and heavy too—well-colored with a fine-textured skin for the variety. Because citrus fruit begins to dry out and lose weight if allowed to remain in the store for several days, Jewel oranges and grapefruit are delivered daily—so early in the morning, they're waiting . . . plump and juicy . . . for you when your Jewel opens!

Wouldn't it be wonderful to win a whole case of juicy oranges or golden grapefruit for your family playing Jewel Extra Value Line-Up?

Forest Preserve District Acquires Additional Land

(CNS) — Forest Preserve district has acquired 3 tracts of land in Northfield township for a total of $45,550.

The largest parcel, sold by Martha Sauer, contains 30.5 acres on the south side of Forest View drive, west of Sanders road and the toll road. The sale price included improvements on the property consisting of a frame house and 2 outbuildings.

The district paid Harold and Amy Funke $3,000 for their property at 8 Jackson ave., Northbrook, which will be added to the Chipilly Woods preserve.

ALSO ACQUIRED is a little piece of land north of Walters road on the west side of the toll road. It was sold for $550 by Betty J. Will.

Charles G. Sauers, general superintendent, said the Will property consists of about 1 acre and will be added to the district's Upper Des Plaines river holdings.

The 5-acre Willson tract on the west side of Spring Creek between Dunlea and Algonquin roads, Barrington township, has also been purchased by the Forest Preserve District of Cook county for $5,000.

The acreage, sold by Archibald E. Willson, will be added to the forest preserve district's new holdings in the Spring Creek val-

Fulle Seeks Re-election As County Commissioner

Fred A. Fulle, Des Plaines newspaper publisher, is seeking re-election to the county board of commissioners on the Republican ballot. This year will mark 26 years of public service which began in 1932 with his election as Des Plaines alderman.

Re-elected alderman in 1934, he was elected as Maine Township Republican committeeman in 1936 and has served in that post ever since.

In 1948 Fulle was elected an

FRED FULLE

alternate delegate to the Republican National convention.

FULLE WAS FIRST elected county commissioner in 1952, and during the past 3½ years has been especially interested in county zoning and drainage matter. In addition, he has headed the courthouse committee of the board.

Raised on a farm in Des Plaines, Fulle attended grammar school and aMine Township high school before entering the printing business. As a young man in his thirties, Fulle purchased the Des Plaines Publishing co. which has grown in 33 years from a one-newspaper, 6-man shop to a firm publishing 4 of its own weekly newspapers and contract printing several others, including the Northwestern university student paper. The company employs 45 full-time and 35 part-time persons.

In 1915 Fulle married the former Bernice Rasch of Chicago. They settled in Des Plaines and have lived there ever since, now residing at 250 Stratford rd. They have 3 children: Mrs. Herman Herzog; Floyd, editor of the Des Plaines Suburban Times and a resident of Arlington Heights; and Cleon "Lee" Nelsen.

FULLE'S CIVIC activities include past president of the Lions club; past exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge; past president of the Cook County Suburban Publishers association; for 24 years a member of the Orphan's Day Automobile association; secretary of the Cook County Country Towns Republican Committeemen's association; past chairman of the Des Plaines Red Cross drive; co-chairman of the Community Chest drive in Des Plaines; past executive member of the Des Plaines Heart Fund drive; past vice-president of Christ Evangelical and Reformed church; director of the Des Plaines Savings and Loan; member of the Des Plaines Masonic Lodge and Chicago Shrine; director of the First National Bank of Des Plaines; and chairman of the Northwest Suburban Council of Boy Scouts fund drive.

Fulle is running as part of a "team" of 5 incumbent country town GOP commissioners, including William Erickson, John Mackler, Charles Chaplin, and Jerry Dolezal.

Chaplin will appear on the ballot twice in the April 8 primary, once as a candidate for president of the county board and once for commissioner. (B8

Along the Camp Fire Trail

by Dorothy Schomburg — CLearbrook 3-7017

Arlington Heights

Tawanka and Wayakita Camp Fire Girls enjoyed a backyard wiener roast at the home of Mrs. Owen F. Oliveson, Tawanka guardian, March 17. The girls enjoyed outdoor fun in sports and games and the pleasures of roasting hotdogs and making s'mores. Mrs. Peter Eriksen, guardian of the Wayakita group and Mrs. Charles Ross, Tawanka co-guardian, assisted.

Approximately 325 Blue Birds and their mothers attended the mother-daughter birthday dinner at the Methodist church March 20. The third annual affair, held in observance of the 48th anniversary of the founding of Camp Fire Girls, featured Mrs. Thomas Uragami as guest speaker. Her talk on the customs of the Japanese people was enhanced by pictures, dolls and native toys of the children of this far-east land.

Mrs. Uragami showed the second, third and fourth grade girls how a Japanese kimono is worn and demonstrated various dances and the important use of the dancer's fan. She was taken back when more than 100 Blue Birds requested her autograph and she graciously obliged each girl with her signature in Japanese script.

Miss Marjorie Cooper, executive director of the Chicago Area Council of Camp Fire Girls and representatives of the many sponsoring organizations, were guests of honor.

MRS. CHARLES W. Johnson's Elutapitkins Camp Fire Girls held a surprise birthday party Monday for one of its members. Laura Robinson was the girl feted. Party games and favors were the order of the day and each girl brought a little gift for the birthday maiden.

The Blue Belles Blue Bird group made Easter egg trees at their March 24 meeting, under the able direction of co-leaders Mrs. Mirrel Kephart and Mrs. Harry Hanneman. Camp Fire candy was distributed to the girls at the close of the session for pre-Easter selling.

ALL CAMP FIRE and Blue Bird groups in the district received their quota of candy and stickers at their weekly meetings. The girls will be offering this repeat seller to help meet the district's $2,500 estimated budget for the coming year. The March 16 fund drive appeal fell short of its proposed goal, although donations are coming in daily from many sources.

The girls, their leaders and the executive officers of the Arlington Heights district of Camp Fire Girls would like to express their thanks to the parents, sponsors, and friends of Camp Fire for their wonderful support in this initial endeavor. Contributions, totaling more than $1,600, have been received to date.

Mount Prospect

Mt. Prospect day camp counselors met at the home of Mrs. Walter Kadlec on March 20, to discuss plans for the coming summer day camp program to be held June 16, 18, and 20 at Busse Woods. Mrs. Dean Morrison, district day camp chairman, will head the 3-day camp, assisted by co-directors Mrs. Benjamin Hemmeter and Mrs. Kadlec. Handicraft, camp craft, nature study, first aid, songs and dances, and sports and games will be among the subjects offered.

Palatine

At the mother-daughter birthday dinner held recently in Palatine Township high school, Rev. Glenn Gumm, guest speaker and pastor of St. Paul Ev. & Reformed church, revealed that it was most gratifying to him to see the Palatine district of Camp Fire Girls grow from 5 girls 12 years ago to 150 girls in 1958.

The Otyokwa Camp Fire Girls, meeting at St. Paul's Monday evenings, boast the fact that 32 girls are active in its membership. Mrs. Edwin Danisch has 5 trail seekers under her leadership, and Mrs. Raymond Steege and Mrs. Novotny are co-guardians of 17 wood gatherers. Six fire makers and 4 torch bearers complete the roster. Several Blue Bird groups also meet at the church. (B8

'Broken Glass Torte' Is Appropriate Easter Dessert

MRS. JACK R. RISTOW of Mount Prospect serves some of her special "broken glass torte" to Mrs. Lloyd S. Johnsen, Mrs. Louis T. Mell, Mrs. Jack R. Piper, and Mrs. Henry Sander. The festive Easter dessert is featured this week by food editor Lois Seiler.

by LOIS SEILER

A festive Easter dessert and one that may call to mind the lovely effect of a church's stained glass windows, is the Broken Glass Torte being featured today.

The recipe has been shared with us by Mrs. Jack R. Ristow of Mt. Prospect.

She served the torte recently to the Junior Woman's club board with such success that every member requested the recipe.

A REFRESHING refrigerator dessert, it consists of whipped cream, gelatin, pineapple juice and cubes of yellow, green and red jello.

Made in a spring-form pan, the dessert has a graham cracker crust.

The cut slices, displaying the colorful jello, give a broken glass effect.

Simple to prepare, the dessert may be made a day in advance.

Light and refreshing, as well as delicious, the torte is excellent to serve as a dinner or evening dessert.

AND BECAUSE it is pretty and unusual, it is effective as a conversation piece, too.

The Ristows live at 212 S. William in Mt. Prospect. They have 2 children: Susan, 4½, and Steven 2½.

Mrs. Ristow is first vice-president of the Mt. Prospect Junior Woman's club.

Broken Glass Torte

1 package lemon or orange jello
1 package lime jello
1 package cherry, raspberry or strawberry jello
1½ cups hot water for each package jello
1 envelope plain, unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
1 cup hot pineapple juice
2 cups heavy cream, whipped
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla

Crust:

2 dozen crushed graham crackers
½ cup soft butter
½ cup sugar

Mix graham crackers, butter and sugar together. Line a spring-form pan or angel food tin with 2/3 of the mixture.

Dissolve each of your three packages of jello (one in each color) in 1½ cups hot water per package. Chill in separate cake tins until firm. Cut jello in cubes or strips about ½ inch wide.

SOFTEN PLAIN gelatin in cold water. Dissolve in hot pineapple juice. Cool and fold into whipped cream into which you've beaten sugar and vanilla.

Blend the colored gelatin cubes carefully into the pineapple, whipped-cream mixture

Turn into the graham cracker-lined pan and top with remaining crumb mixture.

Chill 6 to 12 hours or until firm.

Slice and serve. The cut slices give the broken glass effect.

Yield: 12 or more servings.

Q. When a girl becomes engaged, is it proper for her to show her ring to her friends, or to wait for them to ask to see it?

A. Except in the case of very good friends, it is better for her to wait for someone to notice the ring before holding up her hand and displaying it.

Q. At an informal dinner, where there is no maid, who should start a dish around the table?

A. The person nearest the dish.

Q. Should a woman walk on a short distance, or should she wait with her escort while he pays the taxi fare?

A. She should wait with her escort.

Forest View School Board Race Has 10 Candidates

A slate of 10 candidates will draw voters to the polls Saturday April 12 for the Forest View school board elections. Seven menand 3 women are seeking election to the school's first board of education.

Previously the school was run by a board of directors. Seven elected members will hold 3 year terms on the new board. Candidates are as follows:

MRS. SHIRLEY N. Grosche, 146 W. Golf, is a former teacher, instructing 6 years in the elementary grades and 3 years in high school. Her husband Walt, is employed by the Public Service company, and the couple has one child, a second grader at Forest View school.

Thomas J. Baldassari, Golf rd. recently moved to the community from Elmwood Park. A partner in the Hub-Aire Inc. firm of Melrose Park, Baldassari is the father of 2 Forest View students.

Edward Smalenberger is another newcomer to the area, having moved into the Forest View district last summer. The suburban businessman and his wife have 5 children, 2 of which are students at Forest View.

William Grismer Jr., Golf rd. has been a member of the board of directors for Forest View school for 9 years, serving as its president for 4 years. The carpenter contractor and his wife have 3 boys, fifth, fourth and second graders.

MRS. EUNICE Hutchings, 1660 S. State has served as clerk of the board of directors since she became a member 5yearsa go. She and her husband Robert, an engineer for Bell and Howell, have 2 youngsters, aged 9 and 12.

Robert Ayres, 1525 S. State, is president of Blast-Freeze Refrigeration Manufacturing Co., Park Ridge. He and his wife have three children, aged 8, 6 and 3.

Mrs. Laverene Koenig, Algonquin rd., is the mother of 5 children, 2 in high school, 2 at Forest View, and one of pre-school age. Her husband, Roland, is the owner of Are-Nel Plating Co., 1220 Webster, Chicago.

ROBERT PALMER, 211 Council, is a district engineer for the Louis-Allis Electric Motor Manufacturing Co. of Milwaukee. The Palmers have 2 children, one of whom attends Forest View now and another who will be a student there next year. Palmer has served on committees for the board of directors.

Edward Lauing, 406 Busse rd., is a buyer for Pure Oil Co. in Chicago. He and his wife have 2 children, both students at Forest View. A desire to "do my share" prompted his candidacy.

A Henry Rossberg, Golf rd., is a foreman for Howard Foundry in Chicago and derives his interest in school from his Forest View fourth grader. The Rossbergs have another child of pre-school age. (A

This Week with PTA

Parents Were Shown

Development of learning habits and knowledge in the field of social and natural science studies was demonstrated to parents at the Dryden school March PTA meeting.

The teacher and pupils in each classroom presented exhibits which were an outgrowth of their current studies. Pictures and handicraft, models and murals exemplified the grade level of the students. Scope of the projects ranged from the growth of seeds and plants to life under the sea, from weather conditions to the solar system, from sources of power to various industries and from the life and products of America to those of foreign lands.

A large attendance proved this type of program to be very popular with both parents and children.

Interesting Time to Live

"An interesting and challenging time to live," said Supt. Ralph Clabaugh at North school March 18.

Clabaugh discussed the problems of the schools today with respect to their continuing growth and changes to be made in their curriculum to meet this new age of space travel. Parents were assured that solid progress is being made insofar as the schools' improvement program is concerned.

Before Clabaugh's message, Melvin Kasen, director of instrumental music, presented a group of North school students who delighted the audience with several musical selections.

Survival of American Way

"Survival of the American way of living will be through the preservation of this institution — the American Home." So spoke Dr. Martin Bartels, Professor of Education and Director of Placement at Northern Illinois State College at DeKalb, before the Park school PTA last week.

His topic, "The Changing Role of the Home," was presented by reporting and explaining trends in family life and by giving a helpful list of ways in which to increase the happiness of family living. Among current trends are those toward earlier marriages, more children in families, the mother assuming the dominant role in the family and the decline of the divorce rate to half of that during World War II.

DR. BARTEL'S advice to parents was to first prepare children for responsible home membership through teaching and by example and then make the home a joyful, democratic and spiritual gathering place for its members.

Miss Martha Sapp opened the meeting with an explanation of the many and varied aspects of her job as guidance director in the school system. Some of the many services under her jurisdiction are teacher recruitment, testing, special education program and remedial summer school.

Scientists on Parade

Parents came, saw and were amazed at the scientific knowledge displayed by Ridge school pupils at the last PTA meeting.

Experiments and the lectures were presented to the standing-room-only audience. Under the guidance of O. Candelaria, fifth grade teacher, about 40 pupils of the primary and intermediate grades enthusiastically demonstrated their familiarity with physics, chemistry and biology, all subjects reserved for the higher grades only a decade or so ago.

INTRODUCING the demonstration, Candelaria stressed that in our encouragement of the study of science we should not forget the equal if not greater importance of the social studies which help us learn how to get along together in the world.

Robert Miller, visiting counselor, made pertinent comments on a movie "Sibling Relations and Personality," describing some of the rivalries which develop between children in the same family and how these affect their personality development.

Fairs Fare Well

Nearly $2,400 was grossed at the book fairs given recently at South Junior high and Miner school. PTA realized approximately $470 of this amount which will be immediately turned over to school librarians to buy new books.

Both chairman would like to thank their committees and all the workers who assisted them. Mrs. Richard McFarland, chairman of the fair at South Jr. high had as her committee, Mrs. William Townsend, school publicity; Mrs. Howard Huff, sales; Mrs. Donald Hodges, display and Mrs. Ray Allen, publications publicity.

MRS. LLOYD Smeltzer, chairman of the Miner school fair was assisted by Mrs. Richard Ekstrand, school publicity; Mrs. William Hannum, sales; Mrs. Carl Scheske, display and Mrs. Clifford Harris, publications publicity.

Gentlemen Be Seated

The PTA Minstels will all be aboard the "River Queen" docking at Miner school April 24 and 25.

The show will be a scintillating program of song and dance keyed to the hilarious antics of the "end men," who are: Walter Daube as Deacon Ebenezer; John Deery, Mister Tambo; Ron Thompson, Mister Bones; Ben Mammina, Mister Nicodemus; Harold Klingner, Mister George Washington; "Scooter" Astley, Mister Rastus. Robert Bishop will be seen as Mr. Interlocutor.

Tickets will soon go on sale through the homeroom mothers. (A

SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION

You live in a land where Christian ideals have shaped our institutions. During the Holy Week millions will visit the churches to pay honor to Jesus Christ, and to acknowledge their indebtedness to him. Even people who belong to no church enjoy every day the advantages of living in a Christian land. Let these as well as all others visit the church of their choice. The unattached are invited to ours.

These Lutheran Churches Call You to Lenten Worship

CROWN OF THORNS AND CROWN OF GLORY

Day by day during Lent the Christian seeks to follow Christ step by step on the way to the Cross. When he arrives there he confronts images of suffering, pain, and death. The world wonders why anyone should meditate about the crown of thorns pressed on Christ's head or the nails in His hands and feet. Are Christians dreary or morbid? How can Christianity claim to be a religion of joy and peace?

The answer is clear to anyone who hears the Good News of the Church in this season. The images of suffering strew the path to triumph. "No cross, no crown" of glory is true now as always. Because of and beyond the darkness of Christ's death is the brightness of His rising to new life. You will hear that message preached in Lutheran churches and it will, by God's grace, brighten your own heart and life.

Ordinance No. 58-5

AN ORDINANCE

amending Chapter 23, Sewers, of the Municipal Code of Arlington Heights of 1954, by enacting and adding Article IV, House Connection Sewers.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, COUNTY OF COOK AND STATE OF ILLINOIS:

SECTION 1. That Chapter 23, entitled "Sewers," of the Municipal Code of Arlington Heights of 1954, be and the same is hereby amended by enacting and adding to said chapter an article designated as Article IV, House Connection Sewers, which article shall be and read as follows:

"ARTICLE IV—House Connection Sewers.

Section 23-401. License. All sewer contractors performing work within the Village shall obtain the necessary license from the Village and conform with Village ordinances and regulations, and shall obtain a permit for each connection to be installed, and shall pay to the Village Treasurer a permit fee of $15.00 for each such permit, to apply on the cost of inspection and supervision of the work by the Village.

Section 23-402. Notice. Before commencing installation of any house connection sewer service the contractor or owner of the premises shall notify the Superintendent of Public Works of such proposed work, not less than twenty-four hours before commencing same. No sewer excavations shall be backfilled before the installation has been inspected and approved by a Village representative.

Section 23-403. Bond. Where it is necessary to remove existing public pavements or sidewalks or to tunnel under or auger under existing public pavements or sidewalks, the contractor shall be required to post a cash bond in the amount of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) with the Village Treasurer of each and every such crossing, to insure the satisfactory restoration of the disturbed pavement or sidewalk, and such cash bond shall be held by the Village until such work has been inspected and approved.

Section 23-404. Pavement and Sidewalk Removal and Restoration. Where it is necessary to remove existing pavement or sidewalk to install a house connection sewer, the contractor shall provide adequate barricades, walkways, flares or signals so as to maintain safe conditions in the area of the excavation. After backfilling the excavation with sand or other material approved by the Village up to within twelve (12) inches of the grade and a two (2) inch layer of crushed stone, the contractor shall maintain the trench crossing in passable condition until the pavement or sidewalk has been permanently replaced.

Section 23-405. House Sewer Services. House sewer services or connections shall be constructed of standard strength clay sewer pipe, A. S. T. M. designation C-13, and shall have a minimum inside diameter of six (6) inches. The joints shall be die-cast, tapered ("slip seal"), painted with a suitable solvent, and be laid in a straight line from the main sewer to the building in a continuous even upgrade at ¼ inch per foot from the sewer to the building. Taps to main street sewers shall be made only at wyes or junctions installed for that purpose. Where it is necessary to tap into a main sewer where no wye is provided a neat opening shall be made and a "Y" or "T" saddle inserted and concreted into place. Sewer connection trenches which occur beneath existing or proposed pavement, curb, gutter or sidewalk shall be backfilled with trench backfill consisting of sand, gravel or crushed stone. Such trench backfill shall be placed to a point not less than five (5) feet from either edge of existing or proposed pavement, curb, gutter or sidewalk. Such trench backfill shall be thoroughly jetted in a manner and with equipment satisfactory to the Superintendent of Public Works. Excess excavated material shall be disposed of on the side of the lot served, in locations designated by the owner. The terminus of each service so installed shall be marked by placing a 2"x4" hardwood stake not less than four (4) feet in length opposite the end of each sewer service terminus.

Section 23-406. Penalties. Any person found to be violating any provision of this article shall be subject to the penalties provided by said Chapter 23 of the Municipal Code of Arlington Heights of 1954."

SECTION 2. All provisions of all other ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication, according to law, and the Village Clerk of the Village of Arlington Heights is hereby authorized and directed to cause said amendment to be incorporated in the Municipal Code of Arlington Heights of 1954, as Article IV, of Chapter 23, of said Code, and to which Code this Ordinance is an amendment.

Township Geared For Relief Load

If the nation fails to snap out of its recession in the next few months, Wheeling township officals will be prepared to handle a greater load of welfare needs.

THE TOWNSHIP board of auditors has tentatively appropriated a general assistance budget for the 1958-59 fiscal year that is 69 per cent higher than for last year.

Township residents will consider whether to approve the board's figures at the annual town meeting next Tuesday.

The meeting will be held at 2 p.m. at the VFW hall, Yale and Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights.

THE NEW appropriation set by the board is $27,283, compared with $16,110 for the year that ended February 28, 1958.

However only about one-third of the $16,110 was actually spent on general assistance, according to the annual report of township supervisor Gilbert Klehm.

Estimated receipts from taxes for the current year total only $17,278, leaving a deficit of $10,004 if all welfare funds tentatively budgeted are spent. The difference would be met by selling tax anticipation warrants, said a town official.

MAJOR ITEMS placed in the new budget are: food, $4,000; rent $1,000; medical care, $1,100; county hospital, $1,500; institutional care, $9,700; administration, $4,250 and cost of collections, $1,200.

Two other measures to come before the town gathering, usually attended by about a dozen persons, are a raise in the town assessor's annual salary from $5,000 to $7,500 and relocation of the township office.

Rented quarters at 104 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights, must be vacated by June 1 because the town has lost its lease on the premises, said town Clerk Dorothy Helm Hauff.

PURCHASE OR construction of a building to house township offices will be discussed at the meeting. As of March 1, 1958, the township had surplus funds amounting to $84,974 and it expects the surplus to increase by about $10,000 during the current year.

Estimated town fund expenses (mostly salaries, rent and cost of tax collections) of $45,505 during 1958-59 will be paid out of fees the town collects for accepting property taxes payments. Fees will bring in about $54,700 and the town will receive an additional $1,075 as interest on bank savings and government bonds. Hence the $10,000 surplus anticipated.

THE TOWN FUND surplus increased by $56,497 between March 1, 1956 and March 1, 1958.

Another section of Klehm's financial report indicated expenditure of $43,451.41 on township road maintenance in the year ended February 28. It was $4,400 more than in the previous year.

OBITUARIES

Matthew Suerth

Matthew Suerth, 520 S. Highland, Arlington Heights, died in St. Joseph hospital and was buried in Randhill Park cemetery after services March 22 in Black's Memorial home. Rev. Hughes B. Morris officiated.

He was born in Chicago December 11, 1879 and on March 30, 1930 was married to Caroline Popp in Waukegan. They had made their home in Arlington Heights since that time.

Besides his wife, Mr. Suerth leaves 3 daughters, Mrs. Ruth Randall of Florida and Mrs. Mary Jane Laseke and Mrs. Betty Dickinson of Arlington Heights; 2 sons, Howard Suerth and Ray Suerth; 8 grandchildren; 4 great grandchildren; and 2 sisters, Miss Ursula Suerth and Mrs. Elizabeth Amendt.

Mrs. Sophia Landwehr

Funeral services for Mrs. Sophia Landwehr, who was born in 1865, were held March 24 in St. Peter Neighborhood church, Northfield township. Mrs. Landwehr died March 21 in her home at 2840 Willow rd., Northbrook.

She was christened, confirmed and married in St. Peter church and burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Landwehr leaves a daughter, Irma Griese of Northbrook. She was in state in the Oehler chapel in Des Plaines.

Mrs. Clara Wienecke

Services for Clara Wienecke, 54, who died last Thursday in her home at 254 W. Chicago ave., Palatine, were held Sunday at Tharp's funeral home. The Rev. Glenn G. Gumm, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, officiated. Burial was in South Side cemetery, Palatine.

Mrs. Wienecke was born Nov. 6, 1903, in Schaumburg township, the daughter of William Simon and the former Augusta Kaste. She was baptized and confirmed in St. Peter's Lutheran church in Schaumburg since her father was a Lutheran school teacher.

She was married to George H. Wienecke June 19, 1926. Also Mrs. Wienecke was a member of the Palatine Rebekah lodge for 30 years.

Surviving are her husband, George, and 2 sisters, Mrs. Bertha Hildebrandt, Arlington Heights; and Mrs. Anna Golz, Chicago.

Charles Steiger

The name of Joseph Steiger of Arlington Heights was inadvertently omitted in last week's paper. Mr. Steiger is one of the 6 children surviving Charles Steiger who died March 14. Mr. Steiger, who was a painter and decorator in Arlington Heights for more than 50 years, also leaves his wife, Veronica, 8 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Frank Palman

Services for Frank Palman, 28, of 2448 W. Armitage ave., Chicago, were held Monday at Tharp's funeral home with the Rev. Harold Olson, pastor of the First Methodist church of Palatine, officiating. Burial was in South Side cemetery, Palatine.

Mr. Palman died Friday in St. Elizabeth's hospital in Chicago of a skull fracture following an 18-foot fall off a church roof upon which he was working.

He was born Oct. 13, 1929, in Chicago, the son of John Palman and the former Ella Ruschewski. Survivors include his mother and father, and 2 sisters, Mrs. Bertha Bruns, 440 Easy st., Palatine, and Mrs. Maria Eckel, 301 W. Chicago ave., Palatine.

Clear Local Liquor Dealer Of Sale to Minor Charge

Justice of Peace Carl M. Behrens last Wednesday found the manager of an Arlington Heights package goods store not guilty of a charge of selling intoxicating beverages to an underage youth.

At the conclusion of a 3-hour trial, charges against Richard G. Drolet, 31, manager of the Garden Liquor mart at 401 S. State rd., were dismissed.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS police officer Joseph E. Ostermann testified that Drolet admitted selling 5 quarts of beer to Thomas C. Haran, 1867 Linden, Des Plaines, shortly after police apprehended Haran and a companion February 1. Ostermann also said that Haran had identified Drolet as the person who sold him the beer.

Haran bluntly denied making the purchase when on the witness stand, however.

Officer Maurice English testified he and Officer Jack Aldrich saw several autos drive away from the liquor store, followed them to the 200 block of S. Prindle ave. and searched the autos when they stopped there. English said he and Aldrich found a bag containing 5 quart bottles of beer in one of the autos driven by Gregory Ahrensfeld, 18, of 1565 Woodland, Des Plaines. Along with the beer, continued the officer, was a sales slip for a $5.61 purchase from the Garden Liquor mart, dated February 1. The bag, beer and sales slip were presented as evidence.

IN RETURNING his finding of not guilty, JP Behrens said the prosecution had not come forward with any witnesses nor testimony connecting Drolet with the alleged illegal sale.

"I am against any liquor or package store selling to minors," declared Behrens. "I am sure police officers are doing the job they felt best in this case. Also, I don't know that anyone would jeopardize his business for 50 cents profit.

"How far clerks should go to find out the age of purchasers I don't know," continued Behrens. "Lots of young boys have credentials they shouldn't be carrying around. They are more at fault."

Officer Ostermann told the court that Drolet said Haran had shown him a driver's license and a draft card.

A HIGHLIGHT of the trial was the refusal of Haran, who was slated to be a key prosecution witness, to answer 4 questions put by Assistant State's Attorney W. F. Levander on grounds of possible self-incrimination.

Drolet also refused to answer questions, except to give his name, address and occupation, on the same grounds.

When called to the stand by Levander, Haran stated his name and address but declined to answer when asked his age, whether or not he was: (1) with a companion (Ahrensfeld) on the evening of February 1; (2) acquainted with Officer English, or (3) in the liquor store.

When Haran refused to give his age, Arlington Heights police officers hurried to Maine high school to obtain proof of age. (Haran no longer attends the school). Haran later told the judge his date of birth was July 8, 1939 (making him 18 years old) but high school records listed him as now being 17 years of age.

Defense Attorney John T. Garrity said police had held Haran in jail from 10 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 1, until 4 p.m. the following Monday and had "intimidated him (Haran) to get him to admit a purchase."

POLICEMEN testified Haran had been in jail because he failed to post bond, adding that there had been no "intimidation" and that Haran had freely given the name of the liquor store within an hour after the alleged purchase.

Some 35 to 50 youths, male and female, were in the group with Haran, according to Officer English.

The case was originally scheduled for Magistrate William F. Neumann's court but was transferred to Behrens on a change of venue. (AF

Parent Files $50,000 Suit Against Arlington High

A 15-year-old Arlington high school student injured about the head and face when broken glass fell on her outside the school gymnasium has asked $50,000 damages in a Circuit court lawsuit.

The suit was filed on behalf of Janice Costa, 412 N. Russell, Mt. Prospect, by her father, James.

She was a freshman at the time of the accident, March 15, 1957.

NAMED AS defendant in the suit is the board of education of Arlington Township high school district 214 whose attorney, William R. Engelhardt, stated Monday that under state statute school districts are not legally liable in such cases.

"This case will not involve any expenditure on the school district's part," explained Engelhardt. "It is an attempt to collect on the liability insurance policy which the school carries."

The attorney said that so far the board of education has not been served with any summons, and he has not received any legal papers with regard to the case.

THE SUIT CONTENDS that glass on a window over the gymnasium door broken when the door was slammed shut. It alleges that the door stop did not properly retard closing of the door and that the defendant failed to maintain the premises in a safe condition. It also charged the defendant with negligently permitting the glass window to become loose.

The suit was drafted by Attorney M. J. McGowan. (ACM

Indians of Guatemala 'Discover' Tourists

by STUART R. PADDOCK

(Editor Paddock recently returned from a tour of Mexico and Guatemala).

The life of the Indians of Guatemala is the same as it was 200 or 300 years ago except they have discovered the existence of tourists. The visitor is beseiged on all sides by children and adults offering goods of their manufacture. The longer the tourist hesitates, the lower goes the price.

While in Mexico, a tourist has pesos at 8 to a dollar to play with. In Guatemala it is good old U. S. currency. That country's "Un Quetzal" has the same value as a dollar and the 2 currencies circulate freely.

UNTIL YOU VISIT the Indian country, you would not believe that civilization in the Americas could be unchanged for at least 2 centuries.

There is no beast of burden, except the backs of the men and the heads of the women. Often the pile of wood or other goods is larger in bulk than the person who is carrying it.

They sometimes walk all night in order to be on hand for the opening of the market. Shoes are unknown and the natives walk unshod over rubble and rough stone.

Babies are strapped to the backs of their mothers or older sisters. If the mother suspects the photographer is about to snap a picture without handing over some money, she prevents the taking of a good picture.

THE AVERAGE age limit of the men living in the hills and mountains is about 50 years. Their brothers in the lowlands have about the same life expectancy as exists in the United States.

The tourist can understand the reason. It is hard work transporting back loads up those hills. It is also hard work preparing the mountain slopes for crops.

Their only agricultural tool is a large hoe used in the preparation of the ground. There is no harvesting this time of the year, but it appears that the only other tool is the machete.

The grades over which the goods are taken to the village market are too great to allow use of carts and there is only an occasional burro. The Indians protect their soil on these mountains by terracing.

Tourist dollars provide the economy of such territory. Every village has its own market place. The inhabitants of this "raw" country will walk many miles on the chance of selling a few small pigs, a fowl or 2, fruit and vegetables to fellow inhabitants and articles manufactured in the village to the tourists.

IT IS A different story in the lowlands where more modern farming is possible. An occasional tractor or truck will be found. There is also some irrigation.

The government confiscated the large estates after the revolution over 40 years ago. Today 46 acres is the maximum acreage a farmer is allowed.

Two days were spent by us in visits to the hills and mountains where only primeval living was found.

One such village, Solakel, was reached in launches across Lake Atitlan. As we approached the shore many pictures were snapped of women washing clothes on the rocky shore.

THE GUATEMALAN INDIANS of the village of Chichicastenango in the mountains have developed their own version of Christianity. Although converted to Catholicism by the Spanish, they clung to some of their old rites, including the burning of incense for purification before entering the church. These Indians are purifying themselves with burning incense.

In the interior of the church, upon a 4-ft. wide platform, extending from the entrance to the large altar at the rear, are hundreds of burning candles. They are brought there and lighted by the worshippers who at the first position pray for the dead. As they move towards the altar, additional candles are lighted for the living and for those in ill health and crippled.

We witnessed the christening of 40 babies. Our guide said that due to malnutrition half of them die before they reached 5 years of age.

Adjoining the church is a dispensary and operating room with a priest physician and an assistant in charge.

ALONG THE STREET, their sisters were seated on the ground weaving cloth, neckties, belts, etc. If a photographer stopped to snap a picture, the mother would send a child to collect the usual fee for taking a picture.

Each straw thatched home has its own walled yard. There are no chimneys. Smoke finds its way out through the door and an occasional window.

Children are children the world over and there are few women tourists whose hearts are not touched by the babies and small children who are living in such un-American squalor. Perhaps the color of their skin hides evidence of dirt.

At least the Indians are happy. They return a smile for a smile or for an attempted word spoken in faltering Spanish by the visitor.

The Indians of Guatemala are many miles from the United States, but even their children know that the U. S. penny is not worth much and they will throw on the ground with a disgusted look any one cent coin that may be given to them. In Guatemala they consider a dime as the lowest coin in value that they recognize. (Do

Two Traffic Deaths Mar February Record

(CNS)—Two traffic fatalities marred the driving record during February on streets and highways in north and northwest Cook county municipalities.

Statistics reported by Daniel Ryan, president of the Cook County Traffic Safety Commission, show all communities in the area escaped traffic fatalities last month except Skokie and Glenview. One traffic death occurred in each of the two villages in February.

The two-month death toll for the area is 3, with one traffic fatality recorded in Wilmette in January.

Thirty-four persons were killed in traffic accidents in the county last month, including 16 in Chicago. Seven deaths occurred in unincorporated areas, 5 on county roads and 2 on state and U. S. highways.

Cook county totals for the first 2 months was 61 killed in traffic, compared with 74 in the same period last year.

Area traffic statistics for February with cumulative totals for the 2 month period listed first:

Set Second Open House At Prospect

Prospect high school, which received a rather thorough viewing in January, will be open to the public again Sunday, April 13.

Superintendent H. L. Slichenmyer announced this week that the new school will observe another "Open House" since so many residents had trouble seeing it the first time. Some 5500 citizens crowded through the building during its dedicatory open house January 19.

AT TIMES DURING the afternoon, parking became so congested that many were discouraged from attempting to see the school's interior.

To facilitate these tax-payers, student guided tours will be conducted between 2 and 4 p.m., with a coffee hour following in the cafeteria. School personnel will be on hand to greet the visitors.

A smaller crowd is anticipated this time, which would allow closer inspection of the Foundry road structure. The field house, which was not completed at the time of the first open house, can now be seen as a finished product. (ACM

Adamowski Warns 'Outlaw' Villages on Road Grabs

(CNS)—State's Attorney Adamowski has branded any village that won't abandon improper road annexations an "outlaw" municipality.

He used the term in dispatching letters to 8 suburbs, warning he would seek stiff fines and prosecute any community that won't drop road annexations of the type declared illegal on March 11 by Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher.

THE LETTERS, along with a copy of one to Hickory Hills, were sent to Bridgeview, Worth, Wheeling, River [illegible] East Wheeling, River [illegible]ve, East Chicago Heights, Alsip, Orland Park, and Schiller Park.

The letter to Hickory Hills noted that its annexation of nearby roads was held illegal by Judge Fisher because they were "not contiguous" to the southwest suburb.

Adamowski warned that any further attempt to exercise police powers or extend municipal jurisdiction over the roadways "will subject each official or officials to criminal liability . . . . malfaesance and other crimes."

IN THE LETTERS to the other municipalities, Adamowski said he was confident their officials would join him "in preserving the laws of Cook county."

Otherwise, he said, he will be compelled to file suit to void the road annexations and will ask a fine be imposed "upon such outlaw municipalities." He called attention to his suit filed against Streamwood to void its road annexations. Pending in Circuit court, the suit also seeks a $5,000 fine against the new northwest suburb in Hanover township. The money is to cover county expenses in prosecuting the case, Adamowski said.

Some municipalities, Adamowski said, have attempted to annex and subdivide land contiguous to the annexed roads which "are not contiguous to the municipalities but lie many miles from their actual borders."

HE SAID HOMES on these tracts have been constructed and sold to individuals under municipal zoning and building ordinances that don't conform with county building and zoning laws. Declared Adamowski:

"These municipalities are inviting builders and buyers to risk their capital investment and financial future, unfairly. Homes and any buildings so constructed under the void annexation ordinances in question are and will continue to remain existing violations under the zoning and buildings laws of Cook county."

Adamowski warned such structures will be declared "nuisances, removed from the premises, any further construction not completed enjoined, and their owners or tenants severely fined."

Solon Hopeful Urges State Act on Schools, Hospitals

Joseph Francis Dettlo, Democratic candidate for sixth district state representative, announced this week that if elected he will strive for state action in 2 matters: an adequate school program and increased standard and efficiency in our state mental institutions.

Dettlo said that some of the state laws today which govern the action of school boards are antiquated and out of style with the times. He said revision in the law permitting the extent local boards can manage their financial affairs must come. If it doesn't, Dettlo said, federal aid will be pushed on us. When that time comes it will certainly cost the taxpayer much more than if allowed to work out financial problems at the local level.

REGARDING OUR state mental institutions, Dettlo stated that "something must be done." The hospitals are understaffed, under equipped and over crowded. Mental health is a serious problem and we must take action to treat the afflicted with the goal of curing. We must remember these folks are human beings and consequently should be treated as such. We can not afford to turn our backs on them.

Dettlo is taking his second fling as a candidate for state representative. He ran for that office in 1956 and came out third, losing out to the second place Democratic candidate by less than 200 votes. Actually Dettlo ran high in Maine township, his home grounds, but lost the race when the final Skokie tallies were announced more than 24 hours after the election.

A LIFELONG Des Plaines resident, Dettlo has been active in Democratic circles for more than 28 years. He has served as a precinct captain, been a lieutenant on the sheriff's police, and at present is with the traffic control for the state of Illinois.

He has owned his own business and recently was one of the hundreds of families required to move because of the toll road. Unlike many residents, Dettlo didn't sell his home, he moved it from Golf rd. in Des Plaines to Seminary rd., a matter of a mile, just to be near the area he has resided in for so many years.

He has been married for 27 years and he and his wife, Matilda, have 2 sons, Ronald who is married and who is the father of 2 children, and George, who is stationed with the army in Korea.

Dettlo urged all residents to be sure and vote in the April 8 primary election. (B8

Scouts Play Host To Area Sponsors

Twelve potential sponsoring institutions of Scout units met together Wednesday, March 12, in Mt. Prospect to plan the organization of one or more units.

In charge was Chairman William MacKenzie, 505 N. Fairview, Mt. Prospect. He was assited by George Sawyer Jr. of troop 51, and members of his organization and extension committee.

INSTITUTIONS attending the meeting were: the Air Force Reserve, the V.F.W. of Mt. Prospect, the Prospect Heights Women's club, the Hatlen Heights Civic association, St. John Episcopal church, Mt. Prospect; Methodist Church of Arlington Heights; Our Lady of the Wayside Church of Arlington Heights; Forest View school of Arlington Heights; St. Alphonsus of Prospect Heights; Prospect Heights Lions club; Ridge school of Arlington Heights; and the Prospect Heights Improvement association.

Together, these institutions, after reviewing plans of organizing cub packs, scout troops and explorer posts, reported to the chairman at the end of the meeting that they would set out to organize a total of 8 cub packs, 4 scout troops, and one air squadron.

Guests at the dinner were Fred E. Welsh, 315 Wapella, Mt. Prospect, council president; Jordan A. Minerva, assistant scout executive; John Dunham Jr., Blackhawk district vice chairman, and George Muhly, Blackhawk district chairman. (B8

Rural Building Record Set During February

(CNS)—A bright spot in the construction field is that the building record during February in the unincorporated areas of Cook county bettered by 60 per cent the mark established in the same month last year.

The gain was rolled up despite the fact that the unincorporated area is smaller than what it was a year ago because of land annexations by expanding suburbs.

The county building and zoning bureau last month issued permits for building construction with an estimated total value of $3,902,200. This compared with $2,391,087 in February, 1957.

Maine township, northwest of Chicago, topped the unincorporated areas last month with 27 permits for construction values at $528,300. Leader in value in the south area was Rich township with 27 permits valued at $444,300, and in the west, Proviso township, 1 permit valued at $497,500 for a business building.

Permits issued by townships last month:

Township	Permits	Value
Barrington	1	$ 1,000

'Y' Offers Swim Lessons During Spring Vacation

Northwest Suburban YMCA will conduct free "learn to swim" lessons during spring vacation for boys and girls 8 to 13 years of age in the area who cannot swim. The 4-lesson series will be held March 31, April 1, 2 and 3 in the new Park Ridge 'Y' pool, with round-trip chartered bus transportation from several points in Arlington Heights, Elk Grove, Mt. Prospect and Prospect Heights.

Boys and girls will be instructed and supervised by trained, qualified YMCA leaders. Most youngsters will be able to swim at least 20 to 25 feet after the 4 lessons, and many will progress even further under the 'Y' leadership. This has been proven in the past several years the 'Y' has offered these "learn to swim" lessons during spring vacation.

THE CLASSES are free, the only charge being made for bus transportation. This fee may be applied on an annual membership if taken out within one week after the lessons.

All children of the northwest suburban area are invited to attend, meeting the bus at any location convenient to them. Pickup will be made at various points in Arlington Heights and Elk Grove on the mornings of all 4 days between 8 and 8:30 a.m. and children will be returned to the same points between 11:15 and 11:45 a.m. The bus will make pickups in Mt. Prospect and Prospect Heights at several locations between 12:30 and 1 p.m. and return between 3:30 and 4 p.m.

CHILDREN must register in advance by phone, mail or directly to the YMCA office, 1488 Miner st., Des Plaines, VA 4-4156. Enrollment is limited. Children must bring a suit, towel, and girls also a bathing cap.

Regular 'Y' swimming classes of 8 lessons for beginners and advanced boys and girls 8 to 14 years are offered weekly with bus transportation furnished between the 'Y' office and pool. Next session for boys begins Tuesday, April 15, and for girls, Wednesday, April 16. The classes, conducted by trained 'Y' instructors, are scheduled in 2 groups, one at 5:30 p.m. and the other at 6 p.m. on the days listed above. (B8

Area Phone Subscribers Included in Street Guide

Telephone subscriber residents of Arlington Heights, Elk Grove Village, Palatine, Wheeling, Rolling Meadows, Prospect Heights, and Mount Prospect will be listed in the order of their street addresses in the fifth annual edition of "The North Suburban Street Address Directory," to be published by The Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation, Chicago, on Tuesday, April 1.

The volume will cover 72 towns and communities north of Chicago and will contain the names of more than 144,000 families and businesse. Estimated listings for the Arlington Heights section, which includes Elk Grove Village for the first time, total more than 6,100. Other estimated listings are 4,200 for the Palatine section, 2,200 for the Wheeling section, 2,200 for the Rolling Meadows section, and 5,900 for the Mount Prospect section, which includes Prospect Heights.

IN THE ARLINGTON Heights section local streets, with telephone subscribers listed, appear in alphabetical order from Algonquin rd. to Yale ave. Streets in the Palatine section are listed from Aberdeen rd. to Woodland rd.; in the Wheeling section, from Airdrie ln. to 12th st.; in the Rolling Meadows section, from Ashland ave. to Wren ln.; and in the Mount Prospect section, from Albert st. to Withorn ln.

L. W. Reich, Donnelley regional general manager, said that the directory, like last year's volume, will carry no advertising and will be leased to users on an annual basis.

Roy S. Lewin, Donnelley street address division manager, said that each of the 28 sections will be introduced by a map and street guide of the area covered in the section. These local maps, especially drafted for the edition, now show streets outsid town boundary lines. Also included is a map of the entire area covering approximately 200 square miles and showing Waukegan rd., Oakton st., Milwaukee rd., and other main streets and crossroads.

THE VOLUME IS compiled from Illinois Bell Telephone Company records and telephone numbers appear with each listing. The directory is used by business firms to prevent check cashing losses, cut office and delivery expenses, obtain credit information, bring mailing lists up to date, trace and collect unpaid accounts, find property owners, and check emergency news sources.

Included among the more than 200 types of users are newspapers, political organizations, retail merchants, service companies, contractors, insurance agents, real estate operators, lawyers, and police and fire stations.

Information about the volume can be obtained by calling The Reuben H. Donnelley Corporation, Street Address Directory Division, CAlumet 5-6161. (B8

Q. Is it considered proper to repeat a person's name when you are acknowledging an introduction?

A. This is not only proper, but practical too. Many persons fail to remember the names of people to whom they are introduced. Repeating the name, as, "How do you do, Mr. Garrison," helps to imprint the name in one's memory.

Q. What is the proper length of time for a young woman to wear mourning for her father?

A. This is entirely up to her. The custom of wearing mourning is not so strict as it formerly was. Many people do not consider it necessary at all.

Wilson School District Board Election April 12

Voters at Wilson school's board of education election April 12 must choose 3 members from a group of 4 men and 2 women. Three of the 6 candidates are present members of the board.

Leo B. Kneer, Mrs. Ernest D. Neal, Gale William Gunnison, and Oden S. Jester, Jr., are seeking 3 year terms. George C. Herbert and Mrs. Terry Fitzpatrick are candidates for a one year unexpired term.

Kneer, appointed in January to fill an unexpired term, resides at 1645 N. Evergreen and owns both a bachelor and a master's degree in education. An editor for Scott-Foresman testbook company, Kneer is a former teacher, having taught at levels ranging from first graders to college freshmen. The Kneers have 2 children, one a third grader at Wilson and another of pre-school age.

NELLIE NEAL, 213 Sunset, whose husband is employed by Danly Specialties in Cicero, is a mother of 2 boys, both Wilson school students. Mrs. Neal has been a member of the board for 3 years and can make the unique boast of "personally escorting Wilson students to school." As a Tinsley bus service employee, Mrs. Neal drives the bus which services Wilson.

A member of the board since November, after being asked to complete an unexpired term, Gale Gunnison, 1407 Clarendon, is an underwriter for the Chicago office of Lloyds of London. Gunnison has a bachelor's degree in education from Knox college where he studied to be a teacher. The Gunnisons have 3 children, one at Wilson and 2 of pre-school age.

Jester, 203 Waverly, is an engineer for Frank G. Hough company in Libertyville, having earned a B. S. of Engineering at the State University of Iowa. The Jesters have 5 children, 2 at Wilson, one in kindergarten and 2 of pre-school age.

A LITTLE LEAGUE enthusiast is George C. Herbert, 1227 N. Chicago, employee of the agency production department of Keniper Insurance in Chicago. Herbert received a law degree from Boston university, and is the father of 3 children, a second grader at Wilson, and 2 pre-schoolers.

Elizabeth Fitzpatrick, Waverly rd., has worked with the board in her capacity as vice president of the kindergarten school at Wilson. A mother of 4 children, 3 of whom are Wilson students, Mrs. Fitzpatrick is the wife of an Arlington contractor and also a candidate for the vice presidency of the Wilson PTA. (A son, Tom was accepted into the society. This is Tom's senior year.

Hot Democratic Contest Excites Interest in Area

A hotly-contested race for the post of Democratic committeeman of Wheeling township is bringing more than the usual handful of persons to political gatherings.

Jack Clark of Arlington Heights, incumbent committee man who is being challenged by James Stavros of Wheeling, reported an attendance of 40 at a Friday night meeting.

GUESTS AT THE meeting to boost Clark's candidacy were Harry L. Kinser of Des Plaines and Bernard M. Peskin of Northbrook. Both are seeking nomination as candidates for election to the state legislature from the sixth district, which includes Wheeling township.

Both Kinser and Peskin pledged full support for increased aid to schools and to institutions for treatment of the mentally ill if elected.

Clark, a county highway department employee who has been committeeman for 12 years, will speak at a morning coffee hour today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. Paul J. Moore, 634 S. Belmont, Arlington Heights.

Builder Hearings Begin April 14

(CNS) — Hearings are scheduled for April 14 before Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher on an Arlington Heights' builder's mandamus petition seeking to compel village officials to issue a home building permit for a 15,000 square foot lot in Arlington Heights.

He is Herbert R. Jacobsen, president of H. R. Jacobsen, Inc., 1714 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights. He contends the Arlington Heights village board and its president have the power in hardship cases to waive the ordinance banning septic tanks on lots containing less than 20,000 square feet.

THE HARDSHIP position was stressed in his amended lawsuit, filed with court permission.

A septic tank for the lot on Salem blvd., 100 feet north of Watling st., is necessary because the only alternative is too expensive, Jacobsen contends. The closest tie-in to the village sewer system is 2 blocks away and extending it to the lot would cost $65,000, according to Jacobsen.

The village board last October turned down his plans for a septic tank to serve the proposed single family residence on the lot.

ATTORNEYS William M. Doty and Edwin L. Johnson, representing the builder, assert the village position is "arbitrary and unreasonable."

Jacobsen's original complaint contended the village code permits septic tanks on ots commits septic tanks on lots containing at least 10,000 square feet. But the village won the first round when it proved the minimum area must be 20,000 square feet.

Jacobsen owns 22 lots in the area and the same issues are involved in each. Jacobsen developed the Sherwood area in Arlington Heights. (A

Students to Tour Nation's Capitol

Some 62 Arlington high students will spend their spring vacation in Washington, D. C., on the annual Eastern tour.

Accompanied by faculty members Roy Meiller and Russell Dowell and their wives, the group will board a Capital airlines plane at O'Hare International airport Monday morning.

Arriving in Washington, D. C. 3 hours later, the tourists will begin an educational sight-seeing trip which will include stops at Jamestown, Richmond, and Williamsburg.

AFTER A THOROUGH tour of the Capitol, the Arlingtonites will be treated to a moonlight cruise on the Potomac river and a view of the dress parade at Annapolis.

During their stay in Washington the travelers will stay in the Sheraton Park hotel.

Each student pays his own way on the tour, which covers the week of the school's spring vacation. (ACM

First Aid Contest For Scout Troop

A patrol first aid contest was held in Boy Scout troop 166 of St. James parish, Arlington Heights, and the winners, which were members of the Fox patrol, competed with other troop patrol winners in Arlington high school Friday night.

Mountain Holiday

The travel and adventure lectures of the Arlington high school adult education program will move to a new location for the last two lectures of the current season. Stan Midgely will present his "Mountain Holiday in the Golden State" in the new theatre in the Prospect high school building, 800 W. Foundry rd. Mt. Prospect, at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday.

Midgely's lectures are noted for the superb quality of the color photography and the humorous tone of the narrative. The "Mountain Holiday" film is a record of a trip by bicycle and afoot through California's mountain playgrounds, beginning on the seashore in the Redwood empire of the northern part of the state, and concludes months later at the highest rock in the United States.

FOUR OF THE national parks are included in the tour, 5,000 lakes, waterfalls, glaciers, deserts, and the world's largest trees. Exciting sequences are included in the salmon fishing country, and in a hike over the John Muir Trail from Yosemite to Mount Whitney along the crest of the High Sierra, visiting 3 of the national parks on the hike. The concluding scenes were photographed at Sequoia, Kings Canyon and Yosemite Parks in the full color of autumn.

Local businessmen and civic organizations donated $248.50, with auto dealer Bill Cook and loan service manager Wayne Brennan heading a committee and $303.85 was donated in memorials and miscellaneous gifts.

Arlington Teacher Wins Grant for Study at Yale

Donald M. Fyfe, an English teacher at Arlington high school, is one of 20 outstanding American high school teachers who have been awarded fellowships for advanced study by the John Hay Whitney foundation.

Fyfe, 32, has been a member of the school faculty for 3 years and has taught 8 years. He plans to study humanities at Yale university, with emphasis on early and contemporary English, Irish and American literature, during the 1958-59 academic year.

HIS WIFE and children, Douglas, 4, and Sheila, 1, will accompany him to New Haven. The family will rent its home at 21 S. Glenwood, Palatine.

"I just had confirmation of the award yesterday and I'm still a little numb from it," Fyfe said Saturday. "The selection is something all teachers dream about."

The army veteran teaches junior English and senior college preparatory English at the high school. He is also director of boys' intramural athletics and a faculty advisor for the annual talent show. He is a former member of the Palatine Players and is working on a doctoral degree in dramatics at Northwestern university.

Originally from West Virginia, Fyfe attended schools in Ontario, Canada, and received his A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan.

THE FOUNDATION awards the fellowships annually to teachers who have demonstrated their ability to teach creatively and who have maintained high intellectual and professional standards in their classrooms and school communities.

The awards enable these teachers to spend a year at one of 2 universities following individually developed programs to broaden their humanistic backgrounds. Ten will study at Columbia university and 10 at Yale. Each John Hay Fellow receives a stipend equal to his school salary for the year, plus full tuition costs and transportation expenses for himself and family.

Fyfe estimated the worth of the grant at about $9,000.

THE FELLOWSHIPS are named in honor of John Hay, secretary of state under Presidents William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt.

Two other Illinois fellows named last week are Miss Lola Bane, of Oak Park high chool, and Elmer C. Alft, of Elgin high school.

Fyfe will return to Arlington high school at the end of the year. (ACMP

CLAIRE AND BOB Dever, 1430 Race, entertained Friday evening at the Yacht club in the Edgewater Beach hotel in honor of their daughter, Nancy's, 22nd birthday. Their guests were their son, Tim; Nancy's roommate at St. Luke hospital, Miss Robin Novak; and their cousin, Miss Ginger Guffin from Los Angeles. The guest of honor was serenaded by the waiters and presented with a surprise birthday cake.

Cindy Cates, 1334 N. Yale, celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday. In an effort to hurry spring, the table and cake were decorated with flowers and each guest received a corsage. Those attending were Susie Barse, Susan Friel and 6 of Cindy's second grade friends from St. James school.

THE ERNEST Lundstroms returned last weekend from their Cuban vacation. Five weeks ago they left Wedgewood and piles of snow for 85-90° heat at San Diego. On an island, one-half mile from the mainland, they relaxed in a summer home, toured a great deal and became acquainted with many wonderful Cubans. It was too hot for sunbathing more than 10 minutes at a time . . . the 90° temperature was a bit too much, but full advantage was taken of frequent cooling and refreshing motor boat trips. The evenings were 70-75°. The last 2 weeks of the trip were spent in Key West, Fla. . . . again touring, relaxing and visiting friends.

Louwanne Cisewski celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday, entertaining several playmates. The guests were Sherry Bedo, Sherry House, Nancy Petersen, Barbara Molitor, Barbara Schneider and Laurie Spera. Birthday games were played, prizes distributed, cake and ice cream eaten and much fun shared by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Chikeles, 406 Meadow lane, lost their pet Siamese cat here in Wedgewood last Friday evening. Full information is given in the "Lost and Found" classification of this newspaper. It is hoped that anyone seeing the animal will call Clearbrook 3-7867.

40,000 Homes Get Gas Heat if Plans Go Through

Northern Illinois Gas co. has contracted to purchase 50 million cubic feet of natural gas daily from the Northern Natural Gas co., subject to an application filed March 19 by Northern Natural with the Federal Power Commission in Washington, D. C. At the same time, Northern Illinois Gas applied to the Illinois Commerce Commission for the necessary authority to proceed with the project.

According to Marvin Chandler, president of Northern Illinois Gas co., if regulatory approvals are received promptly and there are no difficulties in acquiring right-of-way, obtaining materials and completing construction, this new supply could be available before the peak of the 1958-59 heating season.

"As soon as a dependable time of delivery can be established," Chandler reported in a letter being mailed stockholders, "we will authorize as many additional house-heating connections as the new supply, coupled with our other pipeline flow gas, storage and peak saving facilities, could then handle. Our best guess now is this would permit authorizing between one-third and one-half of our present waiting list of about 115,000 applicants."

According to the plans, Northern Natural Gas co. (which now serves natural gas in Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Kansas) will build a line across the Mississippi river at Dubuque, Iowa, from its present facilities. Northern Illinois Gas will receive its new supply near East Dubuque, Ill., and construct a 140 mile pipeline across the northern part of the state to points of connection with present facilities. Its eastern terminus will be near Des Plaines (Illinois). The new project, estimated to cost $15 million, would raise the company's five-year (1958-62) construction budget to about $140 million.

Chandler emphasized that this new project should not be confused with the company's recent agreement to purchase a similar amount of natural gas daily from the Midwestern Gas Transmission co's. proposed pipeline to be constructed between Portland, Tenn. and the Chicago area.

"This Midwestern project may be completed in time to deliver gas to us in the 1958-59 heating season, but there are many uncertainities, including existence of currently conflicting applications before the Federal Power Commission," Chandler reported. "While we are doing what we can to expedite the project, it must be recognized that we cannot be sure of receiving delivery of this gas during 1958."

Chandler also said that there is some progress in the proposed expansion program of natural Gas Pipeline Company of America to bring additional supplies of natural gas from the southwest and Rocky Mountain areas from which Northern Illinois Gas expects to receive about a 38 per cent increase in its present maximum daily pipeline supply. He pointed out, however, that additional gas from this source cannot be expected before the 1959-60 heating season. He said the company was "encouraged that what has for a long time seemed to be a real log jam is finally showing signs of breaking up." (BB

New Patterns Make Walls Living Fun

The new Wall-Tex patterns are designed to open walls to the fun of living, giving them textured richness, and make rooms look more spacious.

There are many attractive new contemporary prints that are especially suitable for living room and bedroom walls. As examples, there is new "Eclipse" pattern, a star-burst motif freely connected by loosely drawn gossamer threads, and the "Champagne" pattern, a light and carefree interpretation of bubbles in gay new colorings.

The new "conservation" coverings for bath and kitchen are expected to make a real hit. Among them are the "Jonathan" pattern, which pictures 6 cartoon interpretations of what a bathroom should be like, and "Herb Guide," which lists the herbs of all nations and their appropriate uses against a background of stylized kitchen utensils.

For children's rooms, there is the Wall-Tex "Ship and Shore" patterns, which pictures clipper ships running before the wind with gulls flying overhead and buoys tossing in the waves. Another lively new pattern expected to appeal to both the young and the young at heart is "Country Quilt," where birds and butterflies, fruit and flowers march along in rows of calico squares and circles. Arlington 7th in North Suburban Sales Revenue

(CNS) — For the first time, Wilmette passed Highland Park in retail business during December and took fifth place among north suburban shopping areas, according to the Community News Service tabulation of state revenue department figures.

Wilmette collected $16,052 from the ½ per cent local sales tax, compared to $15,967 in Highland Park. In November, Highland Park led $13,494 to $11,860, and in December, 1956, by $14,676 to $14,005. The latter was the closest Wilmette had previously come to fifth place.

The four leading towns kept their positions: Evanston, first, with $58,025 in December compared to $46,577 in November; Skokie, second, with $48,721 compared to $38,761; Elgin, third, with $36,238 compared to $32,287; and Des Plaines, fourth, with $19,790 compared to $19,055.

Large Christmas gains for the month but the same relative position were also reported for: Arlington Heights, seventh, with $14,602 from $10,631; Park Ridge, eighth with $14,162 from $9,576; Norridge, ninth with $13,868 from $9,238; Lincolnwood, tenth with $10,078 from $8,719; Franklin Park, 12th with $9,608 from $7,030; and Barrington, 14th with $7,369.

Winnetka has no local tax, but the state 2.5 pct. figures showed it in 11th place, with $53,985, behind Lincolnwood's $57,323.

Gains in position were recorded by Glenview, 13th with $8,173 in December from 15th with $6,153 in November; Mt. Prospect, 15th with $6,320 from 17th with $5,225; and River Grove, 18th with $5,682 from 19th with $4,046.

Losses were scored by Niles, 16th with $6,197 from 13th in November with $6,246; Morton Grove, 17th with $5,909 from 16th with $5,295, and Palatine, 19th with $4,733 from 18th with $4,255.

Revenue Head Explains Tax Rules on Dividends

H. Alan Long, director of the internal revenue service for the Chicago district today explained the rules covering the exclusion of dividends received and the dividends received credit on federal income tax returns of individuals for 1957.

If a person owns stock in a corporation, the payments he receives out of the company's earnings and profits are called dividends and must be reported in his tax return. If he received dividends, there are two provisions of the law which serve to reduce the income tax he must pay. One is the exclusion from income of up to $50 in dividends received. The other is a credit, or reduction, of the tax on the dividends in excess of $50 which are included in income.

In order to qualify for the $50 exclusion, the dividends must have been received from domestic (U.S.) corporations which are subject to the ordinary corporate tax rates. The instruction booklet for Form 1040 contains a list of the type of corporations which do not qualify on page 12.

If a joint return is filed by husband and wife and both have dividend income, each may exclude up to $50 of dividends received, but one may not use any portion of the $50 exclusion not used by the other. For evample, if the husband received $100 in dividends, and the wife $25, only $75 may be excluded on a joint return.

Where dividends are considered community property income under state law, the dividends are considered to have been received one-half by each.

Persons should use Schedule A on page 3 of Form 1040 to list dividends and to show the amount of exclusion to which they are entitled.

Long advised taxpayers who have questions concerning these points or any other matter on their Federal income tax return for 1957 to telephone or visit the local office of the internal revenue service. The local office may be reached by telephone Monday through Friday. The address of the local office is U. S. Post Office Bldg., Des Plaines. (BB

Arlington Artist in Art Show

Robert D. Borchard, 723 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights, will be among the suburban artists featured in the Spring Art parade of the Evanston Art Center on March 29 through April 5. The general public will be able to view the art exhibit in the Evanston Community Center, 828 Davis st., from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

Many stores in Evanston's downtown business district will display art works, also, to raise the number on exhibit to 205. Paintings, ceramics, weaving and sculpture of leading artists from the North Shore and the North Side of Chicago will be on display.

Borchard will exhibit five oil paintings: "Desert Flower," "Woman in White," "Vertical Forms with Zeppelin," "Composition No. 1," and "Composition No. 2." (BB

Local Executive Attends 9-Week Business School

E. CARROLL GERATHY

E. Carroll Gerathy, 335 Windsor drive, has been selected by his company to attend a 9 week business course at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh. Gerathy is administrative general manager of the Prudential Insurance Company's Mid-America Home Office in Chicago.

The course is a program for executives conducted under Carnegie's graduate school of industrial administration. Enrollment is limited to 30 students drawn from the ranks of senior administrative executives throughout the country.

The program extends from March 17 to May 16. It consists of discussions, lectures and conferences with leading business figures and members of the faculty. Subjects deal with management functions and problem studies.

Gerathy, a native of Long Island City, N. Y., joined Prudential's Newark (N.J.) home office in 1948, coming from McKesson and Robbins where he was general supervisor of accounting and IBM operations. He was transferred to the newly opened Mid-America Home Office in 1953 and promoted to his present assignment the following year.

He and his wife, Julia, have 2 children, Nancy, age 10, and John, age 8. (BB

Prudential Beneficiary Payments Up

Beneficiaries of Prudential policyholders in Illinois received $87,779,000 during 1957, Henry C. Bauer, manager of Prudential's Palatine office, 744 S. Northwest hwy., announced today.

Of this amount, $61,620,000, or more than 70 per cent, was paid to living policyholders, Bauer said.

The figures were released by James E. Rutherford, vice president in charge of Mid-America operations covering Illinois and Indiana. The total exceeds previous year payments by more than $10,000,000.

Rutherford stated that over $4,175,300,000 of Prudential insurance was owned at the end of the year by Illinois residents.

Jewel Retirement Plan Up $5 Million in 1957

Last week more than 3,900 people in the Chicago area hapnily received individual statements showing their share in the Jewel Tea co., inc. profit sharing retirement plan. This plan, known as Jewel Retirement Estates, has grown to a value of over $26,422,000 since it began in 1939.

A total of $4,778,063 was added to the plan in 1957. Of this amount, $2,297,784 came from the 1957 company earnings bringing the total amount of contribution to the Plan from company earnings to $15,982,445. This contribution from Jewel is based on 15 per cent of the company's net profits before taxes and after a provision to the stockholders. It is distributed to individual members on the basis of salary and personal deposits.

Individual accounts for longer term members range from $15,000 to as high as $25,000. Members in the Plan since 1939 received credits for 1957 ranging between $1,500 and $3,000.

All money held in the plan is invested in government bonds, corporate bonds and preferred stock and common stocks. This investment program earned a total of $1,028,063 in 1957. Membership in Jewel Retirement Estates is open to all full-time Jewel employees after one year of employment. Current membership totals nearly 6,000 Jewel employees throughout the country. Members help in building their accounts through their own contributions. They may deposit from $1.00 to $5.00 each week or 5 per cent of their salary. Employee deposits in 1957 totaled $1,452,216. Since the plan's beginning 19 years ago, members have deposited $12,149,568. For every dollar deposited by the members during the operation of this plan, $1.32 has been credited to their accounts from company earnings.

Distribution of the full account takes place in cases of retirement, death or permanent disability; otherwise, distribution is based on years of service and membership. Members have received payments from the plan totaling more than $11,000,000 during the 19 years that the plan has existed.

Arlington, Palatine High Schools Get $30 for Each Student Driver

Arlington and Palatine high school districts are participating in the reimbursable driver training program enacted into law by the last Illinois general assembly, said Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction.

A total of 358 high school and/or unit districts throughout the state are in cluded in the porgram operated through Nickell's office. The 358 districts represent 370 high schools, advised George Mathis, director of safety and driver education for Nickell.

The number of schools which have signed up for this new program is encouraging, Nickell said, particularly in view of the fact that the new enabling statute did not become effective until after many school districts had already approved their 1957 - 58 school budgets. The superintendent was elated with the interest shown to date and anticipated a sizeable increase in participating districts with the advent of the 1958-59 school year.

The new program calls for state reimbursement of $30 per pupil to districts who have signed up for and completed the newly launched statewide program. Nickell estimated that another 65 high school and/or unit districts have their own driver training programs but have not signed up for the reimbursable program.

The new driver training program, inclusive of both classroom and "behind the wheel" training, is considered a part of the state's overall safety program.

"We have great confidence in the driving ability and courtesy of our high school students," Nickell added. "We are certain that the program will produce some of the best drivers in the state and nation and be a credit to our school system." Nickell concluded. (BB

Mt. Prospect Man Teaches Letter Writing Course

Herbert E. Clarkson Jr., 208 N. Main st., Mt. Prospect, will teach Spring sessions in "Effective Letter Writing" at Central YMCA, 19 S. LaSalle st., Chicago, Friday nights, 6 to 7:20 p.m., beginning April 11.

Clarkson's course, which has been very popular at Central "Y" in recent terms, is designed to teach the techniques of modern letter writing and layout and to familiarize students with the use of the right words, good style, proper sentence structure, punctuation and other marks of good writing.

"Effective Letter Writing" is one of more than 150 Learning for Living courses open to men and women at Central "Y." Registration is now open at Central YMCA, 19 S. LaSalle st., Chicago.

Mt. Prospect Savings Passes $1 Million Mark

In one year since its organization the Mt. Prospect Federal Savings and Loan association has passed $1 million in savings accounts, announces Joseph F. Sokal, president.

"Officers of this new institution are gratified by its acceptance from the residents of the Northwest suburban area," said Sokal.

"Within one year it has been demonstrated that an institution like ours has a place in Mt. Prospect for those who want to place their savings in a federally-chartered association."

Similar comments were made by Robert L. Stanton, secretary-treasurer. (BB

Farmer Corrects Salary Statement

Most field work on truck gardens in the northwest area is done on a piecework basis rather than on an hourly pay scale according to Wheeling area truck farmer Erwin Alten.

Alten said a statement attributed to him in one of the current series on Spanish-Americans was misleading. The statement said he had employed a man for 5 years, paying him 80 cents an hour. Actually, said Alten, the employee worked mostly on piecework and, like other laborers could "earn up to $2 an hour if he worked hard." (B8

PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS, following the example set by the automobile world, has turned to Europe for a printing press that has features not found in the domestic presses. The publishers are not alone in recognizing the merits of printing equipment manufactured outside of the United States. An entire shipload of presses of similar manufacture arrived in this country last week.

The above is one of 6 boxes, weighing a total of 7 tons, that was rushed to Paddock Publications direct from a New York wharf.

The Myth That Life Is 'Fair'

by REV. WILLIAM McGILL

When life tumbles in and the storms descend upon us, one of the common complaints of man is, "Why did this happen to me?" When the sun shines and man basks in the reflection of his own glory in the face of his fellowmen, he is inclined to assume that this is his due. He seldom thinks to ask, "Why did this happen to me?"

In spite of all the available evidence, we normally tend to make the major assumption that life is fair with a probable weighting toward a happy ending.

THE GOOD FRIDAY debacle smashes the hopes of Jesus' followers just a few short days after the triumphant entry into the city of Jerusalem. This happens more times than we care to recognize it.

The Mike Todd-plane crash might be a case in point. With recognition and honor of the sort which he prized within his grasp, with everything to live for, a veil was drawn. From the crest of the wave, as humans see it, he slipped to the trough.

When Carlyle had finished the first manuscript of "The French Revolution," he loaned it to John Stuart Mill for a critical reading before sending it to the publishers. But something happened; the manuscript was burned. Carlyle wrote in his diary, "Oh! that I had faith! . . . This world is not friendly."

On the other hand, there are some who admit privately that they have reached the pinnacle just when they thought they had been forsaken at the bottom. Few admit it as frankly as Ko-Ko, the Mikado's Lord High Executioner:

"Taken from the county jail
By a set of curious chances;
Liberated then on bail,
On my own recognizances;—
Surely never had a male,
So adventurous a tale."

From Job to St. Paul, and supremely in the life of Jesus, there is this affirmation that nothing is required of a man except he be faithful where he is, wherever he is. No one necessarily gets a "fair shake" in life.

PART OF WHAT the Christian's faith says to us is that here was One who did not deserve what He received. Yet He took an ugly cross, a criminal's gibbet, and made it an instrument of redemption.

The gallows sought Him out at the height of His powers, at the highest point of His public career. Now we remember the Cross because He died there, praying forgiveness upon those who did not realize what they were doing.

Park Ridge To Organize United Fund

A caucus will be called in Park Ridge "in the near future" to establish a local United Fund organization to consolidate all drives for charitable and civic purposes, the chamber of commerce announced last week.

Delegates from each organization in the city will be requested to attend the organizing caucus at which time discussion of the problems, acceptance of by-laws and election of a Board of Directors will be held. Organizations included in the caucus will be service clubs, church groups, PTA's and others.

"PARK RIDGIANS are, more and more, becoming conscious of the need to cut down on the number of drives for charitable purposes," it was stated. "The chamber of commerce and other organizations have been contacted repeatedly to do something to get a united drive started."

Last summer a committee was appointed to study the matter. Similar community drives in many neighboring suburbs were investigated with the result that the committee felt a united fund drive was feasible. Thereupon, the committee was expanded and a plan for organization evolved. Incorporation of the "Park Ridge United Fund" followed, by-laws were drawn and a plan for action decided upon.

"IT IS HOPED that the Park Ridge United Fund will be a completed organization ready to consolidate all drives for charitable and civic purposes by Oct. 1, 1958," they said "Thus we can eliminate unnecessary duplication of time and peronnel in raising funds."

The House That Fear Built

Desire for 'Home Rule' Key To Feverish Incorporations

In 3 northwest area communities which now have no municipal government, the question of incorporation as a city or village is moving from the talking stage to the voting stage this spring.

First to cast their ballots will be residents of the proposed village of Plum Grove, an area of about 50 homes 1 mile south of Palatine. They will vote April 19.

Prospect Heights, established some 20 years ago and now grown into a substantial community of about 1000 homes, will decide on incorporation late in May. Incorporation petitions have been filed but no date for the voting is set.

The 1,000 young home owners of Hoffman Estates will have more time to consider the merits of incorporation, with the target date for an election now being early June.

Why this sudden flurry of interest in self-government?

Attorney John Haas, who filed the petition for Prospect Heights, answers for his community:

"For more than a year the people in Prospect Heights have been talking about setting up their own government. Some have been pro and some con. But this current road annexation fever brought it to a head. The people thought before they got hurt, they'd better do something."

While the threat of encirclement by road annexations triggered the passing of incorporation petitions in Prospect Heights, there are other reasons for the drive for incorporation. County police protection is so scanty as to be almost nonexistent; witness the havoc caused in the Prospect Heights shopping center by vandals last Halloween.

All 3 of the communities which will vote on incorporation in the coming months lack the usual city-type services. Of course their taxes are lower, on the other hand. But more and more of the "country" residents are coming to value things they once took for granted; smooth, well-maintained streets for example.

At various times of the year, streets in Prospect Heights are pitted with chuck holes and next to impassable. The one-man highway department of Wheeling township simply hasn't the wherewithal to do a proper job of maintenance.

And it is incongruous, not to say ridiculous, to drive up to some of Prospect Heights' $20,000-and-up homes over a street that hasn't had a nickel's worth of repair in a year.

The road annexation ruckus brought to the minds of residents of unincorporated towns more forcibly than ever before their almost complete helplessness in the fields of community planning and zoning.

Prospect Heights yelped when Wheeling annexed a road right into Prospect Heights. But the yelps didn't void the annexation and it may be years before courts give a final decision on the corridor annexations.

Essentially, the question that the 4000 people in Hoffman Estates and Prospect Heights and the several hundred in Plum Grove must answer before election is this one: Will "home rule" through our own city or village board give us a greater voice in running our own community?

Not to throttle discussion on this basic question but to suggest a partial answer to it, consider these items:

Outside of village limits, zoning matters are under the jurisdiction of the Cook county board of commissioners, 10 of whose members are from Chicago, 5 from the suburbs.

A committee of judges sitting in Chicago passes on the request of the county sheriff for more county police, who patrol unincorporated communities. The judges committee last year vetoed hiring of additional police.

County officials decide what kind of building, electrical and plumbing regulations will be enforced, how many and what kind of taverns will be permitted, what kind of drainage facilities will be provided in new subdivisions.

In incorporated towns, all these matters and hundreds of other questions which touch upon the lives of the taxpayers, are decided right at home.

Remove Unsound Taxes

An amendment to to H. R. 7125, sponsored by 14 United Sates Senators, will do much to solve the complex problem of the economy of the nation's transportation system, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois said today. This amendment would repeal the 3 per cent excise tax on property transportation and 10 per cent tax on passenger service.

America is built on transportation as is no other country on the face of the earth. America has been a leader in transportation in the past and must continue to be in the future. However, from what we know, Russia is building railroads all the time. We in America are building almost none. One of the reasons is clear. Railroads and other "for-hire" carriers are prevented from earning the growth money they need to serve the public to the best of their technical ability. Unequal taxes and unequal regulations often price them out of business and rob them of volume.

A repeal of these war-time taxes would serve as a stimulant to our economy at this particular time, and would place competing types of transportation on a more nearly equal basis. This action would mean more money in the pocket of the consumer.

The transportation tax applies at every successive stage of production, from raw materials to the delivery of the finished product. Not only does it apply at each stage of production and marketing involving transportation, but through a series of mark-ups it builds up to much larger amounts than would seem to be indicated by a seemingly nominal tax rate of 3 per cent. If there are 5 transportation movements, there would be five 3 per cent individual tax assessments on the transportation of the one item. This is the reason why this tax is such a serious drag on production.

No less important, repeal of these taxes would help to arrest further deterioration of our essential transportation industries. The transportation industry, in its entirety, is an extremely important part of the national economy, comprising about 21 per cent of the gross national product. Unless we continue to maintain a strong transportation system, which is essential to both commerce and defense, other efforts to strengthen our national defense would be largely nullified.

Thus, from every point of view, these burdensome and unsound taxes should be removed immediately. Time is fleeting. Congress should act now.

More Gripes About 'Drivers'

Hark, hark! The lark? No, the doorbell rings.
Now who can that be? My heart just sings
As I run to see. A thirsty friend?
Or the postman with bills for this month's end?
It's neither of those. It's a lady, cold,
Uneasy, unknown, uncertain. I'm told
She's collecting for ——————*. I should be glad To contribute to this, for the lass and lad
At my house may benefit too from this act.
However, a problem is part of this fact:
There seems no end to the outstretched hands.
All are worthy, but the doorstep demands have come too often. And that's not all:
I too have made many a money call.
Draw a line? I don't know where.
I can't say no, and I want to be fair.
I'm not alone in this point of view.
And all of us see one end to this stew:
UNITE. One drive for everyone
Will mean "to share" but not "to dun."

Neighborhood Going to Dogs?

Re the "correction" on page 2 of March 20 Mt. Prospect Herald: I stated the Worleys had 6 dogs, at the village board meeting, and I meant 6 dogs. Your reporter quoted me correctly. The Worleys had that many dogs in their compound a week before the meeting. As a matter of fact, they have had more than 6 dogs on their premises during the last year. Neighbors tell me that Worley trains hunting dogs, and on some weekends his place resembles a dog pound.

My observation of last weekend revealed that the Worleys had 3 dogs (2 white specimens and a brown variety) in their open-air kennel, plus a cocker spaniel, apparently a house pet, who was roaming tether-free on their front lawn. So, at the moment, they have 4 dogs and not 3. The Worleys' dog population seems to increase and diminish, apparently on the basis of what canine training they are engaged in at a particular time.

Mrs. Worley is not telling the truth about the dogs not being allowed to run loose. True, they are confined to the compound most of the time (with the exception of the cocker), but Worley exercises the hunting dogs at regular intervals. Then, he and the dogs come on village property. The dogs are allowed to run free, and they scurry around like maniacs, froth flecking their jowls. The dogs have run across my back yard on at least a dozen occasions the last year, and other neighboring yards. Mt. Prospect has an ordinance against dogs running loose and Worley, even though he lives just outside the village, is violating this ordinance by coming on village property and allowing his dogs there also.

Mrs. Worley says the dogs bark only when disturbed. Isn't this about the only time dogs will bark? What I would like to know is what in blue blazes is disturbing the Worleys' nervous nellies. There is no pedestrian traffic out here to speak of in the evening and during the night, and the automobile traffic is negligible. The dogs apparently bark at one another, or perhaps they object to the way the man in the moon parts his hair. At any rate, there is no possible excuse for their late evening and after midnight frantic and prolonged barking. If the Worleys had the decency to think of their neighbors, they would lock up these pets at a reasonable hour in the evening and keep them locked up until a reasonable hour the next morning.

This seems to be too much to expect from the Worleys, who have told me that, as far as they were concerned, "we have no neighbors," and "the dogs were here before any of you other people, and that's that."

Mrs. Worley also is quoted: "The dogs have had peace and quiet and now must get used to noises." This is a keg of hog-wash.

This neighborhood is as quiet as any in Mt. Prospect, and perhaps much quieter than most in the village. There are no noises, as such. Mrs. Worley is covering up for the fact that her dog pack is poorly trained, if trained at all. It's high time the Worleys invested some money in training that will make gentleman out of their animals.

The area to the east of the Worleys has been inhabited for almost 2 years, and the dogs have had all that time to get used to the sight of people working in backyards. Yet, step out into your backyard, or almost anywhere in sight of the dogs, day or night, and up starts the crescendo again. This is not a matter of strangers being able to come in close contact with the dogs. I'm about 90 yards away, and I get a royal welcome, more often than not, when I get around my back area. Actually, no one, unless he trespasses on Worley's property, can get closer than about 30 yards. And I strongly doubt that trespassing ever takes place.

The entire messy situation can be summed up like this: The Worleys stubbornly refuse to accept their civic responsibilities. Because their 7 acres are zoned for farming and they live on an unincorporated section, they apparently feel that they can live any way they desire. They will not accept the fact that an entire block of homes has been built, to the east, virtually on their door step. They apparently still lull themselves to sleep (and how they can stand these dogs is something I'd like to explore) with the pipe dream that they are still operating a baronial manse far removed from the humbler dwellings of the less landed gentry.

If Worley wants to continue to live in rural splendor, obviously he should shake his present location, and lose himself somewhere in the woods, where his dogs can do their serenading in completely isolated surroundings. What Worley won't acknowledge is that civilization has come to his door step—and won't leave.

At the moment, Worley's dogs are in a more or less quiescent period, and we have enjoyed comparative peace and quiet. Perhaps your page 1 story had some effect. Since February 27, we have been awakened only once after midnight, although the dogs are still quite noisy, on occasion, during the day time and evening hours. This pre-midnight noise is bad enough, but after that it's just plain hell.

With warmer weather coming on, we anticipate the same old trouble. But, maybe, your story will have some lasting effect. This is a very nice section of Mt. Prospect, and all that one could desire for peace and quiet. When Worley and his canine entourage come of age, then we'll have ALL the peace and quiet we deserve in return for the money we invested in our homes.

Hard-Up for Autos?

The village of Arlington Heights must be awfully hard up for other people's cars, proposing an ordinance where if somebody over-parks they will tow the car. The people must pay storage instead of just a ticket and if they hold it more than 30 days they will auction it. If 90 days, it belongs to the village.

Some deal, some way to handle the personal property of a citizen of the United States, a free country.

Money Isn't Everything

I'm one of those persons who can "yak" about everything that's wrong, but won't even take the time to sit down and write when something especially is troubling. So, decided to do just that. I read the article about teachers' salaries and still think this is not the only thing making teachers "unhappy." Why don't we try to look at things in the true light? Seems we're constantly blaming something or someone for the mistakes in life and never once look at ourselves. We expect the teachers to "bring up" Johnny and yet when she calls for a conference and finds some fault with Johnny, we immediately defend our children rather than try to work it out. Sure, it's natural to want our children to be perfect, but let's not be blind and let's cooperate to the fullest extent with the schools, teachers, churches, etc.

As you probably have guessed, I have no children. However, isn't a nun a very fine teacher? Aren't there some "old maids" and "bachelors" who are fine teachers? Perhaps not having children permits us to look at the situation from a different angle. But I do feel we are all responsible for how this world goes along, and we should all try to pitch in and make it as happy a place as possible for the greatest number and not just a few "chosen" folk.

Why don't the parents sit down with Johnny and go over the problem and then go to the teacher to find a way of working together? So often the parents have more degrees than the teachers and Johnny feels "his dad was a Harvard man, so the teacher doesn't know too much." Remember, that teacher probably could earn more money in another field but chose teaching and you should be very grateful. I'm sure the parent may know his business very well and is extremely successful, but could he teach a group of children? Doesn't that require, besides the degree, a personal feeling for the human race? Don't we sometimes put too much stress on the "degree" and forget to be human?

Right again! I'm not a college grad, but I do have some common sense which I try to use once in awhile which is more than some folks can say.

Let's take a look into ourselves rather than always trying to find fault with the teaching system, the teachers, the schools, the church, etc. Give each your cooperation in a sincere way and I for one feel this world would be a much better place to raise your children and your children would have a less trying time growing up. Honestly, don't you sometimes feel sorry for them? All they really want is to be told what they are supposed to do. Inhibit them? Please! Let's be sensible! Discipline and good manners must never go out of style or we're really lost! Even the "big boss" must bow-down to someone at some time or other. Give the kids a fair break; let the schools stress discipline and good manners and your homelife will be a great deal simpler. I agree that some teachers rate more pay than others but isn't that true in any office, factory, etc.? I still think experience should be worth extra pay but I also feel there may be some teachers who are getting more than they really earn—but isn't that also true all over? There really are very few children who have to have special disciplining but they get followers and that's where "cracking down a bit" might help. Seems letting them do just what they want hasn't worked out, so let's go back to more strict measures.

Is It All the Schools Fault?

You may tell "Irate Parent" (Fence Post, March 13) that one set of parents joins him in part of his irritation. Actually, we are more perplexed than irritated. We have not yet clarified our thinking as to whether or not the schools are justified in assuming what seems to us to be parental privilges and responsibilities.

Schools appreciate the fact that intellectual learning alone will not develop adults who can lead happy and productive lives. All areas of life are inter-related. A child with a toothache will have difficulty concentrating on his arithmetic. A child who is confused or worried about the "facts of life" will not be able to devote his full energies and interest to the current history lesson. Have we, the parents, provided the schools with evidence that we cannot or will not do our jobs sufficiently well to leave them free to proceed with the 3 R's exclusively?

Our PTA just voted with enthusiasm to request the board of education to initiate a program of sex education in our school at PTA expense. This was not the suggestion of the school administration or of the teachers. We, the parents, are asking the school to do this for us at our expense. Is it possible that we feel so insecure in our ability to teach and to care for our own children that we are more comfortable paying someone else to do it for us or to check on us periodically to be sure we are doing the right thing?

We join "Irate Parent" in feeling the present arrangement of the schools assuming more and more responsibility for our children is somehow wrong, but we cannot join him in laying the blame solely on the schools.

Perplexed Parents

'Main Street' Isn't Dead

Will "Main Street" die? I think not. It is deep in the roots of this great country of ours. It's a legion of little businessmen selling their wares and serving their community. It is reminiscent of the country store that saw these United States through good times and bad. Now it's suffering from growing pains but it can't die and we won't let it. If it would, a large part of our way of living would die with it. Big business needs it and the small business needs big business. They work together.

I do have a special reason for writing this. We own a business in Arlington Heights and are we having growing pains? Wow!!

We are a comparatively new business but I know I speak for most of the Arlington business when I say we'll lick the tremendous odds set against us and we'll continue giving you the special services and friendliness that we have in the past, only better.

Please bear with us. We'll do our utmost to make you proud of your "Main Street."

Spanish-Americans Present Dilemma for Schools

(This is the sixth in a series of articles, "Shame of the Suburbs," discussing the plight of Spanish-speaking citizens living in the northwest suburban area. This is the second of three special articles dealing with these children and the schools.)

by TOM BRENNAN and CHARLES HAYES

More than 200 Spanish-speaking children now attend school in northwest suburbs.

To the school situation, many of them bring unique handicaps in health, home, and heritage. They are the children of Spanish-speaking American citizens who are attempting to change their way of life from that of a migratory farm laborer to that of a permanent resident in the suburban community.

Of all the problems faced by these pupils, the greatest are those in language and background.

SIXTY PER CENT OF THESE CHILDREN enter the first grade without any knowledge of English. There is the tremendous cultural gap between the experience of the average suburban child and the Spanish-American children. Some have had no previous schooling; others may have attended school only sporadically.

This background presents a dilemma in grade placement for school officials. In what grade to place a child with language barriers, inadequate school records, and a myriad of other special handicaps?

All school officials are quick, however, to point out that these youngsters are NOT slow learners or "retarded."

EXPLAINED ONE suburban school official: "These children are mistakenly thought of as "slow" because their bewilderment with a strange language and lack of background have left them confused and frustrated. Some of our so-called bright pupils, if faced with similar handicaps, would also be called slow."

The level of intelligence and capacity for learning is the same for Spanish-American children as for other youngsters. "In fact," laughed one teacher, "I think my Spanish-American pupils are somewhat above average!"

In every case where the child has been able to overcome the handicaps of language and background, he has succeeded in school.

ONLY ONE SCHOOL DISTRICT in northwest suburbs grades its Spanish-American pupils according to achievement. The others have abandoned the practice in favor of placing the child with his own age group.

Elk Grove school district 59 has the largest Spanish-American enrollment in the area. More than 96 pupils attend Higgins rd. school which has a special first grade class for Spanish-speaking youngsters. An additional 8 attend Rupley school.

"We attempt to develop the child according to his own capabilities," explained Supt. Ernest Cavallo. "The children are integrated into regular classes by the third grade. Once they catch on to the language, they really go and by junior high school have achieved ease in English and become a part of the group."

IN ELK GROVE, as in most suburban schools, the Spanish-American children are a year to 2 years behind their proper age-grade level in achievement.

Elk Grove is the only school district, however, which has older children in lower grades. At Higgins rd. school, for example, the ages of Spanish-speaking first graders range from 6 years 4 months to 11 years 7 months. There are youngsters as old as 9 years in second grade, 13 years in third grade, 12 years in fourth grade, and 15 years 6 months in fifth grade.

Cavallo said his schools are considering a change in policy for next year.

"THESE CHILDREN SHOULD BE placed with their own age group," stated Pat Castor, assistant superintendent of Palatine schools, speaking in behalf of his own system. There are 40 Spanish-Americans enrolled at Pleasant Hill, Paddock, and Oak-Wood schools. "Whatever their deficiences, they can best be helped when they feel they belong to a group. Children learn from children. Many things lacking in a Spanish-American child's background can be supplied by children his own age."

He said the grade placement problem was caused by the language barrier and a record of interrupted schooling.

"The teacher can't be concerned with just the child's level in skills," he explained. "Of equal importance is a sense of personal security in a peer group, the feeling of belonging, the kind of acceptance that a child gets only from his own age group. These children have a contribution to make, but they make it only at an age level in which they feel at home.

"An 11-year-old is just not happy in first grade. Placing an older child in this grade creates so many frustrations that he learns nothing at all."

CASTOR SAID PALATINE SCHOOLS seek to find a grade level that is somewhere "in between" accomplishment and chronology, one that is "fair" to the child.

He added that a key to the problem is the teacher's attitude toward the child. It must be one of intelligent understanding, sympathy, and helpfulness. "Most important of all is the realization that these children are basically the same as other children."

Other suburban school districts facing the grade placement dilemma have essentially the same policy.

At Forest View school near Arlington Heights, where nearly 28 per cent of the student body is Spanish-American, the principal said children are placed in grades according to scholastic achievement — unless they are too old. Then they are placed in a grade nearer to their age level and given special instruction. Forest View has small-size classes, thus enabling the teacher to provide children with the necessary individual attention.

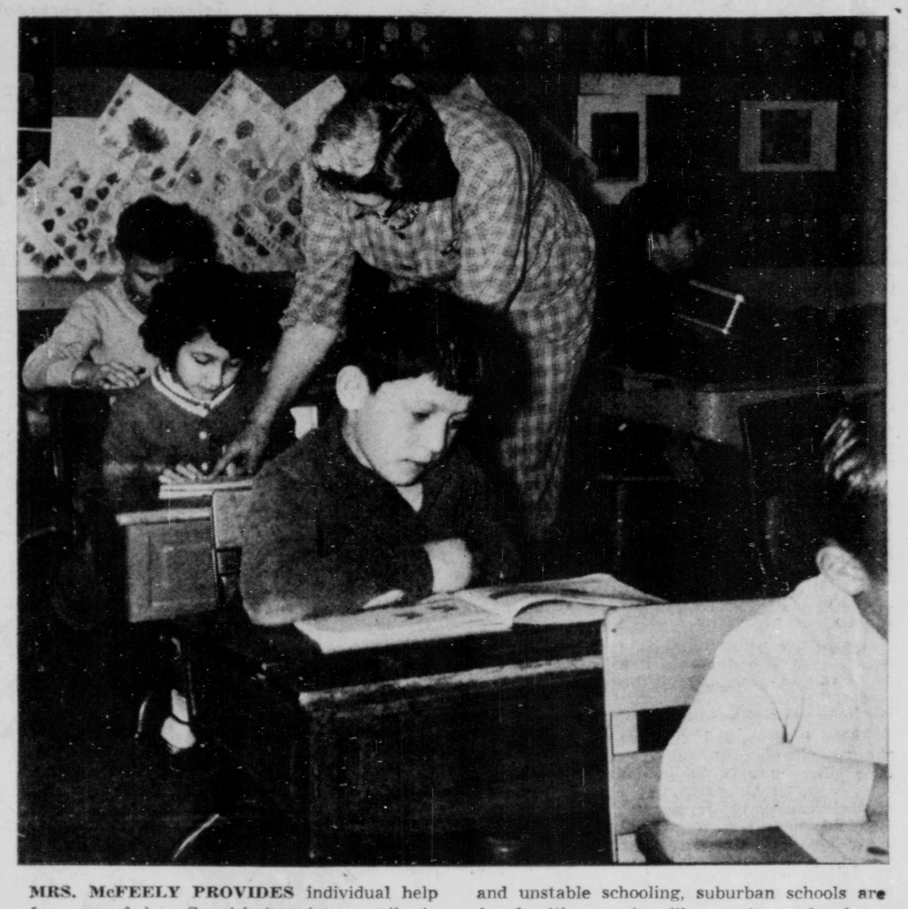
THE PRINCIPAL OF FEEHANVILLE SCHOOL north of Des Plaines said they have 12 Spanish-American pupils, all of whom are immediately integrated into their proper age-grade level.

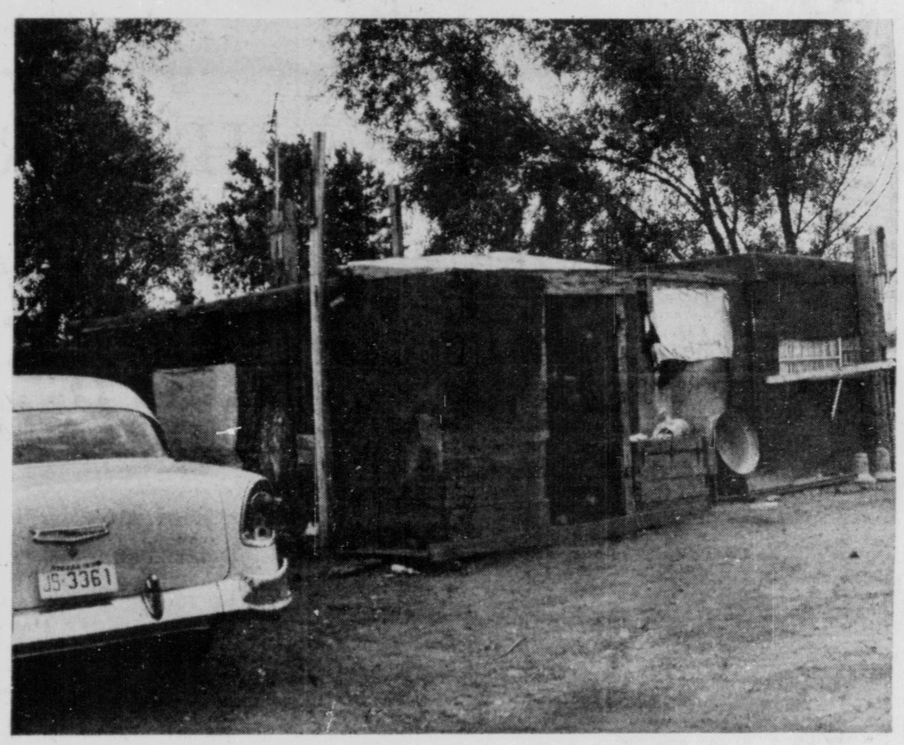
Wheeling schools have a Spanish-American enrollment of 30, with youngsters grouped as nearly as possible with their own age level. Some of these pupils rate on an achievement scale with the mentally-handicapped and might otherwise qualify for state EMH funds. "But they are not retarded and thus ineligible," explains Supt. Jack Norris. "Their low scores are due to language and cultural handicaps, not mentality."

SUBURBAN SCHOOLS are faced with a number of special problems in attempting to meet the individual needs of Spanish-speaking children. Major handicaps which the youngsters bring to the school situation are barriers in language and culture. Pictured is Mrs. Catherine McFeely explaining numbers to her first grade class of Spanish-American children at Elk Grove's Higgins rd. school.



MRS. McFEELY PROVIDES individual help for one of her Spanish-American pupils in Elk Grove's special class. Because of their language handicap and a record of sporadic and unstable schooling, suburban schools are faced with a major dilemma in grade placement. Most schools group the youngsters according to their age level.

IN ADDITION TO HANDICAPS in language and schooling, many Spanish-American youngsters face unique problems in background and environment. Children from sub-standard housing bring special handicaps to the school situation, handicaps which school officials are hard-pressed to solve. The "Children at Play" sign poignantly tells the plight of youngsters in this "Mexican" settlement on Mount Prospect rd.



ALTHOUGH THIS PHOTO was taken during summertime, this shack on a Touhy ave. farm in Elk Grove township is inhabited year-around by a Spanish-American family. Their children attend school. The schools are vitally concerned with the problems in environment which many Spanish-American children face.

NOT ALL SPANISH-AMERICAN children live in "rural slums." Many are fortunate enough to be free of the handicaps in environment which plague other youngsters of this minority group. Straightening her daughter's bow before sending the children off to St. James school, Arlington Heights, is Mrs. Lazaro Santos, 704 Kensington rd. Children are Nonee, 7, and Irma, 11.

LIKE MOST YOUNGSTERS, these children enjoy television. Shown in their living room are the 2 school-age children of Mr. and Mrs. Delfino Mercado, Franklin rd., Palatine. Mercado is one of the few Spanish-Americans who has been able to purchase his own home. Their youngster's school records reflect their higher standard of living.

BOOSTERS CLUB BANQUET was a success Thursday night of last week at Arlington high school with 425 persons present to watch the award of letters and numerals, plus recognition of freshmen squads. The group saw demonstrations by gymnastics and wrestlers in the gym after the meal. Complete list of letter and numeral winners will be published in next week's editions of the Heralds of Paddock Publications.

Bob Barbour and John Anderson were announced as winners of the Boosters Club scholar-athlete trophies for their scholastic records competing in football and cross-country respectively.

The awards for fall sports are made after the end of the 1st semester grades are known with the trophy going to the athlete with the highest average. Every winner must have at least a 4.00 average. Barbour stood 4.75 in football, adding his trophy to the one he previously won in a triple tie as a member of the track team last spring. Anderson hit 4.00, taking the cross country award for the 2nd straight year.

Basketball, wrestling and gymnastics scholar-athlete trophies cannot be announced until after the end of the 2nd semester when grades for both semesters are known. Scholar-athlete trophies for the spring sports are also given at the end of the 2nd semester.

ARLINGTON VFW also recognizes accomplishments of the athletes at Arlington high school giving trophies for most valuable player in football, best free throw percentage in basketball, and most pins in wrestling. Bruce Bjorklund won the free throw trophy with an .806 mark. Finishing behind him were Bob Lockwood .726 and Alan Hutchinson .713.

Ralph Carlino won the pin trophy with 9 pins, gained during the season in a close battle with George Stein, who had 6 at 127 pounds, and Bob Trausch, who had 6 at 95.

Ralph spurted ahead of his 2 teammates as he copped the state title at 112, winning the trophy the 1st year of its existence. Wrestling coach Dick Mudge called the trophy an inspiration to the members of the squad to work just a little bit harder, and helped spur 5 under classmen to winning letters. Award of both of these trophies will be made at a school assembly in the very near future.

Wrestlers selected John Torrens (154) and Paul Clark (145) to be next year's captains. John and Paul were both responsible and cooperative during the season and should be good leaders next year.

OAK PARK RELAYS will have no record holders competing, but one 1957 champion, Bill Keel of Hinsdale in the pole vault, will not only be trying for a repeat on the championship, but his 12' 9" leap in the West Suburbs meet 3 weeks ago indicate he will have a good chance to beat the 12' 11¾" mark set by Dean McKown of LaGrange in 1951. Keel also tied for first in last year's state meet.

Three other boys who won championships last May in the 1957 outdoor Illinois State meet will be also competing. Leroy Jackson, of Bloom, 10.0 winner of the 100 yard dash will be running in the Relays' 50 yard dash.

James Davis, of Rockford West, who won the 120 yard high hurdles last spring in 14.7, will run in the Relays' 60 yard high hurdles. Frank Ballinger, of Mooseheart, who won the 1957 state mile championship in 4:27.2 will be challenging the Relays' mile record of 4:28.6 set by Jim Bowers of DeKalb in 1956.

Both the High and Low Hurdle records are apt to be rewritten in this year's meet. Jim Ashmore, of Evanston, established a new fieldhouse record in the 60 yard high hurdles at 7.3" 2 weeks ago in the Suburban league indoor meet, which is better than the Relays record of 7.4" set by John Smith of Maine in 1941.

Don Patten of Oak Park has run the 60 yard low hurdles in 7.0" twice during the season which is the Relays' record established in 1941 by John Smith of Maine, tied in 1952 by Abe Woodson of Austin, and tied last year by Bob Winford of Dunbar.

COOK COUNTY FINALS of American Legion baseball will be held August 2, 3, 4 and 5 at Recreation Park, according to Walt Wessman, director of the program for the entire Cook county . . . Merle Guild Post of Arlington Heights will play host in a double elimination tournament for the top 4 teams of the 8 districts with the winner going to the downstate meet at Galesburg August 8, 9, 10 and 11 to meet the top teams from the rest of the state . . . Leading team of each of the 8 districts will open an elimination tournament with best 2 games out of 3 determining which 4 of the 8 teams compete in the finals at Arlington.

Larry Willie of owners Grove, top scorer and record breaking junior guard at Northern Illinois, has been named to the Interstate conference all league basketball squad.

Northwestern university baseball team opened a spring training trip of 6 games at New Orleans Monday with 10 lettermen back from last year's Big 10 championship squad . . . On the baseball squad at Illinois is junior William Barr of Downers, a 165-pound left fielder . . . Junior Bobby Kraus of Grant is a returning letterman at shortstop, is rated the fastest man on the team, stealing 10 bases last year . . . Bob fields and throws well, has a keen batting eye which belted Big 10 pitching for a .394 average as a sophomore . . . He is expected to be key man in what could be the best defensive infied in the conference.

Barr has a good baseball background, fields and throws well, but must prove he can hit Big 10 pitching to earn the left regular assignment . . . He won letters in basketball, football and baseball at Downers.

Sophomore Dick Carroll of Glenbard recently pole vaulted 12 feet . . . Sycamore won the recent frosh-soph basketball tournament at Belvedere with West Rockford placing 2nd, Glenbard 3rd and DeKalb 4th . . . The Bradley high school basketball team that lost in the super sectional had been playing together 6 years, with a 17-2 mark in 7th grade, 16-3 in 8th, 9-1 as freshmen, 21-2 as sophomores, 18-7 as Juniors and 26-7 as seniors . . . Tom Cole, Springfield's 6-6½ junior center, has had 9 schools approach him so far for college, but has another year of eligibility left . . . York's soph cagers finished 2nd to West Aurora in the Wheaton tournament.

GYMNASTICS COACHES Gay Hughes and Rick Farris of Arlington will be attending the Big 10 meet at Iowa this weekend, with Gay 1 of the judges . . . Faculty-intramural all-star basketball game is scheduled for Thursday night of this week in the Arlington gym, starting at 7:00 . . . Once again Old Orchard golf course is offering free use of its facilities to the Arlington high school golf team for both practices and matches . . . Lou Sabo is the new pro . . . When Heights frosh trackmen came within 12 points of knocking off Oak Park yearlings in a dual Monday the winning coach asserted it was the closest call his boys had had in 8 meets . . . High school coaches football clinic is scheduled for this weekend at Illinois . . . Maine's greatest basketball squad in history was saluted at the athletic banquet Wednesday night of this week.

They're getting excited about a coming basketball team up Libertyville way where Highland grade school team copped 32 games in 2 years without losing a contest . . . Wildcat coaches are looking forward to next fall when these boys are freshmen.

One expert thinks the Big 10 basketball race will be still more of a rat race next year because "Purdue doesn't lose a man, Iowa will have 3 of 5 starters back, Michigan State will be virtually intact, plus best frosh crop in history, Illinois will have size, Minnesota loses only 1 man and Northwestern will have its same team back . . . Globetrotters will be meeting the college all-stars at the Stadium Thursday, April 3 . . . And if you like Judo, the national championships are slated for University of Chicago fieldhouse April 12-13.

7 Lettermen Report For Heights Baseball

Seven lettermen had a list of 31 hopefuls trying out for the varsity baseball team at Arlington high school under the eyes of Coach Kinnemann. The boys have been getting hitting practice out on the football practice field this week and are hoping for better weather for more concentrated practices in preparation for the initial game at Niles April 3.

The lettermen back for more include the short stop Denny Thill, second baseman Alan Hutchinson, second baseman Lee Magnuson, outfielder Ed Schumacher, outfielder Ralph Wille, Pitcher John Oberg and pitcher Dave Soenksen.

SUCCESS of the team will once again depend on pitching. Coach Kinnemann has been testing every player possible who appears to have a throwing arm. Top 4 twirlers at the moment include Oberg, Soenksen, Thill and George Bork.

Interestingly enough, the only pitcher credited with victories last season was Bob Miller, who was graduated last June. Coach Kinnemann is planning a couple of intra-squad games hoping to thin out the ranks so he can determine just who will be in the starting line up for that opening game.

Coach Ormsbee is trying out 6 boys as pitchers for his team, though they have been restricted in their throwing to date. Main accent of outdoor workouts the early part of this week was bunting and some hitting.

Large turnout of freshmen candidates was reported Wednesday of last week when yearling coaches Frank Bohac and Bob Hoese directed the meeting and showed films on baseball. They do not plan any practices until after Easter vacation. (Sp

Little League Tryouts At Arlington April 5, 12

Tryouts for Arlington Heights Little League major league teams will be held at 10 a.m. April 5 and 12. Boys 10, 11 and 12 years of age who have not previously been assigned to a major league team and who live north of the railroad tracks will try out at Recreation Park. Those living south of the tracks will report to the Junior high school field.

Andrew Graczyk will be in charge of the tryouts at the junior high and Paul Wollerman will be in charge at Recreation Park. Fathers and friends of Little League boys who would like to help with the tryouts are urged to report to either Mr. Graczyk or Mr. Wollerman at 9:45 a.m. on either date.

MOTHER'S CLUB representatives will be on hand to assign the boys' numbers. Each boy should bring his own glove and report first to the Mothers club representative.

Eight and 9-year boys will not be eligible this year for major league teams. They will be assigned to a junior league team and will be notified by the team manager when to report for practice.

Babe Ruth tryouts will be held April 19 and April 26, the time and place to be announced later. (Sp

Palatine Fifth At Naperville

Palatine placed 5th in the Naperville Invitational Indoor Relays last Friday night in spite of limited training and the fact that 2 relay teams were disqualified.

Heading the point scoring for the Pirates were Jordan Danforth who took first in the broad jump with a leap of 21'3", and Dan Kusek who took second in the mile run in which the winner broke the record with a mark of 4:37.9.

PALATINE'S class "B" medley relay team of Evert Larson, Eugene Crandall, Jordan Danforth, and Richard Brokorb, took second place in their event. Kenneth Gordon took fifth in the 60 yard high hurdles.

Frosh Runners Lose at Oak Park

Arlington's freshman track team came within 12 points of topping Oak Park Monday of this week, after knocking off both Maine and Evanston in previous duals during the indoor season. This time it was Oak Park 55.8, Arlington 44.2

Mike Field won the 880 for the Card yearlings in 2:16.8. Dick Wolden copped the mile in 5:12. George Allen and Jeff Fahrner tied in the pole vault for the locals at 9'. Jim Clabaugh placed first in the high jump at 5'2", while Darryl Phillips took the shot with a heave of 37'1".

TAKING SECONDS for Prospect high school were Keith Voigt, tie in the 50; Frank Hermes 440, Dutch Leonard low hurdles, Bob Kist mile, and Voigt broad jump.

Placing thiird were Field high hurdles, Keith Grams tie in high jump and Stan Loerzel shot. (Sp

Cardinal Trackmen to Run Oak Park Relays Saturday

Arlington's varsity thinclads will compete in the "statemeet" of the indoor season this Saturday, March 29, when once again the top teams and individuals of the state will run in the 3-class Oak Park Relays.

Field events will begin at 1:00, others at 1:30 for the preliminaries. Pole vault and high jump will start at 7:15 with other finals starting at 7:30 in the evening. Entire meet should be finished about 10.

THE CARDINALS have been improving as the indoor season has progressed, with the new fieldhouse at Prospect high school a big help. Locals have 1 more indoor, a varsity dual at Evanston April 3, remaining on the docket after the Oak Park Relays.

Arlington placed fourth in the Evanston relays last weekend, and will be hoping to take at least as many points at Oak Park, though opposition will be still tougher. Entries for Oak Park meet:

RICH BADER and Chuck Yager will run the 50 for Heights It wil lbe Bob O'Neil and Alan Westergaard in the low hurdles with O'Neil and Ed Whitelaw in the highs. Bob Lockwood and Keith Voigt have been named in the broad jump.

The shot put will have Jack Weber and Dan Striegel representing the Cardinals, with Ed Wilson competing in the pole vault, and Lockwood and Whitelaw in the high jump. Arlington will enter no milers because local times are not fast enough.

THE RELAYS are many at Oak Park, with Heights entering several of them. Running in the 4-lap relay will be Bader, Yager, Lockwood and Bob Mors, with Ken Kurtz, Ron Marks, Bud Terbell and Bob Taggart competing in the 16-lap event.

Sprint medley will feature Tony Stavros, Mike Dundy, Westergaard and Bob Barbour for the Cardinal and White. Running the freshman 4-lap relay will be Voigt, Dutch Leonard, Keith Grams and Dennis Dryjanski.

Rougher Schedule For Card Netmen

Stronger team but a stronger schedule, too, that's the tennis outlook at Arlington high school where varsity coach Ken Schaller is putting 27 boys through their paces with initial workouts in preparation for the approaching season. The boys were outside Monday of this week for the first time, and will practice on the all weather courts as often as they can, weather permitting.

Coach Schaller has added New Trier, Evanston, Highland Park and Proviso to the usual schedule for Arlington, which always has included Niles and Waukegan of the suburban league. First meet is scheduled for New Trier on the Arlington courts April 8.

FOUR LETTERMEN are back for the Cardinals. They are seniors Thurston Brown and Tom Longwell, and juniors Jim Ericson and Keith Butterfield. Ericson, Butterfield and Brown appear to have the edge in the singles at the moment.

Four boys who have the edge for the doubles at the moment include Longwell, senior Jim Graves, senior Jack Baker and junior Tom Von Boeckmann.

Three sophomores attempting to stay with the varsity include Bruce Law, Bob Inman and Warren Myers. Just which sophomores will remain with Coach Schaller's squad remains to be seen, though these 3 have the edge at the moment. The team has gained an early advantage this season through workouts in the girls PE room, which may pay off with victories later in the season.

COACHING the frosh-soph team this year is Rick Farris. He is working out daily with 30 freshmen at the new Prospect high school, though here again workouts have had to be held inside.

There are no tennis courts at Prospect high this year so just where the boys will work out after Easter is unknown. (Sp

Paddock Classic to Up Teams to 940 Next Year

Initial plans for the second season of competition for the Paddock Classic Traveling league were made over the weekend at a meeting of league officers and the league committe. The loop will retain the present officers and number of teams into next season, will gear teams to 915-940 averages, and will increase the prize fund from around $1600 to $2700 for next season.

Beverly Lanes entry in the Paddock Classic league currently holds a 933 average. The league was established with 875 to 910 averages last summer, with the new quota this time set at 915 to 940. No bowler with less than a 174 average at the start of the season will compete.

ENTRY FEES for each team in the league have been increased from $100 to $200 for next season, with weekly cost of bowling and prize fund to each of the keglers increased from $2.50 to $3.00. This will mean a prize fund of around $2,700 for next year.

The same format for the league will be followed next year as the one used this past season, with a home and home schedule and the 6 position rounds during the season. The number 6 team of last fall will receive number 1 at this time, with all others dropping back 1 number for purposes of scheduling.

DETAILS OF THE league sweeper at Gunnell's Lanes the final night of the season were also ironed out. Teams will cross alleys that night with individual prizes in the sweeper totaling $15 for 1st, $11 for 2nd and $8.50 for 3rd. High individual series awards of $15 and $10 will be given to the top 2 men for each pair of teams competing. There will be team prizes, too, though the exact amount of these is not known as of this date.

Officers of the league include Al Walter, president; Ward Siewert, vice-president; John Ribando, secretary and Tom Kouros, treasurer. League committee includes Harry Clinton of Des Plaines, Joe Cordulack of Beverly and Leroy Papineau of Barrington. (Sp

45 Report for Golf At Arlington High

Any doubt that "spring has riz" can be quickly dispelled by one look at the golfers of Arlington high school as the 45 hopefuls go through their swings, the varsity outside the gym and the freshmen anywhere the mud has dried a bit.

Varsity mentor Ed Spacapan has 20 boys working out with him, and is planning to hold qualifying rounds of 36 holes at Old Orchard next week to cut this to about 10, depending upon scores.

THE CARDS will eventually carry 8-10 boys on the varsity, against Palatine April 11, with the survivors of the qualifying rounds competing against each other to see just who will golf against the Pirates.

This system of self-survival will be followed during the early part of the season until the squad jells. Five letterman have reported, included Ed Moehling, Dave Ebert, Al Kruse, Bob Sbarbaro and Jim Goodling.

FROSH-SOPHS, coached by Ozzie Aldrich, is following substantially the same pattern with qualifying rounds slated for April 4-5. Coach Aldrich plans to carry 10-12 boys eventually. Twenty-five freshmen are currently working out. (Sp

To 5th in Evanston Relays

Arlington's varsity track team placed fifth in the tough Evanston Relays Saturday, taking just 1 first, the frosh-soph mile relay in 3:46.3. Running on that team were Mike Dundy, Carl Graf, Tony Stavros and Dennis Dryjanski.

Winning the meet as expected Bloom copped 73 points, followed by Evanston 61, Maine 46.5 and New Trier 30. Arlington tallied 26.5. Other schools and their points: Proviso 23, Lane 5, Waukegan 3.5, Glenbrook 3. Other schools not scoring included Morton, Schurz and Highland Park.

FROSH relay team for Heights finished third to Evanston and Bloom in 1:21.4, just a half second off the winning pace. Competing for Heights in this event were Keith Voigt, Dutch Leonard, Keith Grams and Dennis Dryjanski.

Other Arlington points were gained by a fifth in the varsity 4-lap relay, a fourth by Jack Weber in the shot, a third by Bob Lockwood in the broad jump, and a tie for second by Lockwood in the high jump.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

IT FINALLY HAPPENED. A Chicago team won the state basketball championship. However, it had to wait until an all colored team could turn the trick. The reason is that Chicago has always had 3 strikes against it when it comes to state tournament success. Chicago teams play in the afternoon with only students watching the games and over the city the facilities have not been too good. Chicago schools do not have a complete program in sports such as downstate and the suburbs. Coaches are not provided for the frosh, frosh-soph, JV, and varsity groups as is done outside.

Coaches are also under no pressure and the helter skelter unorganized brand of ball played in the past in many of the schools just could not rate with that outside the city.

As long as most of the schools did not concentrate on scientific ball, and they played within the city, no one cared. Chicago elementary schools do not have a basketball program or facilities for one. It takes a long period of practice and training to develop a skilled basketball player and Chicago high schools, too many times, were starting with the good boys as sophomores and juniors. Then came the great colored migration to Chicago and the situation changed.

ANOTHER REASON for lack of success in the state tournament series has been the fact that so few of the good Chicago teams played downstate during the season against the strong competition they would meet in the state tournament. Downstate schools have intense community interest and backing in their sports programs. This gives the boys tremendous incentive to excel. This has been greatly lacking in Chicago. Marshall got to the state semi-finals and so did South Shore some years ago but until DuSable's colored boys made the final 4 years ago Chicago never really had a contender.

Marshall's state champs are not as good as the DuSable team of 1955 but the state tournament this year was not as strong either.

The coming of the colored boys has meant top notch basketball teams everywhere they have had good coaching. For 2 years in a row, prior to this season, both finalists in Indiana were all colored. Chicago's top 4 teams the past 3 seasons have been colored. The All-American basketball team on the college level this year is all colored. Why is this the case? There are several reasons.

First, the colored boy finds in sports his one best chance to get recognition. He does not have a lot of other interests or the finances to support them if had them.

Second, it does not take as long to make a colored boy into a polished basketball player as a white boy because of natural coordination, relaxed movements, and unusual spring in the legs for jumping. Along with this many colored boys have long arms, big hands, natural speed and quick reactions.

Third, many of the colored boys on the good teams are much more mature than their white opponents because of being retarded in school through poor schools and poor attendance in the lower grades, which makes them older as seniors, and because, as a race, they mature earlier than the whites.

A good example is Marshall's 6' 6" all state center who is only a 15 year old sophomore but far ahead of a white 15 year old in physical development. Fourth, the incentive of a college education if he can become a high school star is very evident when he reads of those All-American colored players Bob Boozer of Kansas State, Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas, Guy Rodgers of Temple, Elgin Baylor of Seattle, and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati.

OF COURSE the real pioneer who proved how good colored cagers could become was Abe Saperstein and his famed Harlem Globe Trotters. Twenty-five years ago they were touring the hinterlands on one night stands, proving how much fun and skill there is in this great game and giving the colored athlete the chance to show his ability.

Now the colored athlete is accepted everywhere in high school, college, and professional circles and in the last 5 years has come almost to dominate the sports scene in basketball.

All this has come along fast since the tremendous movement of colored population to the northern cities. At the present pace Chicago will soon have the largest negro population of any city in the world and with it will win more state basketball championships, since Marshall has shown that it can be done.

FENTON'S WRESTLING coach Gene Hoffman, was recently in receipt of a letter from Charles Farina and Martin Schwartz of Leyden commenting on the outstanding sportsmanship of Fenton's heavyweight wrestler, Hugh Wilson, in the sectional tournament.

The point was made of the fact the Leyden heavyweight, Jerry Rosengren, had a bad ankle which had handicapped him the last part of the season and that other wrestlers had taken advantage of the injury.

Their letter stated that "Hugh refused to pick up that ankle or pressure it in any way, although it would have been within his legal right. We feel that this action has been the outstanding display of sportsmanship that we have seen this season."

BOB MATHIAS, 2 time Olympic decathlon champion says Russia is going to win the 1960 Olympic games and more world prestige unless America wakes up. Too much television, too many cars, and not enough grade school and high school competition are taking the edge off physical conditioning our youth.

He thinks that another trouble is our emphasis on football and basketball which detracts from boys going out for gymnastics, tumbling, wrestling, and track, the real body building and physical fitness sports. Mathias won the Olympic decathlon championship in 1948 as a 17 year old high school senior.

JOHN GOETZ of Palatine has been elected captain of the Western Illinois university golf team which will leave April 1 for a Texas training tour. The Leathernecks will meet Houston, the 1957 NCAA champion, and LaMar Tech, winner of the NAIA or small college title last year. They will also meet Baylor, East Texas State, and the University of Texas.

Western has won the Interstate Intercollegiate Conference golf championship the past 7 years in a row. Goetz is in his third year as a varsity regular while Richard "Tinker" Meyer, also of Palatine, is in his fourth year as a regular and the only senior on the 1958 team.

10 YEARS AGO: Fifty boys report for track at Palatine. Coach Dick Welty has 5 lettermen in Hank Spoo, Harold Stephan, Dick Steinbrinck, Harold Hestrup, and Marvin Newport . . . First meet is with Arlington April 1 . . . Bensenville's conference co-champs open baseball practice. Only 3 regulars wer missing by graduation, they being Borg, Vuglar and Weber. The Bisons will be strong contenders with the same battery of Thollander and Robertson which annexed last year's title plus the addition of Steffenson as a southpaw hurler who was out last year with a broken arm.

Coach Curtis Larsen at Arlington has as lettermen for his golf squad Tom Stockdale, Vernon Rascher, Ralph Becker, and Elwood Haake . . . Pinckneyville who got into the state tournament by beating Centralia 40-39 breezed to an easy state championship.

20 YEARS AGO: There was 100% attendance of parents at Palatine's athletic banquet with Burt Ingwerson of Northwestern as speaker . . . Steve Szasz and Micky Masney of Arlington are on the Michigan State football squad in spring practice workouts . . . 16 Arlington boys will compete in the Oak Park Relays including Heinze, Briggs, Mueller, Hoss, Milligan, Rohlwing, and Lacina.

Many Outstanding Boys To Run in Oak Park Meet

Just who will win what event at the Oak Park meet this Saturday is unknown, but here is a rundown of outstanding performances in the individual events.

60 Yard Low Hurdles

Don Patten, Oak Park, undefeated this indoor season, co-holder of Fieldhouse record, 7.0".

Jim Davis, Rockford West, third in 1957 state meet in high hurdles.

Jim Ashmore, Evanston, also ran 7.0" last week in Evanston relays.

Tom Jefferson, Proviso, and John Satterlee, Oak Park, both have run 7.2"

Any of these five could wih and tie record of 7.0"

60 Yard High Hurdles

Probably the event of the day — oldest record of the meet 7.4" by John Smith, Maine, 1941 is almost sure to go.

Jim Ashmore, Evanston, holds the Field house record at 7.3" set two weeks ago.

Jim Davis of Rockford West is the 1957 State Champion in the high hurdles.

Could cause trouble: Terry DeWitt, Galesburg, fourth in state finals last year; Tom Jefferson, Proviso; John Satterlee and Don Patten, Oak Park.

50 Yard Dash

Another close event — the record could be tied again.

Leroy Jackson, Bloom, was the 1957 state 100 yard dash champion.

Amos Bullock, Chicago Dunbar, took second in this event in the 1957 relays.

Frank Johnson, New Trier, an all-state halfback is very fast.

Mile Run

Frank Ballinger of Mooseheart was the 1957 State mile champion at 4:27.2, better than the Relays record set in 1956 by Jim Bowers of DeKalb 4:28.6.

Don Krebs, York, placed third in the relays 1957 mile.

Don Kusek, Palatine, placed fourth in the relays 1957 mile.

Phil Wooledge, Lyons Twp., placed fifth in the relays 1957 mile.

Dave Budz, Proviso, has been undefeated in mile competition during 1958 indoor season.

Lynn Griffin, Bloom, has run in the 4:30s several times this season.

High Jump

Cal Boyd, Oak Park, 1952, record of 6' 5½" is probably safe, but

Homer Thurman, Bloom, was second in this event in the 1957 relays and Jeff Gaines of Mattoon tied for third in 1957 relays. Both tied for third in 1957 state meet.

Broad Jimp

Jim Corbett, Oak Park, and Dan Killingsworth, Evanston, both have gone 21' 8" or better

Henry White and Larry Streeter, of Chicago Phillips, Charles Warren and Robert Steptoe, of Centralia, and Jim Caldwell, Moline, all have bettered 21' several times to date.

Shot Put

Bob Neuman, Maine, threw 57' ½".

Ron Barbizzi and Chuck Boling of Bloom have both been over 52' consistently Record of 56'½" by Dick Winterbauer, Arlington in 1954 is almost sure to go.

Pole Vault

Bill Keel, Hinsdale, 1957 relays and state champion has vaulted 12' 9" this season

Charles Douglas of New Trier was fifth in 1957 state meet and 1957 relays

John Sutherland and Jim Schultz, Oak Park, John Persiani and Isaac Jefferson, Bloom, and Vernon Hickman, Evanston, all have cleared 12' or better this season.

JUST DOGS

by DAVE TERRILL

International Week

As far as the Chicago area is concerned this is International Week. An entry of 2371 pure-bred dogs, representing 107 breeds, is listed for the 18th International Dog show in the International amphitheatre, Chicago, Saturday and Sunday, March 29 and 30.

Owners from 32 states and Canada will be represented in this event, which last year ranked as the largest dog show in the United States.

Great Danes lead among all the breeds in number of dogs entered for competition, with 137 listed for the first showing in Chicago of a specialty show sponsored by the Great Dane Club of America. Speaking of Great Danes, from just the Arlington Heights area alone there will be 7 or 8 of these large dogs entered by their owners.

The Poodles rank second with 130 and German Shepherds are in third place with 123 entries, plus 19 more entered for the obedience trials. Dachshunds are fourth with 81 entries, and Chihauhuas and Collies are tied for fifth with 71 each. Sixth are Irish Setters with 68 and Cocker Spaniels and Boxers are tied for seventh with 66 each.

The show will feature this year, as it has in the past, the indoor field trials for all breeds of Spaniels and Retrievers as well as Pointers and Setters. One of the new features will be the Whippet races in conjunction with a specialty show of this breed under the auspices of the American Whippet club. Top racing Whippets from California, Wisconsin, Michigan and Illinois are entered for these events.

The obedience trials have 84 dogs listed as entered with some of the top obedience dogs in the country to be shown.

The show will open at 9 a.m. and close at 10 p.m. on both days, with the best dog in show to be selected Sunday evening by Alva Rosenberg of New York City, one of the country's foremost all-breed judges.

Weekend Notes

There were a lot of friends of the Dee Musters from Bensenville who were standing around the ringside Sunday evening at the Hoosier Kennel club show in Indianapolis, with their fingers crossed. The reason was during the selection of the best dog in the sporting group which the Muster's dog, Ch. Gourmetis Sardar, or 'Fritz" as he is better known, came through to win with flying colors against some of the finest dogs to be shown in this group.

This particular weekend started Saturday, when the Associated Specialty Clubs of Indiana held their shows at the State Fair grounds in Indianapolis to be followed by the Hoosier Kennel club show Sunday.

There were people from this area with dogs entered on one or both days from Bloomingdale, Prospect Heights, Palatine, Northbrook, Arlington Heights, Bensenville and Mt. Prospect. At the obendience trials held on both days, the Northwest Obedience Club from Palatine, had 9 of the members showing dogs with some of this number not only in the obedience trials but also having entries in the various confirmation classes.

Club News

Of general interest is the fact that the Great Lakes Pug club will hold its first AKC plan "A" match at 7:30 p.m., Friday, March 28, on the premises of the National Van Lines offices located at 2800 W. Roosevelt rd., Broadview, Ill.

This will mark for the first time in a long while that this interesting little dog will be out in the limelight. The breed was very popular years ago and then it just seemed to sort of disappear from public fancy. As a matter of fact, your editor knows of only one in his area.

Now, however, the breed is coming up the line again with many people taking an interest in this dog. His pug face along with a bouncy disposition seems to have put him back in the running among the smaller breeds.

Barks and Bays

All this business about dog shows and the various breed that are entered brings to mind that the first new breed admitted to the American Kennel club in 10 years is the Phodesian Ridgeback, so named because of the ridge of hair growing in opposite direction along its spine.

LaGrange Wins Naperville Meet

York, Glenbard, and Wheaton each captured one first place, but LaGrange's Lions won in 5 of the 12 events to take the 23rd Naperville Relays Friday night at North Central college.

The Lions totaled 61½ points to dethrone last year's champion, York. The Dukes finished with 51½ points for second place as Glenbard took third with 33 points.

LAGRANGE WON the eight, 12, and 20 lap relays, and the class A medley relay. York finished second in each of these events. Glenbard was third in all but the 20 lap.

York's George Batek copped the 60 yard low hurdles in 7.5 seconds after losing to Glenbard's Mike Wright in the highs. Wright's winning time was 8.1.

In the 50 yard dash Wheaton's Al Tinsley turned in an exceptional 5.5 to beat York's Bill Temple in the final.

DICK CARROLL of Glenbard placed third in the pole vault as Batavia's Jim Benson and Hinsdale's Bill Keel went 12 feet for a first place tie.

In the high jump Jon Sekenski of York became entangled in a 4 way tie for second place at 5-8. Denny Nass of East Aurora won the event at 6-0, and East Aurora's Jim White, Oregon's Scott Benson, and Lyons' Gene Baker tied with Sekenski.

Mooseheart's Frank Ballinger, state champion miler last year, broke the old 11 lap mark by 2.6 seconds with a time of 4.37.9. Glenbard's Bob LaFleur was fourth, and York's Don Krebs, fifth.

JOHN DOSTALEK of Lyons won the shot put with a heave of 51-2. Sekenski took third here with Naperville's Jack Jelinek second.

Palatine's Jordan Danforth leaped 21-3 to capture the broad jump as Lyons' Dave Walker was second.

In the class B medley Oregon copped first. Palatine took second, Ottawa and Mooseheart turned in identical times for third, and Naperville was fifth.

Team scores: LaGrange 61½; York 51½; Glenbard 33; East Aurora 23; Palatine 18; Hinsdale 17½; Oregon 16; Naperville 11½; Mooseheart 10; Ottawa 9½; Wheaton 9; Batavia 6; Marmion 2; St. Procopius 1. (Sp

LaGrange Wins F-S Naperville Title

A record shattering performance in the pole vault gave LaGrange the frosh-soph title in the opening round of the Naperville Relays last week. The Lions totaled 62½ points in the annual chase at North Central college's track.

York finished a strong second with 54 points and was in contention until the pole vault finals. That's when Keith Johnstone of LaGrange soared 11 feet 3¾ inches for a new record.

THE OLD MARK was 11 feet, 1/8 inch, set by Dave Mann of Hinsdale in 1955.

Although they didn't get a first place all night, Glenbard's sophs came in third in the team standings with 34 points. Wheaton high was seventh with 8.

LaGrange took the championship on the strength of 6 firsts, 1 second, 2 thirds, 3 fourths, and 2 fifths. York had 4 firsts and 4 seconds. (Sp

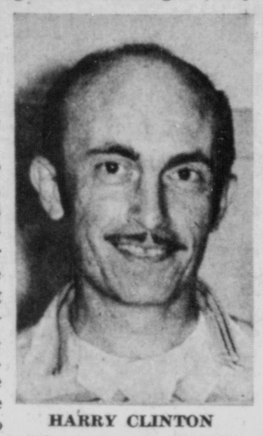
Victor Electric Takes 4-Game Lead in Paddock Classic Loop

Victor Electric moved into a 4-game lead in the Paddock Classic Traveling league Saturday night by disposing of Jeffery of Wheeling in 2 games, while Beverly of Arlington dropped 2 to Des Plaines. Al Walter led the way for Victor hitting 258 his middle game, helping his team to a 989 victory and garnering a 609 series. Jeffery won the first contest with a 945, helped by Al Dicenzo's 236. The 2 wins gave Victor a 25-14 record, 4 full games ahead of Beverly and Hi-Way tied for second with 21-18.



HARRY CLINTON

Beverly hit an even thousand to take the third game from Des Plaines, but lost the first one 985-971 and dropped the second as well. Ken Norman hit 255 the middle encounter for Des Plaines and totaled 654 for the night with Tony Sasso just missing the magic figure with 599. Joe Cordulack was high for Beverly with 634. Harry Clinton hit 550 for Des Plaines.

Hi-Way of Palatine dropped the first game at Barrington but came back strong with 1002 and 972 to cop the other 2 and move into a second place tie with Beverly. Irwin Hahnfeldt led the parade for Hi-Way with a 670 series. Leroy Papineau was tops for Barrington with 632.

This Saturday night, March 29, Hi-Way will travel to Beverly in Arlington, Des Plaines will compete at Gunnell's against Victor Electric, and Jeffery of Wheeling will compete at Barrington.

Dinner Dance Opens Spring Season for Scarsdale

ROLLING GREEN COUNTRY CLUB was the setting for the Scarsdale Home Owners' association's annual dinner dance, held this year on March 15. Scarsdale, part of Arlington Heights, is located east of State rd. Residents of the area and their guests made up the large gathering. Here, Dorothy Fortin, Fred Jorden, Jinny Sutton, Ed Fortin and Bea Blaisdell dine before joining other neighbors in dancing.

"BEST DANCE EVER" commented this group of Scarsdalers who attended the annual dinner dance held March 15 in Rolling Green country club. Guests had choice of lobster or roast beef dinners, served with the usual finesse of the club. Happy group here is Jane Jorden, Dick Blaisdell, Dorothy Colvin, Russell Colvin and Isabella Kurtz.

MR. AND MRS. BILL HEDDESHEIMER chat with Bill Spilman, right, at Scarsdale association dinner dance.

Debra Gwen is the name Mr. and Mrs. Ed Friesendorf of Champaign have chosen for their first child. The baby was born March 6 in Carle Memorial hospital, Urbana, weighing 6 pounds 6 ounces. The Ed Friesendorfs of Mt. Prospect and the John Lattas of Arlington Heights are the baby's grandparents and Mrs. Mary Latta of Chicago is her great grandmother.

Banquet to Mark Pi Phi Founders Day

The 91st anniversary of the founding of Pi Beta Phi, national fraternity for women, will be celebrated by members of Arlington Heights alumnae club at a banquet April 9.

The fraternity, which was founded at Monmouth college in April 1867, is honoring its founders at banquets and special ceremonies at colleges and universities throughout the nation as well as being observed by alumnae clubs.

This is the first time that a banquet has been planned for the event in the 7 years that the club has been active in this area.

MRS. BENJAMIN C. Lewis, of Dearborn, Mich., a member of the fraternities grand council will be the guest of honor. Mrs. L. Morell Gross of Hinsdale, province president, and Mrs. Perry E. Duncan of Springfield, province vice president, will also be among the guests of honor.

Members of the newly chartered Park Ridge-Des Plaines alumnae club will attend the dinner as special guests of the Arlington Heights club.

Mrs. Nat T. Burfeind, retiring president of the club, will preside at the dinner. Mrs. Willis M. Hubbard and Mrs. L. P. Swanson are co-chairmen for the banquet.

For reservations, Pi Phi's are asked to contact Mrs. Swanson at Cl 3-3222.

Betty Hasse Becomes Mrs. Willard Schoppe

(Jenart Studio

"Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung during the double ring service that united Miss Betty Hasse and Willard Schoppe on February 8. The service was held at 5:30 p.m. in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of St. John with Rev. W. Streufert officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hasse, 650 S. Beisner rd., Elk Grove Village, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt Schoppe, 201 S. York st., Bensenville.

Four bouquets of white carnations decorated the altar of the church and white ribbons and ferns marked the pews. Soloist was Miss Myra Clausing and organist was Miss Helga Pytlik.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a hand-embroidered lace over satin gown fashioned with sabrina neckline, long sleeves and chapel train. The gown was trimmed with pearls and sequins and she wore a fingertip veil trimmed with pearls. A cultured pearl necklace, a gift from her bridegroom, was her only jewelry. A white orchid surrounded by white carnations made up her bridal bouquet.

MRS. JOYCE CUTLER of Georgia was her sister's matron of honor and wore a princess style street-length dress of copper taffeta trimmed with peach ribbon streamer. Her satin shoes matched her dress and her headpiece was a tiara of rhinestones and pearls. Yellow carnations tied with yellow ribbons were her flowers.

The 4 bridesmaids wore gowns identical to the matron of honor's gown and also carried yellow carnations. However, their bouquets were tied with shaded copper, green and yellow ribbons. Serving as the bridesmaids were Mrs. Nancy Brumm and Mrs. Mary Schuring of Elk Grove Village, Mrs. Evelyn Seeger of Itasca and Miss Shirlee Seeck of Chicago.

Five-year-old Debbie Cutler of Georgia and 3-year-old Pam Schuring of Elk Grove Village, were flower girls and wore floor-length dresses fashioned identically to the bridesmaids' dresses. They also carried yellow carnations. Debbie is a niece of the bride.

James Luebking of Bensenville was best man to the bridegroom and Ronald Pinkowski, Robert Sullivan and Rudolph Schoppe of Bensenville and Donald Hasse of Elk Grove Village, were ushers.

A buffet supper and reception was held at Bensenville Fireman's hall with 475 guests in attendance.

Mr. Schoppe and his bride went on a 2-week wedding trip to Miami and are now living in their new home at 626 W. McLean ct., Bensenville.

Mrs. Schoppe was graduated from Arlington high school and is now employed by the Bensenville State bank. Mr. Schoppe was graduated from Bensenville high school and is associated with Reliable Trucking Co., Bensenville.

Area Women Go To White House Safety Program

Invitations from the White House have been received by several women in the seventh district, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, to attend the midwest regional conference of the President's committee for traffic safety to be held at the Sherman hotel April 1 and 2.

Planning to attend are Mrs. C. A. Henrickson, 743 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights, American citizenship and legislation chairman, and Mrs. Herman Berthold, 746 S. Highland, Arlington Heights, conservation chairman.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVE of the conference is to mobilize wider and more effective support for the President's highway safety action program. Major discussions will endeavor to encourage more citizen support for existing organizations. Included in the program will be a filmed appeal by President Eisenhower for the support of the local and state programs for traffic safety.

Clubwomen Asked To Enter Home Crafts Contest

The American home department of the seventh district, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, is conducting a home crafts contest, according to Mrs. Myron R. Hartley, 214 S. William, Mt. Prospect, chairman. Any article of needlework or ceramics, made solely by the clubwoman, is eligible for the competition.

Winning items will be exhibited at the district meeting in April and first place winners will compete in the state contest. Judging will be done at Mrs. Hartley's home after March 24. Judges will be Mrs. G. A. Davis, president of the Cook county Home Bureau, Mrs. E. H. Coulter, home advisor for the bureau and Mrs. W. G. Lewin, teacher of ceramics in Mt. Prospect.

Name Winners In Creative Writing Contest

Winners in the annual creative writing contest of the seventh district, Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, have been announced by Mrs. E. L. Bracke, Chicago, literature chairman.

Among the first place winners, who will compete in the state contest, were 3 members of the Hoffman Estates Womans club. Mrs. Mark Dick, 408 Basswood, took first in the book evaluation classification and a second in drama; Mrs. Buddy Hughes, 513 Hawthorne, a first in serious poetry and a first in juvenile fiction; and Mrs. John J. Fearde, 105 Bonita, a first in nonsense verse.

Mrs. Fearde also took second in the serious poetry classification while Mrs. L. F. Hines of Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club took second in the light poetry. Mrs. Max Hershey of Arlington Heights Womans club took third in the short, short story.

Just Around The Corner From Patty McArdle

Recuperation Tests Mother

Dear Peg:

I was just patting myself on the back and telling myself what a good mother I was to keep my children healthy and well while in the neighborhood and school the children were dropping like flies, attacked by a virrus—when all of a sudden it got us. First Megan complained of a soar throat and had a temperature of about 101, then, a day later Bridget displayed all the symptoms. Of course, this necessitated keeping them home from school.

As you know, the discomfort and really sick feeling that a child has when a cold begins, soon disappears and he (and the rest of the family) are soon trying to get through that recuperation period when he feels just great, but still has just enough cough and slight temperature to keep him home. These are the days that give any mother's patience a good going over. Megan and Bridget soon tired of television and seemed absolutely unable to think of anything to do except poke each other, wrestle, argue or run wildly after one another from room to room (Patrick having a great time joining in the rowdy fun).

Nor was I much help in suggesting interesting projects until I ran across some ideas for using up the energy of the almost-well-shut-in. We tried this one and had fun with it (also kept busy for several hours): Collage — make a collection of paper, paste, feathers, ribbons, excelsior, cellophane tape, soda straws, colored sequins, scraps of fabric, buttons, anything that a child could paste onto a large piece of paper (such as a part of a cleaning bag). This may result is an amazing picture in modern design!

Corn-meal sandbox: Partially fill a suit box with corn meal and provide sieves, measuring cups and spoons—but no water unless you want corn meal pies. Work on a card table over which you've spread an old shower curtain or plastic cloth. Corn meal acts something like soft sand.

String picture: Pieces of plump yarn or colored string are dipped in a bowl of thin paste, then pressed on colored paper.

If your child is in bed and needs entertainment, here are some ideas that sound as if they might be fun for him and perhaps keep him interested for a while: new things to look at such as—a microscope, a goldfish or turtle, a growing plant, a clock, balloons and mobiles, a mirror. He will want to hold things such as—a flashlight, a bean bag, a hand puppet, a long key chain with trinkets or charms. He'll need things to do such as—stringing paper clips, stringing buttons or spools, blowing soap bubbles, coloring on a new drawing pad, stapling paper, playing with modeling clay or wall paper cleaner, sticking toothpicks into a scouring pad, punching holes with a paper punch, sharpening pencils or crayons. making a puzzle by coloring a shirt cardboard then cutting it into pieces.

Many times he will just want you to let him help paste pictures in the family album, let him dictate a letter to a special friend, perhaps he can help shell peas or clean string beans for dinner. Just playing simple games such as "I see something in the room and it's blue" or "I hear something. What do you hear?" or "What is a word that sounds like Billy?" will entertain him. Even if you just do your ironing in his room he will be happy to have you nearby.

Hope your family is well, but if you do have a sick one or two—happy recuperating . . . and keep smiling.

My love,
Patty

WITH THE HELP of Palatine high school student Darlene Tatge, center, Mrs. C. Marshall Miller, left, and Mrs. Robert Larson, members of Palatine Junior Womans club, are completing poster advertising the Friendship Frolic, to be held Saturday, April 12, at 9 p.m. in Palatine Firemen's hall. Darlene is poster chairman of the affair, which will be a dance to benefit the Palatine Youth organization and sponsored by Palatine Junior Womans club. Entertainment during the intermission will be furnished by the high school students.

Panhellenic Sets April 10 Luncheon Date

"Getting Up To Date With the Fraternity World" will be the theme for the Thursday, April 10, luncheon of the Des Plaines Panhellenic club to be held at 1 p.m. at Old Orchard country club, Rand rd. and Euclid ave., Arlington Heights.

Guest speakers will discuss various phases of collegiate, alumnae and panhellenic activities. Mrs. Castle A. Cesner, 1304 Isabella, Wilmette, National Extension Chairman of Sigma Sigma Sigma; Mrs. Richard M. Palmer, 319 Essex, Kenilworth, representing Chicago City Panhellenic Association; Mrs. Wallace Holsinger, 8355 County Line rd, Hinsdale, National Panhellenic Delegate from Delta Gamma; and Mrs. Robert F. Lindrooth, former NPC delegate and former national president of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Special invitations to the luncheon program have been sent to neighboring panhellenic associations, national officers, executive secretaries and to presidents and members of sorority alumnae chapters in the northwest suburban area.

All sorority women in Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Arlington Heights, Palatine and vicinity are invited. Reservations for the luncheon should be made by April 7 to Mrs. W. L. Corbin, CL 5-3089.

Violet Society Learns Vacation Care of Plants

Suburban Saintpaulia society, an affiliate of the African Violet Society of America, will hold its next regular monthly meeting April 2 at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Frank Straka of Palatine, with Mrs. George Vogeler of Palatine as co-hostess.

The coffee hour will be followed by a business meeting which will include annual reports and election of officers for the coming year. The program for the day will be a discussion-forum on the "Vacation Care of African Violets" which will be conducted by Mrs. Haywood Miller of Palatine, Mrs. Clarence Paeglow of Rolling Meadows and Mrs. Donald Tiedmond of Prospect Heights.

Marie Homeier Is Now Mrs. Alvin Templin

(Bak Studio

Miss Marie Homeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Homeier, Algonquin rd., Palatine, became the bride of Alvin Templin of Des Plaines February 22 in Palatine's United Church of Christ. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Templin.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Glenn G. Gumm before an altar decorated with candelabra and vases of snapdragons and carnations. For the 6:30 p.m. double ring ceremony Harold Berg was organist and Howard Pollitz sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Ich Liebe Dich."

The bride was attired in a slipper satin gown with lace and nylon tulle overskirt as she was given in marriage by her father. The lace over satin bodice had a sabrina neckline trimmed with soft folds of nylon tulle. Over this she wore a fingertip veil held by a crown of sequins and seed pearls and carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white roses, ivy and a few pink tea roses.

Mrs. Marjorie Ellis of Palatine the bride's sister, was matron of honor in mint green fashioned in the back with full pleats falling from a large bow. She carried a crescent bouquet of pink roses with heather. Attired in the same outfit were bridesmaids, Mrs. Mildred Graeber of Cocoa, Fla., the bride's sister, and Mrs. Ruth Luebbers of Prairie View, Ill., the bridegroom's sister.

Six-year-old JoAnn Schaffer of Des Plaines was flower girl in mint green with a miniature bouquet of pink roses and heather. Gary Graeber, 4, was ring bearer.

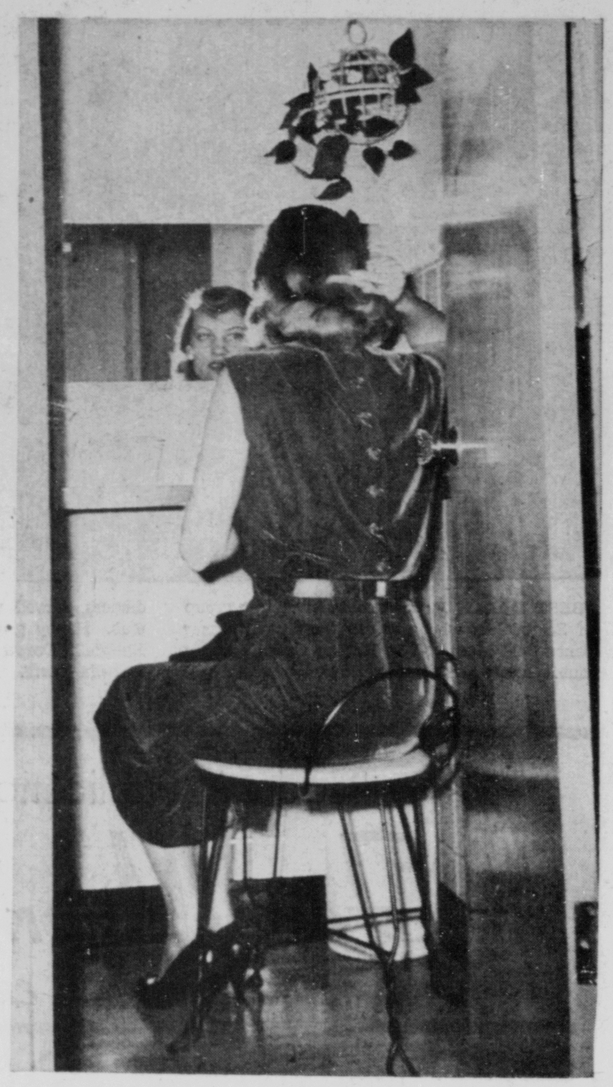
John Schaffer attended the bridegroom as best man, and Arvin Luebbers of Palatine and Bill Luebbers of Prairie View ushered.

Receiving the wedding guests Mrs. Homeier wore an aqua print dress with a corsage of pink roses. A buffet supper for 80 guests in Hartman's restaurant followed the ceremony after which the couple departed for a 2-week wedding trip to Florida.

They are now at home at 254 N. Benton st., Palatine. The bride, a graduate of Palatine high school, is employed at Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., Chicago, and her husband is working for H. M. Harper Co., Morton Grove.

At a Penny a Serving, the Price is Right!

SCANNING THE MENU—and prices—are Mrs. Wayne Wickless, Roy Hernberg, Mrs. Hernberg and Mr. Wickless. Barbecue at 10 cents was followed by everything from baked beans and slaw to coffee and cake, all at a penny a serving at benefit given March 22 by Arlington Heights Junior Womans club American Home and Garden committee.



MRS. HOWARD BUCCHOLZ, chairman of the committee, ignored the poem, "Sorry we couldn't think of a rhyme to ask for a coin at this opportune time." She put her penny in the cup anyway!

A PENNY for your thoughts—and a penny for everything else you do! That was the theme of a benefit given by the American Home and Garden committee of Arlington Heights Junior Womans club. The penny party was held March 22 in the R. T. Herdrich home, 15 N. Yale, Arlington Heights. Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Herigodt and Mr. and Mrs. John Myers obey the placard: Write your name so we know who you are—but please remember to put a coin in the jar!

Republican Women Hear Rep. Church

Thursday, April 10, Republican women will assembly at 11:30 a.m. in the Polynesian room of the Edgewater Beach hotel for the sixth annual Easter brunch to hear the Honorable Marguerite Stitt Church give her annual report from Washington, D.C. This meeting which comes 2 days after the Illinois primary election might be designated "Post-primary — pre-election," hence it will present Mrs. Church with the opportunity to further spark and encourage all dedicated Republican women.

The Women's Republican club of the 13th congressional district of Illinois is comprised of 13 townships in Cook county and the whole of Lake county and has a membership of 2,000 women which makes it one of the largest in the state. Likewise it was the first congressional district club to be formed in the United States.

MRS. CHURCH, Congresswoman from the 13th district of Illinois is a member of the House Foreign affairs committee and is working at present to help reduce the national budget and secondly to put into effect the Hoover commission recommendations.

Special guests will be Mrs. Wesley Dixon former national committeewoman from Illinois and Mrs. C. Wayland Brooks the new committeewoman.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Raymond J. Michaels, GL 4-4668.

Wm. Wiederholds Mark Anniversary

Fifty relatives and friends attended an open house Sunday, March 16, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Widerhold Sr., 1622 N. Rand rd., Arlington Heights, who were observing their 25th wedding anniversary. The affair was given by the Wiederholds' son, William Jr. of Palatine and their daughter, Mrs. William Graves of Wheeling, in the son's home at 253 N. Schubert.

The anniversary couple also have 3 other children, Donna, 14, Kenneth, 12, and Dorothy, 9; and 2 grandchildren.

Announce Engagements

Ruthann Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Johnson, 405 N. Dryden, Arlington Heights, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruthann, to Stanley Jeffers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jeffers of Beloit, Wis.

Miss Johnson was graduated from Arlington high school and both she and her fiance are juniors in special education at Illinois State Normal university. Miss Johnson is specializing in the teaching of partially seeing and blind children.

A June 28 wedding is planned.

Carol Lange

Planning a summer wedding are Miss Carol Marie Lange and Robert P. Skibbe of Portland, Ind., whose engagement was recently announced by Miss Lange's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Lange, 231 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights.

Miss Lange was graduated from Arlington high school and is now attending Concordia Teachers college in River Forest. Her fiance was graduated from the Radio Institute of Chicago and is a staff announcer for Station WPGW in Portland.

Annette Poteracki

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Poteracki of Glen rd., Medinah, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Annette Jean, to Robert Eugene Krass, son of Mrs. Jeanne L. Krass of Chicago.

The couple will wed June 14 in St. Joseph church in Addison.

Mary Beth Koch

Miss Mary Beth Koch and her fiance, Armand Ferrini Jr., are planning a June 21 wedding. The couple's engagement is announced by Miss Koch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Koch, 408 S. Emerson, Mt. Prospect. Mr. Ferrini's parents are the senior Ferrinis of Cicero.

Miss Koch was graduated from Siena high school. Her fiance was graduated from Morton high school and is now a senior at the University of Illinois in Champaign.

The wedding will take place in St. Raymond church, Mt. Prospect. (Jenart Studio

'Snap' For 08 Girls Bartlett Heir Provided

50 Years Ago
March 27, 1908

Bartlett — Albert Piegorch has purchased the interest of all the heirs in the old homestead farm near Bartlett. He now owns a fine farm but he needs a nice young wife to make home pleasant for him. Girls, here is a snap.

George Schick, son of A. C. Schick, and Walter Bauman, son of Pastor Bauman, while walking along the C M and St. P tracks, with the intention of going to their respective homes, last Saturday afternoon found a torpedo, such as railroad men use for signals. Not knowing the contents of this dangerous can, they tried to break into it with a stone, when it exploded with terrific force. Results, George Schick, was so badly lacerated, that 2 doctors were called immediately and although there are hopes of saving the boy's life, he probably will lose one eye and carry scars to his grave. We extend our sympathies to the parents. Both George and Walter are known as model and obedient young men, who have always done everything possible in helping their fathers. Therefore, we feel with the parents in their hour of trouble and fervently hope and pray that the boys may regain their health and make the hearts of their parents glad, otherwise, God's will be done.

ITASCA — Some Itasca hunters are hot after the ducks but are still hotter if the ducks get away.

The Village Board had another special meeting Wednesday, March 11, but adjourned again for another week without any results; the imported talent to the Presidency, does not come up to the standard at all. He with the majority of the trustees seems to be entirely at sea. They do not come up to St. Paul's lamentations, even when he says: "The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak;" no indeed, they do not, for it appears too plain, that the flesh is unwilling and the spirit is even rebellious; but the taxpayers are around and will make a move to be emancipated from thraldom. — A citizen.

Bensenville — Born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dierking, a baby boy, Tuesday, March 10. Mother and son are in the best of spirits.

A. W. Franzen and Emil Urban are kept busy these days emptying their guns at geese, as they fly over town.

Elk Grove — Mr. George Scharringhausen and Miss Alma Mess were married Sunday.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS — Sophia Tadge, who was born in Germany in 1833, died March 14, aged 74 years. She married August Hue in 1860 and the family came to America in 1868.

Will the bums from the dry towns abuse the liberty we offer, and disgust other people with their revelries? Their money is welcome, but rowdyism is not wanted and will not be tolerated in Arlington Heights; better send your liquor orders by express, if you can't keep straight while here.

If Barrington and Des Plaines go dry this spring, they'll attract the prohibition citizens, while the saloons of Palatine and Arlington Heights will become bankers for the thirsty pilgrims from other places, who enjoy intoxication. The R.R. Co. ought to put back the cheap 100-ride local tickets so their patrons can save money for their necessities.

Arlington Heights promises to enjoy a good healthy boom this season. There is no lack of confidence here. Every wise-awake business man is planning to spread or branch out in their line and help the town to grow. All our mechanics will be kept busy on new buildings which will make a good showing around.

L. G. Helm moved the old Taege house this week, to his lots on South Evergreen street, where he will soon have it fixed up for a good renter.

Dr. B. T. Best has let the contract of a 2-story and basement brick block, 44x56, with enameled brick front to be built on the old Taege lot back of the hardware. When completed, the west store will be occupied by Henry Sieburg's hardware store and the east half by Nehls' Drug store.

Fred Lorenzen will have a big double department store (2-4 N. Dunton) as soon as Henry Sieburg moves his hardware to his new quarters.

Beyer Boeger will probably be the name of new real estate firm, a co-partnership of Peter Beyer and H. W. Boeger. They plan to erect a handsome modern 2-story office building of cement blocks on the flat-iron block on North Dunton street, south of Sieburg's meat market. Some say a $50,000 National Bank, will occupy the first floor, tonsorial parlors in the airy basement and the real estate firm may office on the second floor, where they can have a clear view through plate glass bay windows on every side.

NORTH NORTHFIELD— The crowd at the caucus Saturday was almost as large as the crowd in Wheeling in front of the town hall the day of the trial.

The young people of Northfield had a very nice time at the party Saturday night, given in honor of Everett Wolf. There were no objections made as to what was said or done.

Palatine —. The sad news Thursday of the death of Miss Jessie Nason, cast a shadow over the entire community. She was born in the house that has since been her home in 1882. She studied under Prof. Sears and was one of his most advanced pupils, when failing health compelled her to give up her beloved work. All the care and skill that skilled physicians and an anxious household could desire for her comfort were brought into play but the fiat of Him, who rules over incomings and outgoings had been issued, and after a brief struggle, despite the prayers and entreaties of all who knew and loved her, their appeals were overruled and before the break of day, the sufferer's spirit took its flight to that home the Christian believes is the fulfillment of the life everlasting.

Miss Bertha Wente and Frank F. Danielsen were married March 25 at 3 o'clock. The bride and groom have lived in Palatine since their appearance in this world, and in this union of a Palatine son to one of Palatine's most popular daughters, we have the happy termination of a courtship that has been most favorably looked on by the friends of both.

The basket social in the Deer Grove school was attended by a large crowd, and while the receipts were large, amounting to $40, it is to be regretted that a number of Barrington boys did not behave as gentlemen and by their boisterousness and ill bred actions spoilt the evening for the ladies present.

MISS SELMA TORGLER gave a recital in Cable hall, Church Thursday evening. That evening was a culmination of years of study. The commendation she received from all sides represented not only the approval of the public, but also the approbation of men who are music masters. Palatine can well be proud of this young lady.

March 29, 1918

Monday afternoon Palatine and Arlington Heights was set all agog over a report that the Crown Prince with 70,000 Germans had been captured by the allies. There were miniature celebrations everywhere and by the time the evening paper train arrived there was a big demand for the Chicago papers, which strange to say, had not one word about the capture. Why not? everyone asked. Several of the patriotic ones went a gunning for the party who had started the report, but it was like chasing scandal. For the benefit of the ones who celebrated, we say that this report was originally circulated in Chicago as having come over a private wire from New York. The Northwestern train dispatcher passed it on to the agents of several towns who easily found eager carriers of the news.

To members of the Illinois Volunteer Training Corps. — Apparent lack of interest in the Palatine corps necessitates that measures be taken at once to awaken the men who signed the membership roll to a realizations of their duties and the obligation they owe to their country. Therefore I ask that all members attend the meeting Thursday evening. All unexcused absentees will be reported publicly in the columns of the Enterprise hereafter. Men, you signed the roll. Are you going to live up to your obligations? If not, the public will learn of what brand of loyalty you are made. — W. S. Dollinger, Captain.

THE ILLINOIS local option law gave cities a chance to choose between staying wet or going dry. Rockford chose the straight, dry way, while East St. Louis chose the wide-open crooked wet way. Last summer Camp Grant was located at Rockford, and the worst race riot in the nation's history took place at East St. Louis. Do you want saloons, lawlessness and corruption or will you vote dry for clean, U. S. Government standard conditions in your town?

The Wheeling Dramatic club will present Mrs. Haywood's Help, a 2-act comedy, Friday and Saturday nights April 5 and 6 Union Hall, Wheeling. A few other attractions will be presented. Adults 25 cents.

BLOOMINGDALE — One of the old residents, Mr. Muller, passed away March 23.

Why are we to stand back and let a few people tell us what we shall drink? Did we ever harm any one to make them enemies of ours? No. We do not and would never think of such a thing. Did you ever see one of the drys that ever helped to keep the business in their own town? No. What they want, is to see the home people go to some other town and stay till the early hours of the morning and come home full. If they could get a glass of beer at home when they wanted it, they would be home and in bed before they could get to some other town. Shall we let a few people whom we see once a year or two, tell us what to do? No. We will not. If we need some one to take care of us, I guess we can all get along without their help. Do we tell them not do do this? No! We mind our own business and let other people take care of their own. Why help to build up some other town? Keep our little town on the map. The wets never ask the drys to drink beer. If they want some they can get it for themselves. I know some drys who will hide behind closed doors and take their drinks. Why not be a man and let people know what you are? So when you go to the polls Tuesday to vote, vote the right way. Vote No. — H. H. Torrence

Buffalo Grove — Arthur Eichler and Miss Ellen Luehring took a moonlight auto trip Sunday evening. While speeding along the line both stopped at Art's home for a short visit and lunch. Mrs. Ernest Doege enjoyed the young lady's visit and thinks she is a very ideal and sweet little girl.

MRS. MARY BAKER, nee Pahlman, was born in 1846 in Lake county near Long Grove now known as the Druggan estate. She was united in marriage with Nicolas Baker in Long Grove in 1864. She died March 22. The couple was blessed with 10 children. Mrs. Baker resided in Lake county for 54 years and the last 28 at Palatine on Chicago ave. with her daughter, Mrs. Lydia Born.

Mr. Henry Schroeder, an old resident of Arlington Heights, died Friday at his home on north State road. He leaves a wife and 11 children.

BEARING "TREASURES" to be sold at St. John Episcopal church rummage sale in April, Mrs. Wilfred Colmar arrives at spring tea, given, appropriately enough, on the first day of spring, March 21, in the home of Mrs. Franklin Hitch, 106 N. Wheeling rd., Prospect Heights. More than 30 guests attended and each brought a "treasure" to be used in the rummage sale. Mrs. Colmar and Mrs. Hitch, right, are co-chairmen of the rummage sale and were co-hostesses at the spring tea. Mrs. William Cox, left, will assist with the sale. (Ohanesian photo

Guild Plans Easter Monday Card Party

The Easter Monday card party given each year by the St. James Catholic Women's guild will be held April 7 at 8 p.m. in St. James school hall, Arlington Heights, announced Mrs. R. W. King, chairman of this year's party.

Mrs. John Buckley, in charge of gifts, has arranged for a geranium plant for each table. In addition a 17" portable TV, a 5-piece card table set, a merchandise certificate from Schneller's furniture store, and a ladies' handbag will be given away.

Homemade cakes and coffee will be served by Mrs. Dorothy Harrison and her committee.

Tickets for this card party, proceeds of which will benefit the building fund, may be obtained at the door or by calling Mrs. Daniel Krebsbach, CLearbrook 3-4378.

Kappa Deltas To Hear Artist

"Why We Like What We Like in a Picture" will be presented by Florence Wyman Whitson to members of Kappa Delta northwest suburban alumnae association March 31. The group will meet at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. M. H. Knapp, 908 S. Knight, Park Ridge, to hear the local artist.

Mrs. Whitson was graduated from the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts and has taught at Ohio Wesleyan university and recently at Maine adult evening school.

All new Kappa Delta alumnae in the area who have not been contacted are asked to call Mrs. S. E. Grimm at CLearbrook 3-4142.

Wellesley Club Plans Luncheon

Invitations in Wellesley blue have been issued to Chicagoland alumnae to welcome Miss Margaret Clapp, president of Wellesley college, who will be guest of honor at the annual spring luncheon given by the Chicago Wellesley club. The event will be held in the Mayfair room of the Sheraton-Blackstone hotel at noon April 10.

Among the hostesses will be Mrs. Hunter Hicks of Palatine. More than 200 guests are expected to attend.

WHAT IS SHOE CITY?

A New Idea In Selling Shoes

About thirty-five years ago a small shoe store opened its doors dedicated to a new idea in selling shoes . . . NATIONALLY ADVERTISED BRANDS of luxury footwear at a DISCOUNT. People responded to this principle so wonderfully that this small store grew into a SHOE CITY . . . and now has expanded into another store to serve their many North and Northwest side customers

Everyone who has shopped at Shoe City . . . the old store or the new . . . gals in blue jeans, women in mink, small families, large families, all realize that our selections and savings are unequalled.

FOR WOMEN — Among the nationally advertised brands are Queen Quality, Anton Donelli, Palizzio, Air Step, Andrew Geller, Matrix, Customcraft, Risque, British Trotters, Renazzo, Delas, Giovanni, Urbanites, Arturo de Pietro and many others.

FOR MEN — Among the nationally advertised brands are Marca Scala (Made in Italy), Cole-haan, Churchill, Abbey (made in England), British Walker, Syncro-Flex, Kent & Howard and many others.

FOR BOYS & GIRLS — Among the famous brands are Pied Piper, Little Yankee, Blue Bonnet, Stride Rite, Redbird, Stepmaster, Child Life, Buster Brown, Weatherbird, Acrobat, Dr. Posner.

HARD - TO - FIT

Naturally we do not have every size and every style in every brand. But, there's hardly a foot we cannot fit. We have so many sizes we can please even the "hard-to-fit" AAAA to EEE — MANY STYLES TO SIZE 12 FOR WOMEN, TO SIZE 14 FOR MEN.

WE SHOT...

the last chef who didn't prepare a customer's steak exactly the way he wanted it!

You can bet your bottom dollar on getting your steak done just exactly the way you want it—and no foolin'! We're as fussy as you about it because those big, thick, juicy cuts of prime beef are as important to a hungry patron as a trusted friend . . . and we aim to keep you satisfied or know the reason why. We guarantee that the steaks we serve are the best you ever tasted. You can "stake" your life on it, friends.

YMCA Sponsors Poster Contest

An open competition poster contest is being conducted by Northwest Suburban YMCA among high school students in 6 northwest suburban communities with first and second place winners receiving a free summer course at the Chicago Art Institute.

The contest is under the direction of art teachers in the high schools which serve Arlington Heights, Mr. Prospect, Palatine, Rolling Meadows, Prospect Heights and Des Plaines. Theme of the poster design is "how to best present artistically the need for supporting the fund-raising program to build Northwest Suburban YMCA facilities in these northwest communities." The contest is being run in connection with the building drive of the local 'Y' which has its kickoff April 17.

FIRST PRIZE is a 6-week summer course to be taken in 3 half-days per week at the Art Institute. Second prize is a 6-week summer course taken in 2 half-days per week.

According to the rules the contest is open to all high school students in the areas mentioned above, posters must be 15"x20" in size in any colors and must emphasize the slogan "Youth Can't Wait—Build the 'Y' in '58."

SOMEBODY WANTS YOUR HOME

The house or property you own fills the need of some interested buyer. Your home may be too large or too small or you may contemplate selling for some other reason. Perhaps you want to relocate in this area. If so we want to make the selling of your present property and possibly the purchase of another as pleasant an experience for you as possible.

You, as buyer or seller, deserve the best service. We promise to give it to you. Our organization consists of competent, conscientious and considerate sales people plus a legal department to properly handle the closing of transactions. From the moment we list your property until the date of closing the matter is handled with the utmost of good salesmanship, efficiency and honesty. We won't promise anything we aren't sure of.

Without obligation CALL US AT ONCE. You will be impressed with the sincerity and interest that will be shown in your housing problem.

In loving memory of Janice Lee Rolfs our dear daughter and sister who passed away March 27, 1956.
A wonderful girl was she
With a twinkle in her eye,
A smile for you to say hello
Always—a kiss to say goodbye.

So full of life and happiness
Was she of just thirteen,
A little girl, but lady, too
We held in high esteem.

Words can't express our feelings
Tears would be shed in vain,
She has just gone away
To heaven her true gain.

Though she is gone for now
Her memories we will keep,
Singing, dancing, always gay
This was Janice Lee.

Happiness has filled our hearts
Where once had been much grief,
For in God's kingdom up above
Her life is now complete.
Mother, Father,
Sister and Brother.

Proper Lawn Care Starts In Spring

Proper care of your lawn is a year-round job, but good lawn care starts in the spring when the ground is dry enough to walk on.

Rolling the lawn firms sod that has been heaved up by freezing and thawing. It should be done in late winter, as soon as the upper inch of soil is dry enough to crumble in your hand. The roller should not weigh over 100 pounds for each foot of roller width. Too heavy a roller or rolling when the soil is too wet causes compaction and prevents proper root growth.

Rake the lawn to remove leaves and other debris which has accumulated over the winter. If the grass is covered by leaves it will be smothered out and leave bare patches in the lawn into which weeds will grow.

Fertilizer containing nitrogen should be added to your lawn in late March or early April. This will make the grass green and make it dense enough to keep out weeds. Fertilizing in late spring stimulates growth of weeds and crab grass.

Apply 20 pounds of 10-8-6 or a fertilizer of similar analysis per 1,000 square feet of lawn. Spread the fertilizer evenly because uneven application will cause streaks of different shades of green. Water the lawn afterwards to keep fertilizer from burning the grass.

Have your lawn soil tested every three to four years. The tester will recommend fertilizers necessary to bring fertility levels up to normal. (Fm

by L. H. SIMERL

We have been asked, "Why are livestock prices so high?" Also, "Why have prices of hamburger and other meats gone up so much?"

Complete answers to these questions would be long and complicated, but the basic facts are simple. Although consumer demand has been reduced, the supply of meat has been cut even more.

UNEMPLOYMENT has caused some cut in consumer buying power. In February about 7 per cent of our labor force—twice as much as usual—was unemployed. But most of these workers were getting some kind of unemployment income. Many families with one unemployed member had another member still earning good pay. Ninety-three per cent of all workers still had jobs, though some were not full time.

While consumer buying power has been reduced perhaps 4 per cent, the supply of meat has been cut about three times that much. Meat production began to fall below year-before levels early last year. The shortage became more persistent last fall, and especially this winter. During the first week in March, there were only about 10 pounds of meat per family where there had been 12 pounds the year before. All kinds of meats—beef, pork, veal, and lamb and mutton—showed about the same decreased.

The supply of everyday hamburger beef was cut first. When the drouth in the west was broken last summer, farmers and ranchers started holding back cattle, especially cows. By last November prices of slaughter cows and low-grade steers were 30 to 40 per cent higher than in November of 1956. At that time top cattle—prime steers — were bringing around $27 a hundred pounds, a dollar less than the year before.

THE SHORTAGE OF hamburger cattle has persisted. It has provided a high foundation for all other cattle prices. It may continue until about mid-year, or perhaps longer, but market supplies of middle-grade cattle will increase sooner.

In many recent years, especially in 1956 and 1957, the cattle market was very poor in the late winter. Many cattle feeders apparently decided to avoid having cattle to sell on the market at that time this year. The result is an unusual shortage of fat slaughter cattle, especially prime steers. Even so, prices of top cattle show only a little more percentage increase over a year ago than do prices of cows and low-grade steers.

There is probably a record number of cattle on feed now. They will come to market in much larger numbers in a few weeks. At that time prices will begin a long decline that may continue into the summer.

THE PORK SUPPLY in recent weeks has been considerably smaller than had been expected from estimates of 1957 spring and summer pig crops. For a while it was believed that farmers were holding back hogs to use wet corn. Some holding-back may be occurring, but average slaughter weights so far have been no greater than they were last year.

Increased marketings of cattle in the next 90 days may undermine hog values. Thus prices of hogs may slide rather than make their usual spring advance.

Still uncertain is the business situation. Some strong spots are appearing. These may be the first signs of business recovery. Or they may be resting places on the way down. Any positive anti-recession medicine ordered by the government will not be delivered to the patient for several months.

Tree Experts To Be Licensed

Persons acting as tree experts in Illinois after last January 1 must be licensed. A new law passed by the 1957 Illinois general assembly names the department of registration and education as the licensing authority.

"Tree expert" by law means a person who commercially diagnoses the condition of shade, forest or ornamental trees and recommends or supervises their treatment. The term also includes those persons treating trees in any manner, including pruning, trimming, bracing treating cavities or otherwise attempting to protect trees from damage by insects or diseases.

A tree expert may get his license in one of two ways. The first involves persons who have been acting as commercial tree experts in Illinois for at least five consecutive years before 1958. These persons may get a license by submitting satisfactory proof of their activity and the required fee. Licenses of this type may not be acquired after January 1, 1959.

The second way of getting a license is by examination. The examination is given at least once each year by the tree expert examining board. It covers such subjects as tree identification, tree diseases ,treatment of injuries and operation of tree equipment.

License fees for individuals are $25 for original licenses and $5 for each annual renewal. Only persons over 21 years of age may get a license.

The law exempts employees of the federal and state governments and their agencies where the employees act as tree experts in performing their official duties. Also exempt are persons diagnosing and treating trees on their own property. (Fm

Layout a Must In Landscaping

Utility and attractiveness are the two main reasons for landscaping home grounds. Utility includes layout of the drive, walks and other useful areas. Attractiveness involves the neat and orderly arrnagement of the parts into one harmonious unit.

Although most home owners consider these twin aims when they landscape, they seldom follow a systematic course of action.

A GOOD JOB of developing home grounds requires a plan. A plan helps to reduce trial and error. Planning helps to get year-round color in gardens through proper choice of plants. It also permits grounds to be landscaped over a period of years and still be attractive and useful.

To arrive at a plan, first read as much on landscaping as possible. Second, make a scaled drawing of the home grounds. Use this drawing as a basis for developing the plan. Next, divide the grounds into three areas—public, private and service.

The public area, lying between the street and the home, should consist of a large open lawn. It should also include a foundation planting to make the house blend with the surrounding landscape. And a few trees will provide framing and shade for the front of the house.

THE LAWN AREA provides an open vista to the house, which is the primary center of interest in the plan.

The service area is used for carrying out the various duties involved in keeping a home. Usually it is most appropriate to locate this area at the rear of the house. The private area, which may be called the outdoor living room, might include a terrace, flower garden, children's play area and large, open lawn. Vegetable gardens are usually located in the service area.

AFTER DIVIDING the home grounds into the three areas and determining the exact location of walks, trees, shrubs, the next problem is choosing proper plants for the various locations.

This is not an easy problem to solve. But some good publications on ornamental trees and shrubs will help persons select desirable and harmonious plants.

Don't Sell Wool Before April: IAA

Word has been received by the Cook County Farm bureau from the Illinois Agricultural association that it will pay to "make haste slowly" in selling your wool.

Information has been given to us that wool prices are currently being quoted substantially below what they should be. National Wool Marketing corp. says that 1958 appears to be a year that is most favorable to consigning wool. This forecast is based upon the peculiar and artificial situation that now exists under the government support program.

It is suggested that wool should not be sold before April 1, because of the substantial differential (from 10 to 15 cents per grease pound) which such a sale would cost the growers. More precise information on this subject will be available in the near future.

Implements Compete With Cars

More than ever before, farm implements are competing with cars and trucks for space on public highways.

This is one of the results of rapid mechanization on farms, and it has brought with it added dangers, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

One-third of all tractor fatalities occur on public roads. Many others happen on private lanes and drives. Mile for mile, it is much safer to operate an automobile on public roads than to operate a tractor there. If at all possible, plan farm work so that you are not driving slow-moving tractors and farm machinery in traffic. The heavier the traffic, the greater the danger.

Rules of the road apply to farm tractors and implements as well as to cars and trucks. Come to a full stop when entering the highway, and do not proceed until it is clear. Then stay on the right side of the road. If a farmer must take any of his farm machinery onto the road at dusk or during darkness, be sure it is properly lighted. Not only are the evening hours a period of heavy traffic, but they are also the time when it is hardest for the motorist to see. In the daylight hours, a red flag on a tall mast helps to draw attention of the motorist to the hazards of slow-moving machinery.

The motorist should not be expected to assume the whole responsibility for safety on rural highways. Farmers must also share in this responsibility. (Fm

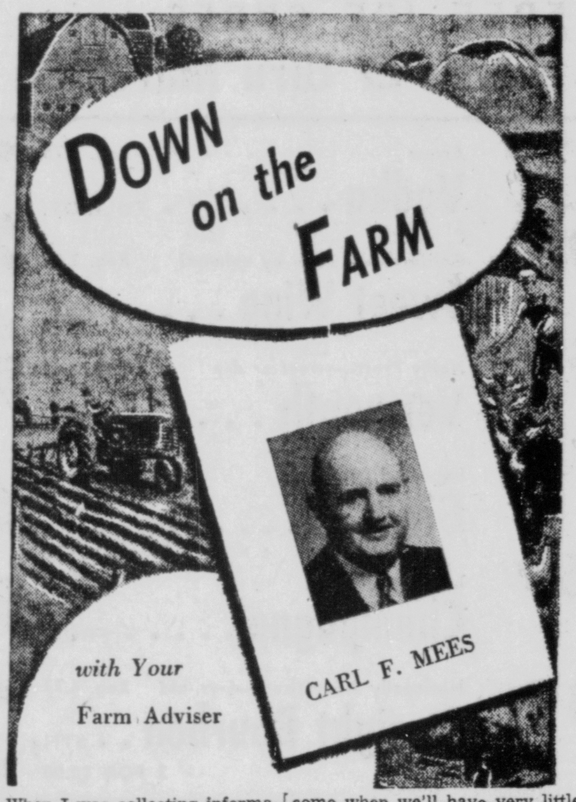
THURSDAY, MAR. 27, 1958



When I was collecting information recently to present to the Kiwanis Club at Chicago Heights, I located some interesting facts. I'm going to relate a few of them to you, for I think you too will find them interesting.

The first settlers in this area came around 1812 and settled near Lake Michigan and now downtown Chicago. This was a marsh at that time. In fact the territory was not known as Cook County. This area in early days was once a part of LaSalle County.

NEVERTHELESS, most of the county townships were not settled until 1830-40. I remember Schaumburg township particularly for one of its early settlers was Mr. Freise. I spoke to John Freise about it and he told me this man was his grandfather.

By 1841 Cook County had become a self-sufficient county as far as the production of agricultural products was concerned. Between 1900-20 there were over 5,000 farms in the county. Of course, Chicago had grown to be a very large city by that time.

THE TREND IN the number of farms has been downward since that time. Between 1930-40 there were over 4,000 farms. Between 1940-50—3,200 farms. In 1954 the census showed 2,158 farms. Today I feel safe in estimateing the number to be fewer than $2,000.

Our trend in gross agricultural income likewise is downward. According to the 1945 census in gross income, Cook County ranked 45 out of the more than 3,000 counties in the United States. In 1950 the rank was 76. In 1954 the rank has dropped to around 150.

COOK COUNTY HAS been a unique county over all these years because it was an important agricultural county and yet had a city in it that was well over 3,000,000 in population.

In looking into the future, we probably can assume that Cook county will continue to lose agricultural land. One man told me it grows better houses. The day may come when we'll have very little land left to be used for agricultural purposes. I predict it will take a minimum of 25 to 50 years before this will happen. However, only time will tell. Miniature Beef Cattle Are Weeded Out of Herds

This is the age of miniatures—pocket radios, miniature golf courses and dwarf corn.

But University of Illinois veterinarians are putting their feet down when it comes to miniature beef steaks.

DWARF CATTLE are easy to recognize, but the seemingly normal animals that carry this inherited characteristic are hard to identify. Much work is being done to find a way to spot these carriers so that they can be culled from breeding herds.

Dr. H. J. Hardenbrook says that taking x-rays of calves between one and 10 days old is one of the best ways to spot carriers. X-rays show vertebral abnormalities characteristic of many animals that carry dwarfism. X-rays of long bones and of certain head bones are also of value.

Examining the blood lines of breeding stock is another method. Dr. Hardenbrook says the best approach is to buy from breeders who are making special efforts to produce dwarf-free stock.

A RECENT round-up of test results shows how effective x-ray can be. The results also point to some of its limitations as a detection method. Of 186 known carriers at all the co-operating stations, x-rays showed that 167, or 90 per cent, had abnormal vertebrae.

Of several thousand calves that were thought to be free of dwarf genes (not carriers), 80 per cent had completely normal vertebrae. Among the others, it has been impossible to distinguish between mild abnormalities unrelated to dwarfism and some thought to be due to the dwarf gene. Lengthy breeding tests are necessary to establish this difference. Breeding tests must also be used as a further screen for animals with seemingly normal vertebrae.

INSULIN INJECTION and pre- and post-treatment blood studies have been used with a reasonable degree of accuracy in several hundred test animals, points out Dr. Hardenbrook. Studies of this type may lead to better tests to help find dwarf carriers.

Meanwhile, the search goes on for other methods that might prove more certain and more practical. An instrument called a profilometer, developed some years ago to find carriers among mature Hereford bulls, has not proved so accurate as was expected. It detected a slight forehead bulge thought to mark normal-looking animals as dwarf carriers. Outward physical appearance is still being carefully studied, however, for characteristics that might identify the carrier. (Fm

Farm Festival March 27-29

Final plans are now shaping up to handle the thousands of visitors expected at the University of Illinois Farm and Home Festival next week, March 27-29. Whether they come from north, south, east or west, visitors will find routes to the University south campus marked as they enter Champaign or Urbana.

Special parking areas will be set aside for cars, and special transportation will be provided from parking areas to the Festival area.

Visitors will have the opportunity to enjoy a pork-chop barbecue luncheon each day in the stock pavilion. Barbecued fish will also be served on Friday.

Tickets can be obtained at any registration and information center upon arrival at the festival. The cafeteria in the new home economics building and in the Illinois Union will also be open. In addition, restaurants will provide meals in the campus area and in Champaign and Urbana.

Those who want to stay overnight can get information from Adviser Carl F. Mees about rooms that will be available in University housing and in local hotels and motels. (Fm

Farm Director Mills Resigns

C. H. Mills of Arlington Heights, organizational director of the Cook County Farm bureau for the past 25 years, submitted his resignation effective Monday.

Mills has seen the Cook County Farm bureau grow from a struggling organization of 1,200 members to more than 6,500, making it the largest county farm bureau in the United States.

IN HIS CAPACITY of organization director, his duties have been the acquisition and maintenance of membership, as well as liaison between the Illinois Agricultural association and various affiliated companies.

Because of his outstanding accomplishments, he has received many citations from the Illinois Agricultural association and the American Farm bureau federation, an organization of some million and a half members.

Having reached the specified age of retirement more years ago than he cares to state, Mills has been permitted to continue in his present capacity under special dispensation in recognition of outstanding service.

IT IS WITH more than a little regret that he has reached the decision to retire and devote his time and energy to his own farm and other interests.

While Mills and his wife expect to spend some time on their Indiana farm, where they maintain an apartment for their own use, they will retain their residence at 205 Drury lane in Arlington Heights. (Fm

Present Ribbons To 4-H Winners

Purple ribbons will be presented to 5 winning 4-H clubs at the annual 4-H Rally March 20. Receiving ribbons for winning honors in the first annual window display contest held during National 4-H Club week, March 1, 8, were the Barrington Pioneers, Busy Bodies, Hanover Hawks, Happy Helpers, and the West Northfield Little Women.

Thirty-one clubs participated in the contest for which window space was donated by local businessmen in the club's locality. (Fm

LAWNS AND GARDENS need extra care to preserve their beauty. With modern science we are now able to purchase all types of sprays, dusts and weed killers that help us control the common garden pests. We can also make our gardens more beautiful by using special preparations that enhance their growth.

Our outdoor cooks are also beginning to get ready for their cooking season. Jacob's has a large assortment of grills of every size and description as well as charcoal and cooking accessories.

The hardware store also has a complete photo department. Here they are able to give their customers complete film service on both black and white and color processing.

Their photography department includes cameras, flash bulbs, films and accessories.

NOTHING WILL SET off that new Easter hat on Easter Sunday like a beautiful new and smart hairdo. The proprietors of the Duet Beauty shop have all of the very latest in fashions for the hair.

Bev Mullins, proprietor of the shop, recently returned from attending the Midwest Beauty Convention in Chicago where she was able to see all of the styles and products for beauty from all over the country.

Bev noted that hair fashions are going to be short, but not the extreme shingle styles of previous years, and that soft natural permanent waves are a must for good looking hair.

Hair coloring that enhances the individual's looks and is natural looking is also coming into its own.
